WILL PLAY THE "RUB" GAME IN THE QUEEN CITY

Gulford and Davidson Will Decide State Championship Wednesday.

GUILFORD'S THIRD TEAM WINS FROM HIGH SCHOOL

Clemson Wins from Trinity—Season of College Baseball is Nearing an End, and Local and Small Games Are Now the Fad.

What gives promise of being the greatest game of the present college baseball season in the state will be the game next Wednesday in Charlotte between Davidson and Guilford colleges. Each team has won a game from the other and the third will decide which of the two teams will hold the state championship. Charlotte people worked hard to secure the game, and although the Guilford boys wanted to play in Greensboro, it was decided to go to the Queen City. Manager D. D. Carroll, of the Guilford team, was in the city yesterday, and said to a representative of the Daily Industrial News that he had only yesterday decided to submit to the Davidson manager's wishes in the matter and go Charlotte. The team will leave here Wednesday morning and return Wednesday night. Besides the members of the (Continued on page six.)

ANOTHER ATTACK ON PRESIDENT OF GUATEMALA

Second Attempt Made to Slay Ruler of Central American Republic. Guatemala Rejects Mexican Demands.

Washington, D. C., May 4.—Another attempt to assassinate President Cabrera, of Guatemala, according to a dispatch received today by Minister Toledo, was made yesterday. In this instance what is described in a general way as "a mine" was placed not far from the mansion of President Cabrera, apparently with the intention of exploding it at a time when it would be most destructive. The mine was discovered, the attempt at assassination thus being rendered futile.

The news of the second attempt on President Cabrera's life was received in a cablegram, of which the following is a translation:

"Guatemala, May 4, 1907. Minister Toledo, Washington, D. C. 'Yesterday a mine was discovered placed in front of the barracks of the Guard of Honor, 180 feet from the American legation, and 180 feet from the presidential mansion. This scandalous attempt at assassination has created great indignation among all classes of society.'

(Signed) "BARRIOS."

Signor Barrios is minister of foreign affairs of Guatemala. The Guard of Honor is the special guard of President Cabrera.

Ambassador Greel had a conference today with state department officials respecting the disturbed condition of affairs in Guatemala. The Mexican account is that indiscriminate arrests are being made of men, women and children, not only native Guatemalans, but persons of other nationalities, and that these prisoners are being harshly treated. It is understood that protests already have been made by the diplomatic representatives of other nations in Guatemala, and that an attempt will be made to secure joint action by Mexico and the United States to prevent a continuance of this policy of indiscriminate arrests.

A dispatch was received at the navy department from Commander Fullam, of the gunboat Marietta, which is patrolling Central American waters on the eastern coast, in which he says that he had permitted the Paducah to proceed south from Puerto Cortes, as everything is quiet there.

Concerning the assault by Nicaraguan police and soldiers upon General Davis, the negro fruit trader, the commander says he has made a full report to the department. His dispatch gives no details of the trouble there.

GOVERNOR HUGHES COUNSEL SHOOTS SELF ON STEAMER

Dean Hufcutt of Cornell Law School a Suicide.

NO REASON TO BE ASSIGNED FOR DEED

New York's Chief Executive, who Identifies Victim of His Own Bullet, Inexpressibly Shocked by the Affair—Inexplicable, He Says.

New York, May 4.—Ernest W. Hufcutt, former dean of Cornell University Law School, one of the leading authorities on constitutional law in the United States and personal counsel of Governor Hughes, ended his life today by shooting. The upper deck of the Hudson river steamer C. W. Morse was chosen by Mr. Hufcutt as the scene for the commission of the tragic act.

Sometime early this morning, while the steamer was coming down the river from Albany to this city, and while the steamer was swept by the heavy rain-storm which prevailed for hours, the lawyer seated himself in a deck chair and sent a bullet into his brain. His body was found hours later by a deck-hand, when the steamer had almost reached her dock.

His identity was not known at that time, and it was not until Governor Hughes, who chanced to be in the city, had visited the undertaking rooms where his body lay that the identification was made positive. The governor was deeply affected by the death of his friend and counselor, and said that he was utterly at a loss to account for his act.

Mr. Hufcutt left a letter for his sister, Miss Lillian Hufcutt, of this city, but it contained not even a hint of his reason for taking his life. In the letter the lawyer said that only his consideration for others had restrained him from acting before.

"I cannot tell you how shocked and saddened I am by this event," said Governor Hughes, in speaking of Mr. Hufcutt's death. "Dean Hufcutt was not only my legal advisor, but had long been my personal friend, and I had the highest admiration for his qualities of mind and heart. He succeeded me in the law faculty at Cornell University and later became the dean of that faculty. He was extremely popular with the students and with the members of the university faculty; indeed, with all with whom he came in contact. He was regarded as one of the brilliant men who have ever been identified with the university. He was an exceptionally clear thinker, and his rare abilities as a lawyer had attracted widespread attention.

"I understand that he was on leave from the university so that arrangements were made by which he could give full time to the legal work of the executive department. I cannot speak too highly of the work he has done in this office. He has been working very hard, particularly of late, but I had no idea that he was in any danger of a breakdown."

More Trouble Feared.

Panama, May 4.—According to private advices received here from Guatemala City, there is reason to believe that the political situation there is critical, and extraordinary developments are expected.

The fact that the strict censorship is relaxed is taken by those who know, as an indication that the government expects trouble. There would appear to be a determined purpose to suppress President Castro by any means, and the Guatemala City plot may be followed by other evidences of the popular hatred against the president of the republic.

Marvin Boy's Body Found In Marsh

HORACE MARVIN.

BODY OF MISSING MARVIN BOY FOUND IN THE MARSH NEAR HIS FORMER HOME

Son of Delaware Physician, According to One Theory, Was Murdered and Body Placed Where It Subsequently Was Discovered.

Dover, Del., May 4.—The body of little Horace Marvin, who disappeared from the farm of his father at Kitt's Hammock, near here, March 4, was found this afternoon in a marsh in a fair state of preservation. The spot where the body was found is about a half mile east of the farmhouse toward the Delaware river. Kitt's Hammock is between seven and eight miles from here and is without communication with any place.

From information brought by a horseman it is learned that the clothes on the child were the same as he wore the day he disappeared. The body was found lying face downward.

Dr. Marvin at the moment the body was found was not ready to say whether the body of his child was placed where it was found or whether he believes the child wandered into the marsh and lost his life. The marsh was frozen over the day the boy disappeared.

There is a theory that the child was murdered and his body placed in the marsh, as the long grass where the body was found was burned and cleared four weeks ago. It is said the body lay under a pile of grass and that the clothing showed no evidence of having been touched by fire.

The body was found by Ollie Pleasanton, a neighbor, who was gunning for ducks on the marsh today. He had the body borne to the house and covered with a sheet.

Pleasanton has figured in the case since Horace was lost, having first reported that he had seen the two strange men who appeared there inquiring about the topography of the country three days before the disappearance.

When Ollie Pleasanton came upon the child's body he found the clothing intact. His tiny woolen reefer was buttoned up securely about the body and not an article of clothing which he had on when he disappeared was missing. His knit cap was pulled over his face and his mittens were on his hands.

Dr. Marvin says he has searched over the same marsh nearly every day since the disappearance and with detectives burned the grass off the place four weeks ago, but saw no signs of the body. The theory that the child has been recently placed where he was found is supported (Continued on Page Two.)

PRESIDENT'S WIFE NARROWLY ESCAPES DEATH ON YACHT

Sylyph With First Lady of Land on Board Collides With Tugboat.

MISTAKE WAS DUE TO MISUNDERSTANDING

Washington, D. C., May 4.—Mrs. Roosevelt and a number of ladies accompanying her aboard the yacht Sylyph narrowly escaped a serious accident as the boat reached Washington yesterday on its return from a trip down the Potomac river.

Through some misunderstanding the boat went past her dock and crashed into a tugboat. The shock was so severe that the flag pole of the Sylyph fell to the deck with a crash, narrowly missing Mrs. Roosevelt and those with her. Among them were Mrs. Clifford Richardson, of New York, and Mrs. Bacon, the wife of the assistant secretary of state.

Mrs. Roosevelt was entertaining a party of friends aboard the yacht, having left the city at noon and returning to the navy yard at three o'clock for a time following the accident there was considerable excitement aboard the yacht, but the ladies were assured there was no danger and the vessel was backed to her dock, where the party disembarked without further adventure. Both yacht and the tugboat were more or less damaged.

The impression is that the engineer misunderstood an order to reverse his engines as one to go forward, resulting in the collision. The launch of the Sylyph was badly damaged.

The fact that the yacht was not proceeding at a rapid rate was regarded as fortunate, as otherwise the damage would have been considerable. Capt. Roscoe C. Bulmer, the captain of the Sylyph, was at the White House today, but for what purpose it could not be ascertained.

It was said at the White House later that all the circumstances plainly showed that Captain Bulmer was clearly not at fault. The mistake, it was said, lay with the engineer's department, which had improperly interpreted the signals.

The President, it is said, is satisfied with Captain Bulmer's explanation and a court of inquiry, which usually follows an accident, will not be necessary.

Yale Middy Race Postponed.

Annapolis, Md., May 4.—The two-mile boat race between Yale eight and the first crew of the Naval Academy, which was to have been rowed over the Severn river course here today, was postponed until Monday because of bad water conditions.

METHODIST PROTESTANTS OCCUPY THEIR NEW CHURCH EDIFICE IN THIS CITY TODAY

Congregation of Grace Church Move Into Edifice in Washington Street Recently Purchased From Baptists—History of the Church in Greensboro and Other Local Interests of Denomination.

The New Grace Methodist Protestant Church.

The congregation of Grace Methodist Protestant church today occupy for the first time their new church building on the corner of West Washington and Greene streets, recently purchased from the First Baptist church.

The church building, consisting of a main auditorium, with a seating capacity of about 600, a Sunday-school main assembly room and an infants' room, has been thoroughly renovated and a new pipe organ has been purchased and installed.

There is but little ritualism in the Methodist Protestant church, and the ceremonies attendant upon the opening of their new place of worship will be of the simplest character, aside from the regular service and a special sermon preached at the morning and evening services by the Rev. F. T. Tagg, one of the denominations' most distinguished preachers.

The Rev. Mr. Tagg is a resident of Baltimore, and comes from that city especially for this service. He is the president of the general conference of the Methodist Protestant church in the United States and the editor of the "Methodist Protestant," one of its two official organs. In North Carolina he is well known in person by a large number of the members of the church, having been attending the state conference for about a quarter of a century.

History of Grace Church.

"Grace church," as it will continue to be known, was the first Methodist Protestant church established in Greensboro, although the city is in the center of the denomination in the state, it being estimated that fully one-half of the 20,000 members live within a radius of thirty miles of the city.

The first church edifice erected was the one on East Lee street, in which the congregation have been worshipping up to the present time. It was the outgrowth of a resolution passed by the state conference of 1839, the Rev. J. R. Ball being assigned to the work of securing subscriptions and collecting funds.

Early in the spring of 1891 work on the building was begun and the church formally organized on May 20 of that year. By the following fall the building was ready for occupancy, and has since been used.

The first pastor was the Rev. W. F. Ohren, who came to the church from Maryland. He died, however, a few months later. Next came the Rev. J. S. Williams. Beginning in June, 1892, he served as pastor for three and a half years, being followed by the Rev. J. F. McCulloch, who served as pastor for about a year in addition to his duties as the editor of "Our Church Record," the official organ of the conference. For five years after that the pastorate was filled by the Rev. T. M. Johnson, who stepped from that position to the presidency of the conference. He was in turn succeeded in November, 1902, by the Rev. R. M. Andrews, who is still the pastor.

Other Interests in Greensboro.

Besides Grace church, the Methodist Protestants have other extensive interests in Greensboro. Their publishing house owns and occupies a handsome three-story building on the western side of South Elm street, a site purchased some years ago for a college in the southern suburbs of the city, it still held and a church has recently been erected (Continued on Page Three.)

JAY GOULD DEFEATS MILES FOR THE ENGLISH TENNIS CHAMPIONSHIP

After One of the Hardest Fought Matches Witnessed in England—American Win.

BETTER MAN, SAYS OPPONENT

London, May 4.—Jay Gould, of New York, today won the British amateur court tennis championship, defeating Eustace H. Miles, who held the championship, by 3-2, after one of the hardest fought matches ever witnessed in England.

Miles, who was the first to congratulate the victor, admitted he had been beaten by a better man, although he (Miles) never had played better tennis. The champion said Gould had strengthened most of his hitherto weak points, particularly his forcing strokes. The match lasted two and one-half hours.

Gould's play at its finish was the most brilliant of the match. He remarked that the match had not been so hard as he had expected it would be; he had played harder matches.

The British spectators were greatly disappointed at the result, and the Americans were correspondingly elated.

SWEARS HE WON'T HANG FOR MURDER

GEORGIA MAN EMPHATIC IN HIS DECLARATION WILL USE HORSEWHIP.

Augusta, Ga., May 4.—"I'll be damned if they will hang me. When I get out of this trouble I will horse-whip those fellows in there." These are some of the statements made today by Arthur Glover after being sentenced for the second time to be hanged on May 24 for the murder of Maud Dean.

Glover, who was a detective, shot the woman dead without a moment's warning. Not long before that he had shot a negro but got clear. His defense at the second trial included brainstorm, paranoia, etc.

The judge's arraignment of him in passing sentence was the most severe ever heard in Richmond county.

Santer hall has been secured as a rendezvous and will be a general meeting place for the old soldiers from the Tar Heel State, and there hundreds of them will spend their idle moments.

The outside of the building is to be adorned with an immense flag, while the inside will be elaborately furnished. A fine piano has been secured, and the veterans will bring some skillful players with them. There will be no lack of good music.

FRENCH TROOPS FORCE WAY INTO CONVENT

BATTER DOWN THE DOOR WHILE THE SISTERS ARE AT PRAYER.

Nantes, France, May 4.—At daylight today fifty mounted gendarmes surrounded the convent of the Ursulines here, and when the sisters refused to open the doors, the doors were battered in.

The sisters were found assembled at prayer in the chapel, but after the mother superior had read a protest against the action of the authorities the officiating priest removed the holy sacrament and the sisters withdrew.

In the meantime an excited crowd gathered outside the convent, shouting maledictions on the soldiers. Several persons were arrested, including a lieutenant of dragons.

ENGLISH TARS OUTROW AMERICANS FOR THE BATTENBURG TROPHY

Win Cup Presented by Prince Louis to the United States Navy.

Norfolk, Va., May 4.—By five lengths the rowing crew from the British ship Argyll this afternoon defeated the tars from the United States steamship Illinois, thereby winning the Battenburg cup, the prize offered for competition by the navies of the world at the Jamestown Exposition.

The distance of the race was three miles through the double line of American and foreign battleships, and the time was twenty-eight minutes for the British boat and twenty-nine minutes for the Illinois crew.

The Britishers started off slowly, allowing the American crew to lead for the better part of the race; then coming in with a fine burst of speed the Argyll's men made a spurt which they kept up and carried them under the finish line one minute ahead of the Americans.

There was about $30,000 placed on this race, even money, and on the Illinois a purse of $3,500 was raised.

H. S. HARKINS SCORES DEMOCRATIC WASTE IN ASHEVILLE GOVERNMENT

Republican Candidate for Mayor Shows Figures Proving Needless Extravagance.

Special to Daily Industrial News.

Asheville, N. C., May 4.—Interest in what has been regarded as the dullest campaign in Asheville's history was aroused today by the issuance of a strong circular by Chairman H. S. Harkins, Republican candidate for mayor of Asheville.

Mr. Harkins makes a comparison of Asheville's expenses and indebtedness with more of other cities in North Carolina including Greensboro, Charlotte, Raleigh, Durham and Wilmington.

Mr. Harkins declares that the voters after studying the figures will be convinced that Asheville is either being grossly mismanaged or else it is controlled or manipulated by reckless and incompetent officials.

The circular closes by saying that the Republicans if elected will bring about a mighty change.

A denial of Chairman Harkins' statement was published by Chairman Adams of the Democratic executive committee this afternoon, but Mr. Adams' figures were questioned tonight in a published statement declared that Mr. Adams instead of answering Chairman Harkins had put himself still further in a hole.

Mr. Bollins points out that Wilmington (Continued on Page Two.)

PRESIDENT WILL TALK ON RAILROAD QUESTION

Washington, D. C., May 4.—A discussion of the railroad question is to be an important feature of the President's speech at the unveiling of the Lawton monument in Indianapolis, Ind., on Memorial Day, May 30.

The particular features of the railroad situation on which he is to speak it is authoritatively stated, have not been yet selected. He has had frequent consultations with members of the interstate commerce commission and railroad officials and has obtained much information on the general railroad question, which will be availed of in his forthcoming speech.
