Washington, D. C., Jan. 16.—A com-plete change of front was exhibited by the majority in the House of Reprerevision of laws toward the close of yesterday's session, when it appeared as though the several amendments strengthening certain provisions of the bill re-garding alleged corruption in the apgarding alleged corruption in the appointment of persons to public offices would be adopted, had vanished and instead every inch of ground was fought over to keep amendments out of the bill. When adjournment was taken at 4.06 o'clock additional pages had been disposed of and but one or two verbal amendments by the committee by the railroad verbal amendments by the committee had been inserted.

At the outset of the debate Mr. Hardwick of Georgia, offered a substitute for the Williams amendment pending yes-terday when the House adjourned, re-garding payments to any person for his Post's Nomination to Governorship of Porto Rico Confirmed-Bill Carrying $3,500,000 for New York Postoffie Building Is Passed.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 16 .- The Senate calendar was cleared of nearly every bill upon it today, and the bill to revise the criminal laws of the United States was taken up and discussed until adjournment, which was taken at 4.30 o'clock until Monday.

The Senate today passed a resolution declaring that no communications from heads of departments, chief of bureaus, or other executive officers, will be received by that body unless they are sent in compliance with law or are transmitted by the President.

The resolution was reported from the committee on rules by Mr. Lodge yesterday, and was the result of objections made by Senator Heyburn and Senator Hale to the reception by the Senate of bills sent by Secretary Garfield in connection with a communication
