the Argument Is Unanswerable.

HEARD BY LARGE NUMBER

Winston-Salem, N. C., April 18.— Judge J. C. Pritchard's speech on pro-

The courtroom was packed, many farmers being numbered among his hearers. The speaker was happily introduced at 10:30 by Eugene E. Gray, and for an hour and twenty-five minutes Judge Pritchard dealt sledge-hammer blows against the liquor traffic. His address was argumentative, free from abuse, and he held his audience spellbound, as it were, from beginning to end.
