WARNER DEFENDS THE DISCHARGE OF NEGRO SOLDIERS

Missouri Senator Sustains Action of the President in the Brownsville Incident.

WILL CONTINUE HIS SPEECH TODAY

Declares That Those Who Have Set At Work To Arouse Race Feeling Have Taken Upon Themselves a Heavy Responsibility.

Washington, D. C., April 21.—Calling attention to the Grand Army button he wore on the lapel of his coat, and insisting that he had no prejudice against negro soldiers, some of whom he claimed as comrades, Senator Warner, of Missouri, in the Senate today, declared his conviction that the town of Brownsville, Texas, had been shot up by negro soldiers of the Twenty-fifth infantry in 1906. Mr. Warner quoted extensively from the testimony taken in the Brownsville case and presented an argument to sustain his belief in the guilt of the negro soldiers.

Without concluding his remarks, which he will resume tomorrow, Mr. Warner gave way for the naval appropriation bill, which was read in part. An amendment was adopted making the 20 per cent. increase in the pay of officers apply to those retired as well as on the active list.

In connection with the consideration of the naval bill the Senate entered into a long discussion of the policy of sending the naval fleet around the world. This policy was sharply criticized by Senator Bacon. The Senate adopted the conference report on the Indian appropriation bill and at 4:55 p. m. adjourned until tomorrow.

A painstaking analysis of the testimony taken in the several investigations of the Brownsville affair, which led to the discharge of a number of negro soldiers.
