Ashboro, N. C., Oct. 31.—It is very much to be doubted if the oldest inhabitant of Randolph or for that matter any other county in the Old North State was such a political gathering as was held in this town today.

It was a Republican me ting held in honor of J. Elwood Cox, the Republican nominee for governor, and Zel Walser, candidate for Congress.

The overwhelming size of the crowd and its extraordinary enthusiasm has put an effectual damper on the Democracy of this county from which it will not recover for many a day to come.

The speakers of the day were J. Elwood Cox, Zeb. V. Walser and Walter R. Henry, and right well did they meas—

Production Would Be Curtailed, Workmen Thrown Out of Jobs, Wages Lowered and the Market for Farm Pro duce and Manufactures Reduced.

New York, Oct. 31.-Secretary of State Elihu Root Spoke at Durland's Riding Avademy here tonight on the issues of the campaign. He said: Fellow Citizens:

I wish to state some reasons which lead me to believe that Mr. Brayn's election to the presidency would be follow ed by general and long continued busi-ness disaster; that the recovery, now in progress, from the panic of last year, would stop; that production would be curtailed, many workmen thrown out of employment, wages lowered, the market for farm products and manufactures reduced, and the income upon investments of private individuals, of savings banks and insurance companies, of charitable and educational institutions, in a great measure cut off; and that a long period
