QUIET IN THE COAL MINES. Order Restored and the Strikers Dis-

Sr. Louis, May 28—Reports from Collinsville, Illinois, received late last night say that perfect quiet prevailed there all day yesterday. The militia have had nothing to do and the few strikers there have either kept out of aight or manifested no disposition to strikers there have either kept out of sight or manifested no disposition to create any further disturbances. Beports from Belleville and neighborhood state that the strikers held several meetings at different places yesterday, but they were all secret and nothing is known of the strikers proceedings or what they intend to do. Their future action will depend largely upon what the mine numers do. Most of the minem will attempt to resume operations to day, the sheriff of the county having given his assurance in full prohaving given his assurance in full pro-tection to all who desire to work. A considerable number of strikers left Belleville Saturday evening for points
South of Cairo. On the Short Line Railroad at Lenzburgh they met a coal train and threatened to take possession of it but finally allowed it to proceed.
It is stated that the militia at and near Collinsville will be concentrated to-day at East St Louis, from which place they can be more promptly distributed to all parts of the country should occasion require. Guards will be left at Collinsville mine. No arrests have as yet been reported, but quite a number of warrants are in the hands of the sheriff and they will probably be served to-day.

WOMEN IN THE FIELD.

A Band of Them Strike for Their Husbands and Fathers and Capture

ST. LOUIS, May 28.—The latest information from the mining districts in St Clair, Illinois, is to the effect that work was to have been resumed this morning at the Rose Hill mine, near West Belleville, but when the men were about to egin work at 5 o'clock a band women, the wives and daughters of the strikers, marching two abreast and armed with stout clubs, appeared on the scene and after some altercation compelled the men to desist and work was not started. The sheriff's posse was driven back by the women and the latter are now in possession of the mine. Military are assembled in East St Louis and a detachment will probably be sent to Rose Hill to restore order and protect the men who desire to

He said the poster was infamous and he was convinced that no one in his office would venture to issue such a notice in his absence. He believed it was a decoy issued for the pur pose of injuring him.

A Missouri Tragedy, Probably Inspired by Jealeusy. Sr. Louis, May 28.—At Cedar Hill Catholic church, in Jefferson county, about 35 miles south of this city, as Martha McDaniel and Auriel Durentz were yesterday coming from mass they were met by Hiram Suelleuss, who carried a shot gun. As he approached he shouted "Draw your pistol, Auriel," but without waiting an instant he fired, killing Durentz on the spot. He then discharged the second barrel at the viri. discharged the second barrel at the gir seriously, perhaps mortally, wounding her. The murderer then reloaded his gun, and by means of a forked stick, fired again, instantly killing himself.

The Tonquin Trouble. LONDON, May 28 .- The Times corres sondent at Paris says: The country is thoroughly aroused concerning the Tonquin trouble. It is felt that the time for reflection is past, and that the only course for France is to act vigorously, and, above all things, swiftly. The latest news from China is that six

The following is the full text of the circular addressed by the Holy See to Irish Bishops, and despatched, from Rome to each of them on the 11th inst: Whatever may be the case as regards Mr Parnell himself and his objects, it is at all events proved that many of his realizations. at all events proved that many of his followers have on many occasions adopted a line of conduct in open contradiction to the rules laid down by the Supreme Pontiff in his letter to the Cardinal Archbishop of Dublin, and contained in the instructions sent to the Irish Bishops by this Sacred Congregation, and unanimously accepted by them at their recent meeting at Dublin. It is true that, according to those instructions, it is lawful for the Irish to seek redress for their grievances and to strive for their rights; but always at the same time observing the always at the same time observing the Divine maxim to seek first the kingdom of God and His justice, and remembering also that it is wicked to further any cause, no matter how just, by illegal

It is therefore the duty of all the clergy, and especially of the Bishops, to curb the excited feelings of the multi-tude, and to take every opportunity with timely exhortations to recall them to the justice and moderation which are necessary in all things, that so they may not be led away by greed of gain to mistake evil for good, or to place their hopes of public prosperity in the shape of criminal acts. Hence it follows that it is not permitted to any of the clergy to depart from these rules themselves, or to take part in or in any way promote movements inconsistent with prudence and with the duty of calming men's. and with the duty of calming men's minds. It is certainly not forbidden to collect for the relief of distress in Iraland; but at the same time the afore-said apostolic mandates absolutely condemn such collections as are raised in demn such collections as are raised in order to inflame popular passions, and to be used as a means for leading men into rebellion against the laws. Above all things they, the clergy must hold themselves aloof from such subscriptions when it is plain that hatred and dissensions are aroused by them, that distinguished persons are loaded with insults, that never in any way are censures pronounced against the crimes and murders with which wicked men stain themselves, and especially when stain themselves, and especially when it is asserted that the measure of true patriotism is in proportion to the amount of money given or refused—so as to bring the people under the pressure of intimidation.

ident to your Lordship that the collection called the "Parnell Testimonial Fund" cannot be approved by this Sacred Congregation; and consequently it cannot be tolerated that any ecclesiastic, much less a Bishop, should take any part whatever in recommending or promoting it. Meanwhile, we pray God long to preserve your lordship. ong to preserve your lordship.

He thinks the stories to the effect that his Indian scouts turned upon and massacred Gen Crook, and his command are wholly sensa-tional and improbable. In the first place, said Gen Drum, no one under-stands the Indian character better than stands the Indian character better than Gen Crook and would be the last man to put himself in a position where such a thing would be possible. In the second place the Indian acouts left their wives and children in the custody of the United States authorities and would not dare to mutiny even if so inclined, knowing that their families were held as hostages. THE SHELBY BANK-SWINDLE.

THE DAILY CHARLOTTE JOURNAL, AND THE DAILY CHARLOTTE OBSERVER, CONSOLIDATED MARCH 27, 1883.

A Genuine Check for $20 is Raised to $1,200 and Cashed by the Unsuspecting Bankers -- A Reward of $200 Out. Further particulars of the swindle perpetrated on Mesers H. D. Lee & Co. nkers of Shelby, of which mention was first made in the JOURNAL-OB SERVER Sunday morning, have been received through a friend from Shelby, and goes to show that the check was originally made out for $20, but was "raised" to $1,200, presented at the bank and cashed. It seems that in January last a draft for $20 was issued by the Greenville, S. C., Bank on the Fourth National Bank of New York, and made payable to one J. W. Simmons. But the after prefix of a "1" and suffix of an "0." with some change of the wording, and the draft was presented at the bank there as a $1,200 check, and a letter of introduction accompanied the draft, purporting to be from J. W. Simmons, the superintendent and treasurer of the Mica Mining Company. After being satisfied that the draft was genuine, it was cashed, less the usual discount The money was paid to a young man named Mason, from near Marion, N. C., by whom Simmons had sent the draft and message. Upon the testimony of young Mason in the justice's court, it seems that A. Bechtler and J. W. Simmons reaped the benefit of this raise, who, when last heard from, were going in the direction of Yancey county. A reward of $200 is offered for their arrest. Bechtler is well known in this community as a notorious character.

At the Lutheran church Sunday Rev. r. S. Brown, the pastor, presched or "The Rich Man and Lazarus," in which he discoursed on the intermediate state. That there is a fixed barrier between these conditions; at any rate. there is no passing from one to the other. That there is no intermediate state or condition where the soul is purified for entering heaven. "The doctrine of purgatory was rejected especially by the Lutheran church as conflicting with that of justification by faith alone." Most scriptural to say, that when a man dies be either enters into heaven or hell. These are the only places or conditions which the scriptures reveal. The harmony of this view with the final judgment: There is a particular judgment and a general judgment. The former that which a man naturally passes upon himself by his own actions on earth, which, when he dies, sentences him to a condition of happiness or misery. The general or final judgment is a formal and open judgment before men and angels, when the soul and body are re united, for judgment must be passed upon the body as well as the soul. The body is a constitutional part of the man. He is not a full and essential man unless united in soul and body. Hence, man must be judged in his entirety, and that, too, in a formal way, before the whole world, when he is formally re-sentenced to his condition, either of everlasting happiness or eternal misery. The happiness and misery then will, doubtless, be more intense in degree than it was always a straight cut to the guard before the final judgment, breause body and soul are re united, and hence the whole being would be capable either of more joy or pain.

Death of a Promising Young Man.

We regret to announce the death at Lincolnton on Sunday last, 27th inst, of Mr William Brandon Wetmore, sor of Rev W R Wetmore. The deceased young man was aged 19 years, two months and twenty-three days, and was a Lieutenant of Cadets in the Horner school. He was unusually popular for one of his tender years among all who knew him, and gifted by nature with a bright, intelligent mind, many fair and brilliant promises were held out for his future. His afflicted family have the teep sympathics of their many friends sere and elsewhere.

Picnic Party Blown Up by Dynamite. The owners of the private fish ponds about the city have been annoyed so much lately by depredators that they have resorted to Nihilistic measures to keep off the trespassers, and have plant-ed dynamite cartridges along the banks of the ponds. A string drawn across the grass connects with the cartridge and whenever a foot strikes the stringthe cartridge explodes. Last Saturday evening there was a colored picnic near Phifer's pond, and during the evening a crowd of the colored people went to the pond to fish, sit about and flirt, and eat their lunch. They assembled on the bank in close proximity to one of the cartridges and in the course of a few minutes while they were chatting away in blissful ignorance of what was to come, one of the party struck his foot against the string. Instantly there was a deafening report and the air was filled with flying dirt, weeds, grass, hats, shawls, parasols, provisions and lunch baskets, and the terrified picnicers stampeded for the woods. The cartridge was planted about afty feet from the party and none of them were hurt, but they could not have been worse scared. Mr. M. C. Quinn heard the explosion fom his house, and went out to to the pond to see what damage had been done. The bank was covered with abandoned hats, shawls and lunch baskets, and a hole ten feet square was in the ground at the spot where the cartridge exploded. None of of picuicers were in sight. He piled up the abandoned goods, and at nightfall the they did not tarry long by the pond. Beware of the cartridges, poschers. King Doing the Towns. Mr. T. M, Brown, proprietor of a hotel in Monroe, writes us that one J. B. King recently visited Monroe for the purpose of getting up a botel register for that place. King secured a lot of advertisements for the register, securing the cash for the same, besides getting the money for the register. He promised the advertisers and the hotel man that the register would be furnish-SERVER office. Three weeks have how elsiged, and now Mr. Brown writes that the parties are after him daily wanting to know where the book or their money is, and asks: "Can't we have the book soon?" This question is just a little too hard for us, as we have received no orders from Mr. King in regard to furnishing the book. The young gentleman in question spent about three weeks in Charlotte getting up a city directory, and all he left to show for it is his baggage, which is in soak at one of our hotels. He applied at this office for our rates on such work, but this is all. No contract was made with him. Since receiving the letter from Monroe, we hear that young King also got up a register in Greens boro on the same plan. It is the same old game, and the only strange part about it is that our people will be so thoughtles as to allow themselves to be taken in by the clumsy old dodge. No one should ever pay a cent for their cards in a register until they see the book printed and on the hotel counter. Our Monroe friends are out of pocket by their experience, that's all.

The New Railroad to North Carolina. The new railroad from Richmond into North Carolina of which we spoke several werks ago, seems to be a sure thing. A mortgage deed of the road has been recorded in the clerk's office of Mecklenburg county, Va. The capital stock of the company is placed at 5,000 shares of one hundred dollars each, of which 2,000 shares of said stock guaranteed bearing 7 per cent. interest to be subscribed for, 1,000 shares held in reserve as the property of the company, and 2,000 shares to be issued forthwith in one certificate to James B Winston in trust equally for five corporators, P A Wellford, C A Wellford, Moncure Robinson, Joseph P Brinton, and Charles Chancey, beneficial owners thereof. They have the the right to represent the same in all meetings of the corporation, and shall be transferred by said Winston in equal amounts to each of the said five incorporators as soon as the Virginia and Carolina railroad shall have been built and put in running order from a point on the Raleigh and Gaston railroad to the city of Petersburg; or to a point equally distant if it shall be decided that the said road shall be built to Richmond by some other route than by Petersburg.

The deed conveys all the property, real, personal and mixed its charter rights, franchises and income, and constitutes William Wirt Henry and James B Winston, of the city of Richmond, trustees, and is signed by P A Wellford, chairman of the incorporators, and as such president of the company. and is dated 15th May, 1883. Another Change of Schedule.

It is said that on next Sunday another change of schedule on the Richm made. The day train on the Charlotte, Columbia & Augusta road is to be discentinued and put on the night run, to connect with the incoming passenger train from the north, which now arrives at 1:15 a. m. There will be no change in the running of the day trains on the Richmond & Danville road, but the hours for the departure and arriva of the night trains will be considerably altered. We will give the figures soon as the time table is issued. octure on Toxas, in Shelby. Instead of the usual services at the Baptist Church in Shelby, last Sunday night, Rev. Dr. W. A. Nelson, the par-

A Trick That Beats Wooden Natmers. Mr. C. C. Smith has a little son who keeps a retail pavement store in the yard at his residence, and on last Saturday the young merchant bought fifteen packages of sods which he offered to customers. During the day he sold five packages, and yesterday the five cus-tomers came back to him with the goods he had sold them and demanded to have their money refunded. The sods he had sold them was nothing more nor less than blocks of pine wood On investigating his stock, the young merchant found that every package of soda was of the same kind, each wrap-per containing a block of wood. Mr Smith has presented us a pound package of the sods. It is put up in regular soda wrappers, with the arm and ham-mer trademark and is branded "Church & Co's Soda." As the printed lines on the wrapper truly remark it is "aniformly full weight and strength."
