THE NORTH CAROLINA CAVALRY.

Continued.
The Campaign of 1864 Opens—The Sheridan Raid—Death of Stuart and Gordon—Keenan and Landing at Northland—Gen. Young and Col. Baker Commanding.

From advance sheets of Sloan's History.
Early in May, 1864, the North Carolina Cavalry Brigade, consisting of three regiments, viz: the First, commanded by Col. Orestes B. Keenan, the Second, by Col. Andrew, and the Fifth, commanded by Lieut. Col. Evans, were in winter quarters near Millford station, Virginia.

The brigade numbered about 500 effective men, was under the command of Brig. Gen. James B. Gordon, and was attached to Hampton's Division.

A detachment of 800 men from the First Regiment, under Major Cowles, had been engaged in picketing the lower fords of the Potomac river, rendered efficient service in harassing the enemy, and had captured in all about 400 prisoners.

In May Gen. Hampton broke camp and put himself in motion to join Gen. R. E. Lee. On this march he met a large body of the enemy's cavalry, near White Hall, and there he met the Second and Fifth Regiments took the most active part in this fight.

The Confederate loss was considerable, especially in the Fifth Regiment, which had 18 men killed and wounded.

The North Carolina Brigade was now transferred to Major General Stuart's Division, and reported to him on the 8th of the same month.

On the 9th of May, Sheridan set out on his raid, and the Cavalry followed. Stuart followed in pursuit. Two divisions of Confederate Cavalry—Fitz Lee and Lomax—moved on Sheridan's flank. The Cavalry Brigade, under the command of Gen. Gordon, followed in pursuit.

On the morning of the 11th, Gen. Gordon overtook the raiders at Goodall's Tavern, and a battle ensued.

The full brigade of the enemy's cavalry, with the First and Fifth Regiments, in the afternoon of the same day the First and Second Regiments of the Cavalry, the enemy lost heavily in killed, wounded and prisoners.

Our loss was also heavy. Major General Stuart struck the enemy's advance guard at the Chickahominy, and the Cavalry Brigade, under the command of Gen. Gordon, followed in pursuit.

On the 12th, at Brook church, only one mile from the outer defenses of Richmond, Gen. Gordon, leading the Cavalry, followed in pursuit.

SALEM-WINSTON.

Items from the Twin Towns.
The drought is becoming almost alarming here, and, in consequence, there is but little stock at least being brought in, but what is offered on the market brings very good prices, in fact, it is selling higher than has ever been known here, so any some of our best dealers.

The citizens of Winston have taken the matter of a graded school in hand, and the prospect bids fair for being a success, and we hope the day is not far distant when it can no more be said that Winston was a rural school and a village of millers of good educational advantages.

Mayor Buxton and family will spend the summer at Asheville.
Chief of Police W. T. Bahnon was notified yesterday by telegram to arrest a Mr. King, who had swindled some of Charlotte's citizens but the notice came too late. He had left here the evening before, and forgot to pay his board bill.

The remains of Rev. Mr. Johnson, father of Rev. P. H. Johnson, pastor of the Presbyterian church in Winston, arrived here yesterday afternoon. He died here on the 10th of May.

Major Robert Craig, inspector of the United States signal service, arrived in the city yesterday, and will inspect the signal station in this city.

Mr. J. W. Cobb, late taker for Charlotte township, will open the books at the court house on Monday 13th, and wants everybody to come up and tell what they are worth.

Capt. Jno. A. Dodson, one of the best known conductors on the Richmond & Danville road, has been promoted, and is now supervisor of the road way between Danville and Charlotte.

Low mass will be said at the Catholic church this morning at 7:30 o'clock, and high mass at 11. Sunday school at 3 p. m., and vespers and benediction at 4 p. m., Father Wright, pastor.

A burglar tried Gen. R. Barringer's residence, night before last, but was frightened almost to death by the General, who, in his sleeping costume, confronted the prowler and chased him out of the yard.

Rev. Mr. Peschau, of Wilmington, who was recently elected president of the North Carolina College, at Mount Pleasant, has declined to accept the position, preferring to remain with his charge in Wilmington.

The picnic of the two Presbyterian Sunday schools, yesterday, was a most pleasant affair, and was delightfully enjoyed by two or three hundred scholars and teachers, who were happy when the day began and sorry when it ended.

Mr. W. L. Bigham, of Berryhill township, who is in the city yesterday, reports something remarkable. He has a calf, only fifteen months old, that gives milk. The calf is not as large as an ordinary animal of that age.

The fact of its giving milk is considered almost extraordinary, and is something the like of which Mr. Bigham never heard of.

Re-Organization of the Bicycle Club.
The Charlotte Bicycle Club was re-organized Friday evening, and the following officers were elected:

Change of Schedule.

A slight change of schedule goes into effect on the Richmond & Danville Railroad to-day. The departure and arrival of the passenger trains hereafter will be as follows:

No. 60—Arrive at Charlotte at 1:30 a. m., instead of 1:10 a. m., as formerly.
No. 51—Leave Charlotte at 3:55 a. m.
No. 52—Arrive at Charlotte at 2:10 p. m.

No. 53—Leave Charlotte at 4:50 p. m.
The local passenger accommodation freight train on the Air Line road will hereafter leave Charlotte at 6:30 a. m., and arrive at 6:13 p. m. There is no change of schedule on the Charlotte, Columbia & Augusta road.

Mining Items.
Mr. L. Jackson, of Boston, the president of the Arlington guarantee gold mine, arrived in the city yesterday, and drove out to take a look at his property. He is accompanied by his wife and son, and a mining expert. The Arlington Guarantee has recently been panning out remarkably well and is considered one of the richest mines in the county.

Mr. Jackson will have the new stamp mills and other machinery erected at the mine put in working order this summer.

Since the sale of his saloon Mr. William Cochran has turned his whole attention to gold mining and carries an assortment of nuggets about with him all the time. Yesterday he exhibited a lump of gold as large as a hen egg that had been unearthed by a pick in the hands of one of his miners. The lump is worth $150.

Sunday Notes.
The Baptist Sunday School convention will be held in Shelby on June 20th, and the Carolina Central Railroad will carry visitors and delegates at excursion rates. The fare from Charlotte to Shelby and return, will be $1.50.

North Carolina's portion of the assessment for $66,000 church extension for the ensuing year to be raised among the Methodists of the State is $4,500.

There are nearly four thousand Southern Methodists in Atlanta, Ga.
Dr. Herzog, the Swiss Old Catholic Bishop, has just confirmed six young girls at the American Episcopal Church of St. Paul, Rome, having gone from Rome for the purpose of being confirmed.

It is the intention of the Old Catholic bishop to visit Rome in an official capacity.

According to the Baptist Year Book for 1883, the number of baptisms last year was 94,680, a gain of 13,110 upon 1881. The membership was increased over all losses, by 58,720 and carried up to 2,294,742. The contributions for congregational and benevolent purposes amounted last year to $2,215,506.07, an increase of $618,885.20 over previous year. A good showing was made.

Spain to have a Protestant newspaper. It will be illustrated and will publish religious news.

Bishop McIntyre, who goes to China during the coming year, will be clothed with authority to organize a regular Annual Conference in that field. An appropriation was made for the purpose, and also for sending out five new missionaries—four ministers and one layman.

A Scotch minister, forgetting his spectacles could read the hymn, and so he said: "My eyes is dim; I cannot see." The preacher immediately sang "My eyes are dim; I saw no one." The minister explained, "I spoke of my infirmity." This was sung as the second hymn. The minister pleaded, "I merely said my eyes were dim." These words were sung, and he sat down saying, "I did not mean to sing a hymn." When this line was sung the services closed.

Female Institute Commencement.
The exercises will consist of the musical commencement, conducted by the graduates in music, Thursday evening, the 7th inst.; the primary and preparatory class entertainment, Friday evening; the literary commencement, Monday evening, the 11th, and the annual concert, Tuesday evening. The principal cordially invites to these exercises the present and past patrons of the school, and no tickets of admission will be required of them at the door; it is for their entertainment especially that these exercises are gotten up. Such other ladies and gentlemen of our city as are interested in the musical and literary entertainments, if they desire to attend them, can get tickets of admission from the principal, which are issued only on account of the limited capacity of the school room. ## Rutherford Court—Two Interesting Trials.

Rutherford court adjourned yesterday, but at too late an hour for Judge Shipp and Solicitor Osborne to take the train for home, the court being detained by a hung jury in a murder case. The case in question was the State vs. W. L. Ross, for the murder of his father, was found not guilty.

State vs. John Parks, stock at large, was found not guilty.
State vs. Sol Brown, carrying concealed weapons, not guilty.
State vs. Jim Hines, carrying concealed weapons, pleaded guilty and judgment was suspended.

State vs. Randall Porter, A & B called each other names, and was found not guilty.
State vs. Wm Woodley, larceny and not guilty. (Look out for the chicken coops.)

State vs. John Brown, murder. This case will be tried Monday.
The court then took up the civil docket and disposed of a number of cases. The court is now engaged upon the civil docket and will be able to finish it early in next week.

The board of town commissioners held their regular monthly meeting in the mayor's office yesterday evening. The two commissioners from each ward were appointed a committee to look after the streets and walks in their respective wards.

The election of cotton weaver was postponed until the first regular meeting in September.

The election of school committee resulted in the choice of Messrs J. Blackman, M. L. Holmes and Rev. Dr. H. H. Ball. Mr. Ball was elected as special policeman, and allowed only his fees. After passing upon a few small accounts the board adjourned.

There were several street fights yesterday, but they were not tried, as it seems under the new laws that the Superior Court, while in session, has exclusive jurisdiction of all A's and B's affairs, &c., occurring during the session of the court and within one mile of the courthouse.

There have been quite a number of visiting members of the bar in attendance upon court this week. The following have been present: Messrs J. H. Wilburn of Lexington, J. A. Gourley of Concord, John M. Staples of Greensboro, "Bailey of Mocklenburg," David Bohack of Greensboro, B. A. Arnold of Statesville, T. B. Bailey of Davidson, and Lisbon Berry (colored) of Reidsville.

The appearance of a colored lawyer before a jury in Rowan is something new and it attracted quite a crowd to the court house to hear what he had to say.

The trustees of J. F. Ross are selling at auction his entire stock of dry goods. The auctions draw well in more cases than of late.

Mr. O. Y. Chatham, train dispatcher on the W. N. O. R. R. is moving his office down to the Mt. Vernon Hotel, so he can be more conveniently situated, preparatory to the night schedule which goes into effect on Monday.

The regular services to be held in the Episcopal, Baptist, Methodist and Presbyterian churches to-morrow and Friday are most cordially invited.

For Dyspepsia, Constipation, Chronic Diarrhoea, Jaundice, Impurity of the Blood, Rheumatism, Ague, Malaria, and all Diseases caused by Derangement of Liver, Bile and Kidney.

SIMMONS' LIVER REGULATOR.

It should be used by all persons, old and young, whenever any of the above symptoms are present.

Persons Travelling or Living in Unhealthy Localities, by taking a dose occasionally to keep the Liver in tone, will avoid all Malaria, Biliousness, Diarrhoea, Headache, and all the ailments which attend a derangement of the Liver.

It has been known to cure cases of Dyspepsia, Constipation, Chronic Diarrhoea, Jaundice, Impurity of the Blood, Rheumatism, Ague, Malaria, and all Diseases caused by Derangement of Liver, Bile and Kidney.

Time and Doctors' Bills will be saved by always keeping a supply of Simmons' Liver Regulator in the house.

For whatever the ailment may be, a thoroughly purgative, administered with care, will never be out of place. The remedy is harmless, and will not interfere with business or pleasure.

IT IS PURELY VEGETABLE.
It has never been known to produce any Quinine, without any of the injurious after effects.

A Governor's Testimony.
Simmons' Liver Regulator has been used in my family for some time, and I am satisfied it is a valuable and safe medicine.

J. G. Slocum, Governor of Ala.
Hon. Alexander H. Stephens, of Georgia, has used Simmons' Liver Regulator, and will give it to his family.
