The Crib of a Millionaire.

McCormick, the great reaper man, who was raised in Rockbridge county, Va., recently ordered a friend of his to seek out find the crib in which he was rocked when a babe and purchase it regardless of cost. S. M. Wilkes, the furniture dealer of Staunton, got on the track of it, and the party owning it offered to give it up for a new one, which was furnished, when the old relic was promptly shipped to Chicago. It was found near Goshen. Allegh my Tribune.

The Kind of Stories They Tell About

A New York man who stopped at a famous Boston hotel was asked how he liked it: "Well, the toothpicks are about the best I have found this season," said he. A Washington man who was noted for his fondness for a good table took dinner with a Boston man who had just got his money. He was asked how the millionaire was "fixed." "He," exclaimed the connoisseur in disgust, "he doesn't know how to be rich. Why, they had pie for breakfast."

Having passed several sleepless nights, disturbed by the agentes and crise of a suffering child, and becoming convinced that Mrs. Winslow's Scothing Syrup was just the article needed, procured a supply for the child. On reaching home and acquainting his wife with what he had done, as are was strongly in favor of Homosopathy. That night the child parted in suffering, and the parents without sleep. Se'urning home the day following, the father found the baby still worse; and while contemplating stother sleepless night, the mother stepped from the room to attend to some domestic duties, and left the father with the child. During her absence he administered a portion of the Scothing Syrup to the baby, and said nothing. That night all hands sleep well, and the little fellow swoke in the morning bright and happy. The mother was delighted with the sudden and wonderful change, and although at first offended at the deception practiced upon her, has continued to use the Syrup, and suffering crying babies and restless nights have disappeared. A single trial of the Syrup never yet failed to relieve the baby, and overcome the prejudices of the mother. Said by all Druggists. 25 cents a bottle.

I have known and watched the use of Swift's Specific for over fifty years, and have never known or heard of a failure to cure blood poison when properly taken. I used it on my servants from 1850 to 1865, as did also a number of my neigh beers, and in every case that came within my knowledge it effect of a cure. In all my life I have never known a remedy that would so fu'lly accomplish what it is recommended to do.

H. L. DENNARD, Perry, Ga.

I have known and used Swift's Specific for more than twenty years and have seen more wonderful results from its u-e than from any remedy in or out of the Pharmacopoils. It is a certain and safe antidets to all series of blood poison

We do not hesitate to say that for a year past we have sold more of Switt's Specific (4. S. S.) than all other blood purifiers combined, and with most astonishing results. One gentleman who used half a dozen bottles says that it has done him more good than the treatment which cost him $1,000. Another who has used it for a serofatous affection reports a permanent cure from its use.
