Daily Journal-Observer

The familiar story comes from Chicago. Two rich farmers, a few years ago, got into a dispute about the boundary lines of their farms, and each hired a sharp lawyer, who was poor. The case has progressed to settlement, and the two lawyers got the two farms.

There have been constructed in the country thus far this year 2,500 miles of railway, about half the amount built within the same period last year, which remarks the Philadelphia Times, with the increased number of furnaces that have been started in different parts of the country will sufficiently account for the dullness in the iron trade.

Philadelphia Press, Rep. The Harbinger convention missed its opportunity and has disappointed the reasonable expectations of many Republicans in falling to declare explicitly and unequivocally for the reform of the civil service. The two resolutions touching and evading this subject are a mere juggle of words.

The Republican convention which met in Harrisburg, Pa., a few days ago, adopted the civil service reform question, but incorporated in the platform a plank advocating the distribution among the States of the surplus of the money in the United States treasury for educational purposes. Of course they do not expect to follow this up, but threw it out as a bait to catch votes.

John C. New, Assistant Secretary of the Treasury, and also a member of the Republican State executive committee of Indiana, says that Indianapolis is the place for the holding of the next National Republican Convention, that the town is just large enough to accommodate all who may desire to go, but not large enough to furnish a crowd to capture the convention, as was the case at Chicago when Garfield was nominated.

A correspondent of the Charleston News and Courier in pronouncing a glowing eulogy on the life giving virtues of the well known Glenn Springs, of South Carolina, styles them a "Mecca of health." It must have slipped the writer's memory that the holy waters at Mecca, were, by a recent analysis, found to contain 579 grains of solid matter to the gallon, and are seven times more than the average of London. Better call the springs something else.

Germany has declared war on American pork and lard and now England is going to make war on American beef, which is ruining the trade of the English beef raiser and butchers. They both make false pretenses, the Germans saying their opposition to American pork arises from the dread of trichinae, and the English-American beef raisers urging as their ground of action that diseases are imported with American cattle. This may or may not be so, but the real reason is that they want to exclude what is proving to be such a serious thing in the way of competition to their own people.

A movement has been started by Mr. E. A. Vollmer, a northern gentleman who has settled near Wadesboro, for a convention of northern born citizens now resident in this State, to be held at Wadesboro on November 14th, to give expression to their views as to the treatment they have experienced in the South, the object being to thus get an expression of sentiment to enlighten the northern people as to the true status of the northern settler in this section. Mr. Vollmer's idea is to gather the views of the northern settlers in person and thus correct the false impressions based upon the false reports that have been sent out, and have done so much to place the South in a false light.

The Charlotte Messenger, colored organ, gets off the following pithy remark in its last issue: Colored men held a convention in Charlotte some time ago and a representation of the Juries of our county courts, two thirds of which have white majorities. We have stronger grounds now to call another such convention and ask the Liberal Republican party to give representation in Federal offices, inasmuch as we make four-fifths of the population. We want better places than we have.

This is a long felt need that the Liberal Republican party will not be in a hurry to supply. As voters the colored ballot droppers do well enough but when it comes to dividing the honors and emoluments that is another question.

The Democratic nominees for Governor of Iowa has challenged the Republican nominee to a joint discussion of the issues between the parties in that State, but whether the invitation has been accepted is not yet announced. Joint discussions are an unknown feature in the political campaigns in the North, and this Iowa move is a new departure. The only instance of the kind within our recollection was the joint discussion between Messrs Douglas and Lincoln, in Illinois, shortly before the war. The custom is in the North for each party to hold its own meetings, to be addressed by its own speakers, at which people of the opposite party may be present and hear themselves heatedly abused, but to consider or attempt to reply would be considered a breach of the peace. In the South we see a new departure and accommodate in our political warfare.

Found Guilty of Murder of Her Husband. Richmond, Va., July 14.—Barbara Miller, colored, on trial in Henrico county court for the murder of her husband Dan Miller, by Charles Henrice, her paramour, was today found guilty of murder in the first degree and sentenced to the gallows.

The Chester Bulletin says that on last Saturday five miles from Chester, court house a negro boy named Jack Ginn was shot and killed a two year old colored child named Jimmie Heath. The shooting was intentional and the jury of intent agreed that the case was too young to conceive malice-boy intent in killing.

THE STORM KING.

OLD BORRAS TURNS HIMSELF LOOSE.

Lights on East and West, Sweep Over Towns, Levels Fences, Destroys Orchard and Strips Trees, and Feeds the Earth With Chunks of Ice.

OMAHA, Neb., July 14th.—Dispatches from Louisville, Kas. county, report that the most severe hail storm ever experienced in that locality occurred yesterday forenoon. The ground was white with hail, small grain was scorched, corn stripped, and much of the glass in town shattered.

LANSING, Mich., July 14.—Particulars of the Tornado on Pawnee River were blown away and Fitzgerald's shop sheds gone. The large stones killed young calves and lambs. Corn was cut so that it will not hide a Jack rabbit. The hill northwest of Brown Grove looks as black as if it had been burned. The hills are black, but it is not known if it was ploughed and the heavy rain following washed it away. The extent of the damage is unknown.

BISMARCK, DAKOTA, July 14.—All day yesterday the barometer continued to fall until about 6 o'clock when the heaviest wind storm ever known in this region began and lasted about an hour and a half. The wind at one time reached the velocity of sixty miles an hour and the storm was accompanied by a few houses in course of erection demolished. The wind storm was followed by a slow west wind which settled in a rain at 10 o'clock.

READING, Penn., July 14.—Last night's storm was the heaviest known for years in this section. Fences were leveled, trees uprooted and stripped of fruit and many fields washed out. In one part of the County the storm was accompanied by hail.

TRENTON, Mo., July 14.—A severe storm passed over this town yesterday. The Presbyterian church, the primary school and other buildings were badly damaged. The destruction in the vicinity is estimated from $20,000 to $30,000.

St. Louis, July 14.—The restoration of telegraphic communication which was so badly broken last night reveals the storm, part of which swept over this city in general character and traversed not only a large part of Missouri but covered the States of Kansas, Iowa and Illinois. The velocity of the wind in this city was 50 miles per hour, and came apparently from near all directions.

Melleville, Illinois, was badly shaken up and a number of houses were more or less injured, not to mention the ton, Illinois, three churches lost part of their roofs and walls and the Laclade hotel was dismantled. Several other buildings were injured and streets littered with fallen trees.

At Sumner, Illinois, a large flouring mill was unroofed, and heavy damage caused to machinery and stacks from the deluge of rain which rushed through the building from top to bottom. Several other buildings were more or less injured.

At Carmi, Illinois, several houses were slightly shattered, but no serious damage done.

At Olney, Illinois, two churches were badly injured, a large number of trees uprooted and other damage done.

At Cairo, Illinois, a train was blown from the track, and the conductor, Watson, badly hurt. The baggage man was slightly wounded and six passengers injured.

In the vicinity of Linneus the storm did great damage to crops, buildings and farm property generally.

At Wellsville, Mo., a school house was nearly destroyed.

At Jefferson City the main cell building of the penitentiary was uprooted and one or two other houses damaged.

Washington, July 14.—The Surgeon General of the Marine hospital service has been informed that the bark Salome sailed from Galveston Texas, yesterday, for Hampton Roads, carrying 200 cases of yellow fever.

The French residents of New York, New Orleans, and the city of Mexico, celebrated with grand ceremonies yesterday the anniversary of the fall of the Bastille.

Mr. de Lesseps says he is perfectly indifferent as to whether the British government agrees to his terms for the construction of the new Suez Canal or not, as he has the grants and commands the situation.

There was a slight shock of earthquake felt at Cairo, Ill., yesterday morning.

Statement of Associated Banks. New York, July 14th.—The weekly statement of the associated banks shows the following changes: loans increase, $1,186,100; specie increase, $2,107,100; legal tenders increase, $1,100,100; deposits increase, $2,978,000; circulation increase, $68,100; revenue increase, $1,874,778. The banks now hold $3,517,998 in excess of all legal requirements.

No Fever at New Orleans. New Orleans, July 14.—In reply to an inquiry the President of the Board of Health to-day stated there has not been a single case of yellow fever in this city the present season. The hospital service is in perfect accord. He further stated that if a case of fever occurs it will be promptly reported.

An Outbreak Expected in Crete. LONDON, July 14th.—The affairs in Crete, owing to the resistance of the people to the payment of the taxes, are very grave. Committees are being formed throughout the island to resist the illegal measures of the Porte. An outbreak is expected.

PROGRESSIVE CHARLOTTE.

A Glimpse at the Improvements for the Half-Year—$75,000 in New Buildings—An Old Town Made New and the Good Work Scarcely Commenced.

A Remarkable Building Season.
The stranger within our gates, Charlotte at the present day presents the appearance of a town that is just being torn up and built over again, and this impression is about correct. In no year since 1875 has there been as much building and improvements made as within the past six months of the present year, and by the time fall sets in, the number of new buildings erected and the amount of improvements that will have been made will more than double that of any year since 1875.

Wholesale Arrest of Disorderly Characters.
The police yesterday went out to the cemetery, at the 8th street entrance, and arrested seven of the colored residents of the cabins located thereby, and will have them before the mayor to-morrow. They have been indulging in disgraceful orgies and have made themselves a nuisance through their profanity and disorderly conduct, visitors to the cemetery having been frequently annoyed by them. This same place was raided by the police some time ago and thirteen arrests were made, and the offenders severely punished. Let the same punishment be meted out to this second lynch.

Enlargement of the Statesville Landmark.
We inadvertently failed to notice last week the enlargement of the Statesville landmark from a seven to an eight column paper, an evidence of popular appreciation, and of prosperity, upon which we heartily congratulate Mr. Caldwell, its able and hard working editor, than whom there is not a readier or more entertaining writer in the State, nor a printer in the State, with a better "nose for news." Under his management the Landmark has come to the front of the column and there it will remain while Joe runs the machine, which we trust he may continue to do for many years to come, and in the mean time may neither his shadow, nor the proportions of the Landmark ever grow less.

An Escaping Thief Meets with a Painful Accident.
About ten o'clock last night, as the Air Line freight train was leaving Charlotte and when just this side of the long trestle, the engineer and train hands were startled by a cry that was heard above the noise of the engine and on stopping the train and running back, a negro man was found sitting by the track with his foot mangled all to pieces. His name was Columbus Moore, and he was recognized as one of the parties implicated in the recent cotton stealing cases in this city. He was trying to get out of town and was stealing a ride between two box cars when his foot slipped and was caught between the bumpers. He was brought back to the city and Dr. Wilder and Byers amputated the crushed foot above the ankle. Columbus will not get away from Charlotte for some time to come.

Sunday Notes.

The Foreign Mission Board at its late session in Richmond, Va., determined to try to raise in the South for Foreign Missions during the present year $100,000. North Carolina is put down for $3,000.

On the 2nd Sunday in August, the new Baptist church at Bandemans, 13 miles from High Point, will be dedicated. Rev. Dr. Nelson, of Shelby, will preach the sermon.

Brother Bailey, of the Biblical Recorder, has been there. He says: "We hear that the sisters of one of our country churches want the trees out of the church yard so that they may not have to spend from two to three hours every preaching day waiting for the brethren and the pastor to come in and begin services. We were pastor of a church once that had a large, slick-top on the abutment side of the house on which the brethren usually sat and talked about until we began services. We know how it is and sympathize with the sisters."

Rev. Dr. C. O. Blitting, pastor of the Franklin Square Baptist church, Baltimore, Md., has accepted the secretaryship of the Bible Department of the American Baptist Publication Society and will remove to Philadelphia. Dr. Blitting will spend the summer in the mountains of North Carolina.

The most successful dramatic artist of the city, Henry Campbell, on one night last week secured $2,000. A bottle of Scotch Whisky on one night secured, however, $100.

REV. DR. NELSON, of N. Y., Feb. 6, 1893.
I have been very low and have tried everything to no advantage. I need your help and your prayers. Write to me at 100 West 11th St., New York City.

Charlotte to Newton.

The iron horse will arrive for the first time at Newton to-morrow, over the newly completed narrow gauge road, and the schedule to be observed is printed in another part of this morning's paper. It could scarcely have been made more convenient for our Charlotte people whose business or pleasure calls them to Newton, as they can leave here on the Carolina Central train for Lincolnton at 6:30 o'clock in the afternoon, and arrive at Newton at 9 o'clock that night. Returning, connection will be made at Lincolnton with the Charlotte bound train which arrives here at 10:30 o'clock a. m.

New Firm in the Liquor Business.

Kenrick's interest in Kenrick & Bixby's saloon, and to-morrow morning the new firm opens business at Kenrick & Bixby's old stand under the firm style and name of Bixby & Katz. Katz's Julius, scotch, milk punches and other fancy drinks have gained him a great reputation as a mixer, and he will keep it up at his new stand, which, by the way, has been remodeled and improved, and is now a real toy establishment.

A Model Revolver.
One who is down there sends us the following notice from the All Healing Springs: "The All Healing is filling up rapidly. They had on Thursday (29) twenty-five arrivals and on Friday twenty-six (30) arrivals. Fifty-one in two days is not bad. Besides there are numbers expected to-day, J. H. Mills of the Ophan Asylum at Oxford brought two orphan children here yesterday for treatment. The Springs here seem to grow in popularity, and the regular and constant process of improvement of grounds and buildings will in time make it a lovely place. I have had no fights, no deaths or marriages here, and no sinners or any kind. Ergo, this is a good place to come to."
