

PEOPLE'S COLUMN.

THE GREATS PER LINE INSCRIPTION

Mrs. J. B. MOCCA—Offers her entire stock of goods for sale. Any one that wishes to go into business will please call and see me at 301 West Trade Street. I will do the best I can to sell them the goods at a reasonable price, for I am going to leave Charlotte.

WANTED—A situation by a first-class coat-maker in tailoring. Large experience both in weaving and spinning. Can furnish yarn and with good direct trade. Address, (14-17) CHARLOTTE OBSERVER.

WE WANT to buy White Corn. BEATTIE & CO., 36 E. Trade St.

FOR SALE—My Residence Cor. 12 and College streets. Harrison Watts, 37 S. College street.

WANTED—Agents for Life of Cleveland and Stevenson—Official Bulletin for a bushel of money with each Act. Quill, 25 cts.—free with good reference. F. J. Clayton, Baltimore, and 50 first days. H. L. Harvey & Co., 308 E. Lexington St., Baltimore, Md.

WHEN do five business men advertise? In the Fall season, is your advertisement in the Observer? Why not?

$25.00 to $50.00 can be made monthly working for R. F. JOHNSON & CO., 2603 E. 4th St., Richmond, Va. 16-1m.

TYPEWRITING in job lots selected. Work guaranteed to be the best. Address: W. Observer Office.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

FOR TAX COLLECTOR.

The friends of W. F. Griffith announce him a candidate for the office of tax collector for Charlotte township.

FOR TAX COLLECTOR.

At the request of my friends I have concluded to make the race for tax collector of Charlotte Township, subject to the Democratic convention.

FOR TAX COLLECTOR—CHARLOTTE TOWNSHIP.

I hereby announce myself a candidate for the office of Tax Collector of Charlotte township, subject to the action of the Democratic nominating convention. R. A. TORRANCE.

FOR REGISTER OF DEEDS.

I hereby announce myself a candidate for the office of Register of Deeds of Mecklenburg county, subject to the action of the Democratic nominating convention.

FOR COUNTY TREASURER.

I hereby announce myself a candidate for the office of County Treasurer of Mecklenburg county, subject to the Democratic nominating convention.

FOR SHERIFF.

I hereby announce myself a candidate for the office of Sheriff of Mecklenburg county, subject to the action of the Democratic convention.

NOTICE.

All persons holding claims against the Richmond & Danville Railroad Company, for material and supplies furnished within the period of six months prior to June 16, 1892, by them to any of the roads now controlled by the receivers of this Company, are hereby advised that all such claims are now being prepared for the approval of the Master, representing the Court, and as soon as they are passed by him, will be paid immediately as rapidly as they can be sent out, and such claimants are furthermore advised that it is unnecessary to employ agents or attorneys to collect them.

W. H. GREEN, General Manager.

NOTICE.

It is hereby given that the firm of Worth & Carmichael was dissolved July 1st, 1892. C. M. Davidson is alone authorized to receipt for accounts due the firm. I shall continue the ICE business, and respectfully solicit a continuance of the patronage so liberally bestowed upon the old firm.

WM. E. WORTH, 6-7 1/2 m.

Ice Cream, Dairy and Table Salt.

at BETHUNE & WHITE'S.

ROLLER CHAMPION

Is the best Flour for bread and rolls. At Progressive Grocery.

New Luxuries—Schopp's Shredded Cocoa, Nut, Starch and Shredded Pine Apple, French Vanilla Cream, Sultana Raisins, Best and Assorted Flour.

J. G. SHANNONHOUSE, Aet.

Pasmathe, the Baker, will supply you with nice Rolls and Bread.

Call and select you a nice Tooth Brush from our stock, the best in the city.

MURPHY & ATKINSON.

Keep them before you. The two very desirable building lots on South Tryon, near Hill street. An investigation will show you will find them the best value in the city at prices asked.

W. S. ALEXANDER.

IN THE MIDDLE OF SUMMER PRICES ARE AS

low as goods can be sold for. We can sell you a diamond ring, at prices as low as the same goods would cost you anywhere in the country and we guarantee it. We carry in stock $1000 worth of diamond rings alone. We also make a specialty of Emeralds, Rubies, Sapphires, Opals, and other precious stones, and semi-precious stones. Particular attention is given to purchases of such goods would do well to inspect our stock before purchasing.

BOYNE & BADGER, Leading Jewelers.

LANDRETH'S

TURNIP SEED.

All varieties. Fresh.

Also the celebrated

SOUTHERN PRIZE.

Wholesale and Retail.

BURWELL & DUNN,

Wholesale and Retail Druggists, Charlotte, N. C.,

HOW IS THIS?

We sell more

SABOROSO CIGARS

than any other 5c. Cigar on the market. Our sales have been increasing so rapidly that it is hard to supply the demand. The popularity of this Cigar is wonderful. It sells on its merit.

Try it and you will buy it.

R. H. JORDAN & CO., Druggists.

EIGHTH DISTRICT CONVENTION.

W. H. Bower Nominated for Congress, and J. R. Lewellyn for Elector—Endorsement of Congressman Cowles. Special to the Observer.

WILKESBORO, July 13.—The Democratic convention for this (the eighth) district was called to order in the court house here to-day by Chairman Scott. J. C. Buxton was made temporary chairman and R. A. Deal and W. F. Marshall secretaries. All the counties were represented. On motion the temporary organization was made permanent. When the counties were called for nominations, Ashe nominated W. H. Bower, of Caldwell. The nomination was seconded, and the rules suspended and the nomination made by acclamation.

J. R. Lewellyn, of Surry, was nominated for elector.

Col. G. N. Folk offered the following, which was adopted:

"Resolved, That this convention do cordially endorse the course in Congress of our present Representative, W. H. H. Cowles. His course in Congress has been able and faithful, characterized by the greatest devotion and loyalty to the best interest of his people."

The work of the convention was short.

GALA WEEK IN THE MOUNTAIN CITY.

Charlotte Came Out All Right at Asheville Yesterday.

ASHEVILLE, N. C., July 13.—In the shot gun contest to-day, individual shoot, fifteen singles, J. D. Glenn, of Greensboro, and E. R. Dodge, of Charlotte, divided first money on a score of 15. In event No. 2, twenty singles, J. W. Todd, of Charlotte took part of second money; A. R. Stokes part of third money, and J. T. Antony half of fourth. The first team shot was won by Charlotte No. 1, with the best score made, 110 out of 125. Charlotte No. 2 took third money. In event No. 4, individual shoot, J. T. Antony took half of first money. The score in the last event of the contest was: Greensboro 62; Charlotte No. 2, 59; Asheville No. 2, 48; Charlotte No. 1, 58; Asheville No. 1, 60.

State Firemen's Association—Next Year's Officers.

Special to the Observer.

ASHEVILLE, N. C., July 13.—The annual convention of the State Firemen's Association met here to-day. There are forty delegates, representing twenty companies. J. W. Griffith, of Greensboro, was elected delegate to the national convention at Louisville. Reports from State companies show a prosperous condition in all departments. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, T. A. Greene, of Newbern; First Vice President, Geo. S. Powell, Asheville; Second Vice President, J. D. McNeill, Secretary and Treasurer, J. W. Griffith, of Greensboro; Statistician, E. G. Parmell, of Wilmington. Next year's convention goes to Wilmington. The firemen's contests occur Thursday and Friday.

The Tournament Asheville Gets Three Prizes and Charlotte One.

Special to the Observer.

ASHEVILLE, N. C., July 13.—Twenty-five hundred people witnessed the tournament at the race track this afternoon. The first prize, $20, was won by Dan E. Sevier, of Asheville, who took every ring, second prize, J. T. Sevier, of Asheville, third, W. C. Dowd, of Charlotte, fourth, Frank Carpenter, of Asheville. The coronation ball occurred tonight at Kendall Inn and was one of the most brilliant affairs ever known in Asheville.

A Lineman Falls Fifteen Feet.

Special to the Observer.

ASHEVILLE, July 13.—A. D. Beam, a lineman of the People's Electric Light Company, fell from a second-story window of the First National Bank building to-day, a distance of fifteen feet, and was picked up unconscious. It is expected that he will recover.

WINSTON-SALEM.

In the Interest of the Veterans—The Winston Water Works, &c.

Special to the Observer.

WINSTON-SALEM, N. C., July 13.—A citizens' meeting was called for a meeting of the ladies of Winston-Salem to be held at the opera house to-morrow night, the object of which is to organize a committee whose duty it will be to raise funds with which to aid in defraying the expenses of the proposed four days' encampment at Wrightsville of the disabled Confederate veterans now living in North Carolina. The ladies of Wilmington, it seems, have undertaken to provide for the sustenance of the indigent and disabled patriots of the lost cause and it is deemed but proper that they should receive assistance.

The call that was issued here for a public meeting was written and signed by four of Winston-Salem's patriotic old soldiers.

Since the city of Winston failed to vote bonds for the purchase of a controlling interest in the water works, the owners have decided to issue bonds themselves to the amount of $100,000 with which to improve their plant. The company says that it expects to lay over eight miles of additional pipe at once.

Twelve thousand water melons have been sold in Winston-Salem this far this season.

Grand Encampment I. O. O. F.

The grand encampment of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows of North Carolina convened here this afternoon. About sixty officers and delegates are in attendance and being entertained by Salem lodge. It is the first time since 1872 that this grand encampment has convened at a separate time and place from the grand lodge. At the opening session this afternoon the credentials of delegates were presented and reports made by officers. Two sessions will be held to-morrow.

The first of the next month will find a new store opened on South College street. Mr. A. A. Gaston has rented the store-room adjoining Mr. G. S. Johnson's office, and will open a tin-ware store. Mr. Gaston has been in this business previously, and will no doubt succeed in building up a good trade.

NO FREE SILVER BILL.

IT IS KILLED IN THE HOUSE.

THE VOTE WAS YEAS 136, NAYS 154.

An interesting and somewhat exciting debate, Mr. Reed introduced to His Excellency—Mr. Culberson Made the Speech of the Day and It Was for Silver—The Struggle Shorter Than Had Been Expected.

WASHINGTON, July 13.—[HOUSE.]—Not since the silver bill was under consideration last April, has the House of Representatives contained so many members as were present this morning. Even before the House assembled there were largely more than a quorum present, and the members were engaged in discussing the probable result of the silver battle. Although the day was hot, the attendance in the galleries was conspicuously large. A number of private pension bills which had been considered in committee of the whole last night were passed after which Mr. Catchings, Democrat, of Mississippi, called up the resolution from the committee on rules, setting apart to-day and to-morrow for the consideration of the silver bill, and demanded the previous question on its adoption.

Mr. Reed, Republican, of Maine, claimed that he had a right to move to lay the resolution on the table before the previous question was put.

The speaker said the gentleman from Maine could not take the gentleman from Mississippi off the floor and could only obtain it if the latter should yield to him.

Mr. Catchings inquired if he had a right to portion out his time.

The speaker replied affirmatively. Mr. Catchings having yielded to Mr. Reed, Democrat, of Missouri, the discussion began.

Mr. Reed went to the desk and had read an amendment to the resolution which provided that in the event the latter was adopted and unless the bill was disposed of before 2 o'clock to-morrow, the previous question shall be considered ordered on the amendments which may be pending on the bill on its passage, and thereafter no dilatory motion shall be entertained by the speaker until the bill shall be finally disposed of. Speaking to the amendment, Mr. Reed referred to a clause which he said some members were afraid of, yet for the last fifty years clause rules had been passed. There is no clause in the bill on the final passage of the bill without such rule. He submitted this amendment without fear or favor. He wanted the country to understand his position.

Mr. Bartine, of Nevada, followed Mr. Reed. For the reasons advanced by Mr. Reed, he should vote against the amendment, and thereafter no dilatory motion shall be entertained by the speaker until the bill shall be finally disposed of.

Mr. Clarke threw a bombshell into the free silver camp by opposing the passing of the bill. He said that the President would veto it, he said, and this would be giving him a club with which to injure the Democratic party. He would vote against it because the Democratic party at its national convention had by its declarations adopted a silver plank clearly inconsistent with the free silver policy which it had declared.

Mr. Catchings moved the passage of the resolution and on the viva voce vote the speaker declared that the motion had.

The yeas and nays were called for by Mr. Tracy. The House was in comparative quiet, the members leaving their seats after voting and before the roll call had proceeded very far it was evident that the resolution was dead.

Mr. Catchings, of Georgia, moved to adjourn, but the speaker gave the result of the vote and then inquired: "Does the gentleman from Georgia move to adjourn?"

"Not now," was the reply. The vote resulted: Yeas 136, nays 154. Upon the announcement of the vote, Mr. McKeighan, Democrat, of Nebraska, a member of the coinage committee and a pronounced free silver advocate, claimed recognition from the speaker. He stood in the main aisle and plainly showed his chagrin.

Speaker Crisp asked: "For what purpose does the gentleman rise?" "To make a motion."

The speaker: "The gentleman will state his motion."

Mr. McKeighan: "I move to adjourn, if I will not."

But before he could conclude the sentence his voice was drowned with cries of "rate," and other unseemly invectives. The speaker rapped him to order with his gavel.

This ended the attempt to pass the silver bill, which promised to be more of a contest, and the House proceeded with the consideration of a conference report on a private claim bill.

Upwards of fifty private pension bills were passed, and then the House adjourned until to-morrow.

A Boy Murder in Pennsylvania.

PITTSBURG, Pa., July 13.—At Chartiers, last night, David Hughes, a lad of 15, murdered Thomas Connors, aged 16. A common pen knife did the work, the victim dying in eight minutes after receiving the gash in his throat. The boys had quarreled during the day, and they met on the Chartiers bridge, and Connors kicked Hughes. A scuffle followed, during which the tragedy occurred. Hughes is an orphan, and lived as the adopted son of his uncle, William Hughes.

Lost and Found for 52 Hours.

WILKESBORO, Pa., July 13.—Terence O'Brien, 70 years old, a footman in the Gaylor shaft at Plymouth, was found by a searching party last night. He was lost in the mine for 52 hours, during which time he was without food. It is feared that he will go crazy from the terrible strain upon his mind.

Strike of Michigan Amalgamated Men.

WASHTON, Mich., July 13.—The 400 employees of the Eureka Iron and Steel Company have struck. They are members of the Amalgamated Association. Boyd's agency in Detroit is hiring men from the Pinkerton force, but Boyd denies that the men are coming here.

A White Man This Time.

FRANKLIN, Ky., July 13.—John Redfern, the white man who shot and killed Mr. P. B. Dunn and dangerously injured John Hobby, a negro, yesterday morning, was taken from jail by a mob at midnight last night and hanged.

Mr. Gladstone Re-Elected.

LONDON, July 13.—Mr. Gladstone has been re-elected in Midlothian, receiving 5,700 votes to 5,077 for Colonel Wauchope, the Liberal Unionist candidate.

SENATORS GET VERY GOOD.

NO SUNDAY OPENING AND NO LIQUOR.

The Sundry Civil Bill Passes the Senate With Amendments Forbidding Opening the World's Fair on Sunday and Forbidding the Sale of Liquor on the Grounds.

WASHINGTON, July 13.—[SENATE.]—The Senate immediately after the reading of the journal took up the Chicago exposition clauses of the sundry civil bill.

Mr. Sanders, Republican, of Montana, moved to lay on the table Mr. Quay's amendment requiring the closing of the exposition "on the first day of the week, commonly called Sunday."

The yeas and nays were taken on the motion, and resulted: yeas 11, nays 49; so the motion to table was lost. Mr. Quay's amendment was adopted.

Mr. Peffer moved a further amendment: "The sale of intoxicating liquors on the said exposition grounds shall be prohibited, except for medicinal, mechanical and scientific purposes."

Mr. Vest remarked that this was sheer hypocrisy. If Senators were in earnest, why not begin with the Senate restaurant, where Bourbon whisky ten degrees above proof was openly sold under the fraudulent name of "cold tea," and where a full price list of wines was officially published.

The amendment was nevertheless carried by 28 to 26, the vote in detail being as follows:

Yeas—Democrats: Colquitt, Jones, of Arkansas, Palmer, 3. Republicans: Allen, Allison, Carey, Chandler, Callom, Dill, Felton, Frye, Gallinger, Hale, Nevadaw, Hawley, Hiseock, Jones, of Nevada, Mitchell, Laddock, Peffer (Farmers' Alliance), Perkins, Pettigrew, Platt, Saunders, Sherman, Stewart, Stockbridge and Wolcott—25. Total, 29.

Nays—Democrats: Bate, Berry, Blackburn, Blodgett, Brice, Carlisle, Cockrell, Coke, Daniel, George, Gibson, of Louisiana, Gibson, of Maryland, Gray, Hill, Houston, Kenna, Hanson, Vest, Vilas, Scarborough, and foreign bondholders, destroyed silver in 1873 and 1874, and robbed the people of the country of millions of money. (Cheers.)

From 1873 to 1878 the representatives of the people—the Democratic party—struggled as men never struggled before to protect the people from the financial despotism which had been placed upon the people. In 1878 this object was accomplished. A free coinage bill was then passed in the House, which was non-concurred in by the Senate; a compromise was forced on the House, and on that compromise we have accumulated silver dollars. But for the Democratic party the country would be struggling along with a hundred millions of silver money, whereas we have at this time six hundred millions of money.

The speech of Mr. Culberson was the speech of the day and he was frequently interrupted by applause and cheers.

The debate was closed by Mr. Reed who went into a brief technical discussion upon the silver question, quoting statistics to show the present condition of that metal.

Mr. Catchings then demanded the previous question on the passage of the resolution. The House was now all excitement.

Mr. Tracy demanded the yeas and nays, which were ordered, and the vote resulted: Yeas 163, nays 129. The announcement of the vote created little excitement as it was expected.

Mr. Catchings moved the passage of the resolution and on the viva voce vote the speaker declared that the motion had.

The yeas and nays were called for by Mr. Tracy. The House was in comparative quiet, the members leaving their seats after voting and before the roll call had proceeded very far it was evident that the resolution was dead.

Mr. Catchings, of Georgia, moved to adjourn, but the speaker gave the result of the vote and then inquired: "Does the gentleman from Georgia move to adjourn?"

"Not now," was the reply. The vote resulted: Yeas 136, nays 154. Upon the announcement of the vote, Mr. McKeighan, Democrat, of Nebraska, a member of the coinage committee and a pronounced free silver advocate, claimed recognition from the speaker. He stood in the main aisle and plainly showed his chagrin.

Speaker Crisp asked: "For what purpose does the gentleman rise?" "To make a motion."

The speaker: "The gentleman will state his motion."

Mr. McKeighan: "I move to adjourn, if I will not."

But before he could conclude the sentence his voice was drowned with cries of "rate," and other unseemly invectives. The speaker rapped him to order with his gavel.

This ended the attempt to pass the silver bill, which promised to be more of a contest, and the House proceeded with the consideration of a conference report on a private claim bill.

Upwards of fifty private pension bills were passed, and then the House adjourned until to-morrow.

SHOCKING END OF PLEASURE PARTY.

A Boat Capsized and at Least a Score of Persons Lost Their Lives.

PITTSBURG, Ill., July 13.—The waves of the Illinois river now roll over the forms of a score of people who, only a few hours ago, were enjoying themselves to the fullest extent. At 10 o'clock last night a cyclone swept over the city, leaving death and destruction in its wake. The most serious and appalling disaster of the night was caused by the capsizing of the pleasure steamer Frank C. Folsom, at the foot of Caroline street.

At Lake View Park, a mile above the city, a representation of Pompeii was being given. For this occasion the Folsom, a Peckin boat, came up with 40 people aboard. One man who has just been brought off says he saw several men fastened down under the wreck and they were cooked to death by the steam. Every time the boat careened the poor unfortunates clinging to the rails would release their hold and disappear in the waves.

There are 18 dead in the Folsom, according to the count last made. Only about one-half of these will be found in the cabin of the boat for the others were swept off the rail into the river. Every one in the vicinity has thrown open their houses and the work of rescue is going on rapidly. There are many who have just been brought off says he saw several men fastened down under the wreck and they were cooked to death by the steam. Every time the boat careened the poor unfortunates clinging to the rails would release their hold and disappear in the waves.

There are 18 dead in the Folsom, according to the count last made. Only about one-half of these will be found in the cabin of the boat for the others were swept off the rail into the river. Every one in the vicinity has thrown open their houses and the work of rescue is going on rapidly. There are many who have just been brought off says he saw several men fastened down under the wreck and they were cooked to death by the steam. Every time the boat careened the poor unfortunates clinging to the rails would release their hold and disappear in the waves.

There are 18 dead in the Folsom, according to the count last made. Only about one-half of these will be found in the cabin of the boat for the others were swept off the rail into the river. Every one in the vicinity has thrown open their houses and the work of rescue is going on rapidly. There are many who have just been brought off says he saw several men fastened down under the wreck and they were cooked to death by the steam. Every time the boat careened the poor unfortunates clinging to the rails would release their hold and disappear in the waves.

There are 18 dead in the Folsom, according to the count last made. Only about one-half of these will be found in the cabin of the boat for the others were swept off the rail into the river. Every one in the vicinity has thrown open their houses and the work of rescue is going on rapidly. There are many who have just been brought off says he saw several men fastened down under the wreck and they were cooked to death by the steam. Every time the boat careened the poor unfortunates clinging to the rails would release their hold and disappear in the waves.

There are 18 dead in the Folsom, according to the count last made. Only about one-half of these will be found in the cabin of the boat for the others were swept off the rail into the river. Every one in the vicinity has thrown open their houses and the work of rescue is going on rapidly. There are many who have just been brought off says he saw several men fastened down under the wreck and they were cooked to death by the steam. Every time the boat careened the poor unfortunates clinging to the rails would release their hold and disappear in the waves.

There are 18 dead in the Folsom, according to the count last made. Only about one-half of these will be found in the cabin of the boat for the others were swept off the rail into the river. Every one in the vicinity has thrown open their houses and the work of rescue is going on rapidly. There are many who have just been brought off says he saw several men fastened down under the wreck and they were cooked to death by the steam. Every time the boat careened the poor unfortunates clinging to the rails would release their hold and disappear in the waves.

There are 18 dead in the Folsom, according to the count last made. Only about one-half of these will be found in the cabin of the boat for the others were swept off the rail into the river. Every one in the vicinity has thrown open their houses and the work of rescue is going on rapidly. There are many who have just been brought off says he saw several men fastened down under the wreck and they were cooked to death by the steam. Every time the boat careened the poor unfortunates clinging to the rails would release their hold and disappear in the waves.

There are 18 dead in the Folsom, according to the count last made. Only about one-half of these will be found in the cabin of the boat for the others were swept off the rail into the river. Every one in the vicinity has thrown open their houses and the work of rescue is going on rapidly. There are many who have just been brought off says he saw several men fastened down under the wreck and they were cooked to death by the steam. Every time the boat careened the poor unfortunates clinging to the rails would release their hold and disappear in the waves.

There are 18 dead in the Folsom, according to the count last made. Only about one-half of these will be found in the cabin of the boat for the others were swept off the rail into the river. Every one in the vicinity has thrown open their houses and the work of rescue is going on rapidly. There are many who have just been brought off says he saw several men fastened down under the wreck and they were cooked to death by the steam. Every time the boat careened the poor unfortunates clinging to the rails would release their hold and disappear in the waves.

There are 18 dead in the Folsom, according to the count last made. Only about one-half of these will be found in the cabin of the boat for the others were swept off the rail into the river. Every one in the vicinity has thrown open their houses and the work of rescue is going on rapidly. There are many who have just been brought off says he saw several men fastened down under the wreck and they were cooked to death by the steam. Every time the boat careened the poor unfortunates clinging to the rails would release their hold and disappear in the waves.

There are 18 dead in the Folsom, according to the count last made. Only about one-half of these will be found in the cabin of the boat for the others were swept off the rail into the river. Every one in the vicinity has thrown open their houses and the work of rescue is going on rapidly. There are many who have just been brought off says he saw several men fastened down under the wreck and they were cooked to death by the steam. Every time the boat careened the poor unfortunates clinging to the rails would release their hold and disappear in the waves.

There are 18 dead in the Folsom, according to the count last made. Only about one-half of these will be found in the cabin of the boat for the others were swept off the rail into the river. Every one in the vicinity has thrown open their houses and the work of rescue is going on rapidly. There are many who have just been brought off says he saw several men fastened down under the wreck and they were cooked to death by the steam. Every time the boat careened the poor unfortunates clinging to the rails would release their hold and disappear in the waves.

There are 18 dead in the Folsom, according to the count last made. Only about one-half of these will be found in the cabin of the boat for the others were swept off the rail into the river. Every one in the vicinity has thrown open their houses and the work of rescue is going on rapidly. There are many who have just been brought off says he saw several men fastened down under the wreck and they were cooked to death by the steam. Every time the boat careened the poor unfortunates clinging to the rails would release their hold and disappear in the waves.

There are 18 dead in the Folsom, according to the count last made. Only about one-half of these will be found in the cabin of the boat for the others were swept off the rail into the river. Every one in the vicinity has thrown open their houses and the work of rescue is going on rapidly. There are many who have just been brought off says he saw several men fastened down under the wreck and they were cooked to death by the steam. Every