MISS SIMPSON'S HANDSOME WORK.

A Squire's Trial at Monroe—A Violet Tea, Etc. Correspondence of the Observer.

MONROE, March 30.—The front of Messrs. McKenzie & Dillon's furniture house is beautified by three oil paintings, executed by Miss Jessie Simpson, of this place. The paintings are three feet high and two feet wide and are pronounced by competent art critics exceedingly fine in every respect. Miss Simpson's work is so good that she has been graduated from Peace Institute last year.

Last evening Mrs. H. B. Adams gave a violet tea at the ministers and their wives. They all attended and the occasion was an enjoyable one. A colored boy about 14 years old was to-day tried and convicted before S. S. McCalley for wilfully hitting a small white boy with a rock without any provocation. On account of the boy's age judgment was suspended on condition that the mother would give her child a son thirty lashes in the presence of the sheriff or his deputy, which sentence is much more effective than a lay-over in jail.

ROBBERY AT SALISBURY.

REINFORCEMENT FOR INSURGENTS.

Gen. Maceo Lands a Large Body of Troops With Rifles and Stoves.

TAMPA, Fla., April 1.—In an interview with the Times-Union correspondent to-night Col. Figueredo, leader of the Cuban patriots in Tampa and the recognized head of the movement in this section, gave the following particulars:

"The latest news I have from Cuba is that General Maceo has landed a large force of men on the island, together with a large amount of arms and stores. He was met by the Cuban patriots and they were all received with the most cordial hospitality. He had served several years in the Legislature, the last in 1879, and was for some years Commissioner of Agriculture. He married a daughter of Hon. George E. Badger, of Raleigh, who survives him, as do also three sons. Mr. Maceo was a graduate of the University of North Carolina. Mr. Samuel M. Perish, a well-known painter here, died yesterday of heart disease and was buried to-day, the Masons attending the funeral.

Of course there is yet no end of talk about the mortgage bill. Farmers are deeply stirred by reason of it. The Populists have already in the past passed the bill. At the county churches yesterday one may be sure that the Populists will try to keep up their own courage and also to cheer up the Populists. They now calculate on getting a handsome percentage of the Populists in the Republican ranks. They say as much, and also say the Populist party is on a decline and has no more power. They have, in fact, discounted the bill in the past, and say part of it will go to the Democrats, part will remain intact, and they will get the remainder. The Republicans have for a year had the Populists in a primary Republican school. As was shown in the Legislature one wing of the Populists is Republican, and the other is Democratic. Richmond Pearson tells me that to-day State Librarian Ellington, T. R. Purnell and his associates are in the house bill in search of the mortgage bill. It says it cannot be found. It was House bill 1,018. The House reports show that the mortgage bill was introduced by Mr. Pearson. The Senate calendar shows that it was never in that body. There is no other evidence of the bill.

Mr. Ottho Wilson filed the oath this morning as railroad commissioner before Justice Walter Clark. It was the plain, every-day oath, and did not contain any allusion to the fact that Mr. Wilson had been a member of a secret political organization. Mr. Wilson was seen later in the office with the other commissioners already in name. He was called on to consider was a knotty one, the complaint coming from Martin county, where a railroad train had been derailed. A young and thoughtful man.

Evangelist Oakes is attracting large audiences to the Baptist tabernacle. He preaches the doctrine of "sanctification" with considerable modification. Last year the "straight" doctrine was preached here most vigorously at another church.

Edgar Barbee, son of Mr. Edward B. Barbee, is critically ill here. He is being nursed by a pet pony about a month ago.

So far as is now known all the State Grand organization will be present in Atlanta. This is good news. It is a time for town and communities to do their utmost in the way of aid.

To Be Married in Winston—The New Special to the Observer.

WINSTON, April 1.—Handsome cards are just out announcing the marriage of Mrs. Omega Foster and Mr. J. C. Richardson, Wednesday afternoon, April 17th, at 5 o'clock at the First Baptist church, Winston. Miss Cuthbert is the bridesmaid. Mr. J. C. Richardson is an engineer on the Seaboard Air Line, and at present stationed at the depot at Durham. He was married to-day at 5 o'clock at the First Baptist church, Winston.

Major Strong Will Change Two Police Commissioners.

NEW YORK, April 1.—Mayor Strong announced this afternoon that he had appointed two new police commissioners, Murray and Kerwin in the course of a day or two, unless they handed in their resignations in the meantime. The commissioners are Murray and Kerwin, publicans, have opposed reforms in the department. Mayor Strong this afternoon sent letters to United States Civil Service Commissioner Theodore Roosevelt and ex-United States District Attorney Edward H. Mitchell, requesting them to accept the offices of police commissioners in addition to those of Messrs. Kerwin and Murray.

Robbed, Thrown from a Freight Train and Killed.

McALLEN, S. C., April 1.—A Ryberg, a stranger, died here last night from injuries received by being thrown from a freight train. Friday night Ryberg was on a freight train, having paid the negro brakeman to allow him to ride in a box car as passengers were not allowed on the train. Ryberg was thrown from the train when the freight train, having a large load of freight, was making a curve when he was discovered and brought here, where he died shortly after making the above statement. Two negroes were arrested for the crime. Ryberg was an Odd Fellow and had his mother in Copenhagen, Denmark.

The Winning Ticket.

The winning ticket for Fourth ward is: Ernest Williams, Billie Berryhill, W. H. Vane and was employed by Mr. J. W. Hines.

THE BILL WAS NOT ENGROSSED.

It is Ascertained That It Never Got to the Senate at All—Montford McGehee, Esq. Dies at Raleigh—The Confederate Monument Shift in Place—Raleigh Municipal Police—Representative Amory—Miss J. J. Ringer, G. H. Echols, M. P. Weikie, J. B. Henry, C. T. Jones, C. D. Bull, H. H. Sherman, C. L. Foster and F. M. Moore.

It is ascertained that the bill to amend the mortgage law, which was introduced in the House of Representatives on the 15th inst., was not engrossed for transmission to the Senate. The bill was introduced by Mr. Pearson and was assigned to the committee on the Judiciary. The bill was reported by the committee on the 17th inst., but was not engrossed for transmission to the Senate.

Montford McGehee, Esq., died at his home here at the age of 78. For ten years he had been an invalid, and but seldom seen. He was a man of fine ability and most courtly bearing, and was a native of Perquimans. He married a daughter of Hon. George E. Badger, of Raleigh, who survives him, as do also three sons. Mr. McGehee was a graduate of the University of North Carolina.

The Confederate monument at the Grove City, Ohio, registered at the Park Hotel with her three children. The two youngest, aged 5 and 6, were with her, their throats cut from car to car. The woman told the older child she was going to drown herself in the river. Nothing has been seen of her since.

The police found Mrs. Williams at 10 o'clock to-night at the house of Mr. Lester. She bought the razor in this city last Saturday. She bought a quantity of opium on Sunday and administered some to each of the children, but they all seemed to it except Annie, the eldest child, who slept for several hours and then came from under its influence. From her rambling and incoherent talk she said she had been ill, but she was now well.
