The Colored Letter Carrier Who Ca Greet Mr. Wilson, Stopped By O'Ferrall's Butler.

RICHMOND, Va., April 17.-Hou. Wiliam L. Wilson, Postmaster General, arrived in the city this afternoon on the 2:45 train from Washington. He was met at Ashland by a committee of the local alumni of the University of Vir ginia, and on reaching here was tender-ed a lunch at the residence of Mr. Wyndham R. Meredith, and later a reception in his honor was held at the axecutive mansion. The Governor was assisted in receiving by his staff, who were in uniform, and the affair was very brilliant. A delegation of white postoffice employees attended the recepcarrier. The latter was stopped by the Governor's butler and waited in the hall until Mr. Wilson came out of the parlor and shook hands with him.

To-night Mr. Wilson, at the ban-quet of the Richmond Chapter of the University of Virginia Alamni, responded to the toast, "The Scholar in Politics." COL. M'CLURE BACKED OUT.

A Verdict of $45,000 Damages in a Libe Suit Against the Philadelaphia Times. PHILADELPHIA, Pa., April 17.-The suit of ex-Mayor Wm. B. Smith against the Philadelphia Times for libel reached a climax shortly before noon to-day, when Col. A. K. McClure, editor of the Times, instructed his counsel, P. E. Rothermel and James H. Schakespear, to withdraw from the case. Col McClure had previously applied to the court for the withdrawal of a juror, in order that the case could be continued for this term, but the application was over-ruled by Judge Gordon. When Col. McClure announced his withdrawal to the court, he was told that he could do as he pleased regarding the matter, and the court stopped proceedings while Col. McClure was leaving the court room and while his counsel were gathering together their pa-pers. Judge Gordon then ordered the case to proceed, the defense not being represented, "and ex-Mayor Smith took the stand for the purpose of rebutting the testimony given yesterday by Col. McClure and other witnesses for the defense.

The jury, after being out half an hour, returned a verdict in favor of the plaintff for $45,000.
