THEY WAR WHITE RIBBON BADGES. HE IS MARSHAL ALLISON'S PRISONER.

The W. C. T. U. in Session in Charlotte The Opening Meeting Yesterday-Pro-ceedings of the Day and Night.

journed until

8 P. M. The evening service was opened with devotional exercises, conducted by Rev. Dr. Preston, of the First Presbyterian

"White Ribbon Vibrations" beautiful rendered by a quartette choir, after which Mayor Weddington extended a cordial welcome to the W. C. T. U. on behalf of the city, in a few well chosen remarks.

Rev. Dr. Creasy was introduced representing the clergy and welcomed the good women as allies in the great battle against the rum traffic; welcomed them as coming in the name of the Muster-for God: welcome them in the name of the Home; and the speaker said when we have God, and make home pulling out. what it should be by banishing the wine cup and living up to the high standard of purity set by this organization as all that it should be." He assured them of the prayers and co-operation of the cordial welcome on behalf of the union, to which Mrs. Hayes, of Raleigh, responded in happy style.

A vocal solo, beautifully sung by Miss

Sue Torrence, was very much enjoyed, Tryon Street Baptist church, was intro-duced to make the address of the even-Holland. ing. After reviewing the lives of his comrades in early years, showing that one-half of them had filled drunkards' graves, he asserted that intoxicating as follows: iquors are the curse of society and the Church.

illustrations, which were listened to preciative audience. After a good collection, the convention adjourned with the benediction by Dr. Creasy. The convention opens this morning at 9 o'clock. All sessions of the convention are open to the public, and everybody welcome.

PEN AND INK GENIUSES.

to be Full of Them.

It is a pity that everyone in Charof producing.

book is beautifully bound and the pen to-morrow evening at 7 o'clock. sketches which make it so interesting are the work of genius.

The credit for this part of the Annual belongs to Messrs. Vass and McGilvary. The portraits, cartoons and scenes are as beautifully executed as any ever seen. The book is bright and smart, and is something the college can be justly proud of. It is the cleverest college annual ever issued in the State.

A Dramatic Entertainment for Atlanta The North Carolina lady managers of the Atlanta Exposition, recognizing that they have been placed at a great disadvantage by the refusal of the Populist Legislature to grant them an appropriation, have determined to make some individual effort in order that North' Carolina may not be entirely unrepresented in the woman's building.

ladies appointed by the Governor, has rection. secured the services of the Dramatic Club, and they promise at an early day hitch up. As soon as the horse was an Atlanta "benefit." As all Charlotte hitched he made a plunge, and Smith hitched he made a plunge, and Smith assured that the club will have the hearty support of the community when it comes forward to repair, to the best of its ability, the error of the fusion Legislature. The Seminary Entering Its Fifth Year-

Same Faculty. catalogue of the Seminary for in the OBSERVER Printing House. a neat pamphlet and contains all information regarding the school. The fifth year of this institution will begin the first Monday in September.

The same efficient corps of teachers team will also be on hand and will "do" which served last year constitute the faculty this year with the addition to the music school of Miss Annie Atkins. as assistant piano instructor. The OB-SERVER predicts for Miss Long and the Seminary still greater success in the future than the past.

Weighed and Inspected.

Mr. T. M. Ross, superintendent of the cotton compress at Hamlet, was in town esterday. The press has been shut down several months.

Mr. F. M. Hinson, of Arlington, was cock of the walk in Cotton Town yesterday. He had a lot of 26 bales, and, as cotton is scarce, found himself and cotton in demand. He delivered six The New York market went all to pieces early yesterday morning, but reeces early yesterday morning, but re-of No. 1, Cabarrus county, are to be married on the zeth. market was not affected, as the local demand is so great that any cotton put on the market brings its own price.

Mr. Fred Graham Sick. Mr. Fred Graham, one of the most popular of the Western Union force, has been laid up for acceptable in his been laid up for acceptable in his here yesterday en route to Raicigh. room in the Carson building on South Tryon street. He expects to go to his sister's at Southern Pines to-morrow to office, vice Mr. Edgar Purefoy, resigned. remain until he is better. During his absence Mr. J. W. Cobb, of Raleigh, will act as his substitute. He arrived yesterday.

Of Such is the Kingdom of Heaven." Robert S., the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Blake, died yesterday evening at twilight. For days the little life had been despaired of, and it was no sudden summons that took from a mother's loving arms her babe. The burial services will be conducted this evening at 6 o'clock, from the residence, by Ray De Presson.

He is now in Virginia with relatives.

The Commercial College has thrice been reinforced this week. The new students are Messrs. Harlan Wolfe and Chas. Wartick, and Miss Mary Ramsay.

—A house on the corner of Sixth and by Rev. Dr. Preston.

In the Province. The city's big steam roller is doing duty in Fourth Ward. West Eleventh street is being pressed. Alderman O'Donoghue is personally conducting the working.

The chairman of the fire committee has been instructed to purchase horses necessary for use in the fire department. "The Staff."

Mr. W. N. Prather received yesterday morning a beautiful loaf of bread from Duluth, Mina. The loat when shipped (by express) weighed 25 ounces and on arrival weighed 25 ounces. The bread is made of the collegenced Duluth spring wheat flour.

He Was in a Burry to Get in the Coach— Apparently Cheerful—Re Was Not Hand cuffed and Will Not Be—Parting With His Son—The Albany Party.

Police Orr, and James R. Holland, the join them in New York, and with them much enhanced by the lights from three defaulting cashier. Marshal Allison sail for the continent Saturday. declared the 13th annual convention of was the first to step to the ground, the W. C. T. U. opened for business. Holland following. After roll call the minutes of the ex- He had on the same gray suit he has ecutive committee meetings were read and approved. The president's annual address was very fine and to the point. Quickly across the yard, seeming anx-Reports of the corresponding secretious to avoid the gaze of the gaping tary and treasurer were read and were crowd, which, although not very large, full and encouraging, showing that as the news of the exact hour of demuch work had been done and the work advancing.

The vestry of the land, F. A. Gross, C. R. Moore, F. C. Who will be at the station to bid him who will be at the station to bid him parture had not gotten into general circulation, was still large enough to be church, the Brotherhood of St. Analysis. After the doxology the meeting ad-oursed until stances. Holland returned several Shrine, in which Mr. Hoffmann is held of Rev. Dr. Bowman, who was to pro-idly toward the second-class car, got in for a safe trip, an "elegant time" and the little flower girls—Misses and walked through to the first-class in restored health.

Annie Louise Holobaugh and and walked through to the first-class in the rear. Holland was not hand cuffed. Mr. Hoffman's friends will be able to He took a seat in the rear of the car, Marshal Allison sitting beside him. He showed no trace of emotion. Several times he snoke about some Cork Inno 20 the Lakes the train as if unable to realize, (and of the Rhine, July 16: they follow the word, the native land is that train was Jas. R. Holland, going to a Lugano, July 18; Lake Lugano and maid of honor were a pretty dress of clergy of the city—in their efforts to years new faces will be here; old ones ence, July 22 and 23; Rome, July 24-29; Mrs. John Vogel. She has many at Mrs. Littlejohn, president of the Char- pen to him and those he holds dear? riage, July 31; Pompeii, August 1; Pisa, of friends, here and elsewhere. The lotte union, in words of much tenderness and love, extended them a most | August 2: Genoa, August 3: Pisa, of friends, here and elsewhere. The August 2: Genoa, August 3 and 4: Turin, groom is a popular young business man least, passes out of the life of Charlotte August 5: Geneva, August 6 and 7: of this city. He has grown up in Charlotte August 5: Geneva, August 6 and 7: of this city.

or not he chains a prisoner is left dis- pool, August 24. Sail. after which Rev. Dr. Pritchard, of the cretionary with him. He said to the sheriff that he did not intend chaining

THE ALBANY PARTY.

The other prisoners in the marshal's

From the Asheville Court-Benj Fuller, of Swain, il'icit distilling, I A most pathetic, touching address of swain, it is distining, 15 down on business and spent the day at local do followed, replete with incidents and forgery and counterfeiting. 15 months. From the Statesville Court-Elijah with rapt attention by a large and ap- Holdsclaw and Noah McAlpine, of Alexander, and I. S. Kelly, of Mc-

From the Greensboro Court-Henry counterfeiting and one year.

The marshal and ex-Cashier Holland Statesville, in charge of Deputies E. M. Goolsby, J. B. Armfield and Edgar Alli-The Davidson Annual Proves the College son, and by Marshal Allison's wife, young son and daughter, and Mrs. These latter, with the lotte cannot examine a copy of the Da- marshal and Mr. Goolsby, will make a of Huntersville, were here yesterday. vidson Annual, just to see what fine three-weeks trip, embracing points work the boys of Davidson are capable along the Hudson, Ningara Falls, Ac. It is Marshal Allison's rule not to relatives in this section. The city editor appreciates the travel with prisoners at night. He and > Holland Talked Constantly. Special to the Observer.

GREENSBORO, June 19 .- Marshal Alli son and J. R. Holland, the defaulting cashier, arrived here to-night. They spend the night here and leave in the morning with seven other prisoners for Albany. Holland was apparently in good spirits. He talked en route constantly to Marshal Allison. He attracted no special attention on the train.

The Fire-Why the Neptunes Got Left. An alarm of fire was turned in vesterday morning from box 43, calling the department to a small shanty on Sixth cupied by a colored family. The fire originated in the roof. The depart-Mrs. J. L. Morehead, one of the eight The Neptune started in the wrong di-Will Roach read the register could not get to the register himself. Business Men See a Good Thing in It-The usual, and when he got ready to go Roach read it back wards.

Colored Visitors for the 26th.

the "Quicksteps.

RIGHT THROUGH THE MAIN.

News Through the Observer News Acqueduct. -Lovely weather-eh?

-Mr. H. Baumgarten gives the contract for his new residence to-uay. -The Brockmann Concert Company to night. Miss Leinbach, the soloist. -Mr. H. H. Hood will move into his new esidence on East Fifth street this week. -Mr. Kraeger will not move to his new home on Calawell screet until August 1st. -Charlotte now has three "J. W. Cobbs. The more, the better, if all are like the first -The Rocky River Mine is being worked right along. Three veins are being oper

-Two new members were admitted to the junior branch of the St. Anurew's Brother-hood last night. -Wadesboro is to have a dance Friday night. The Italian band of this city will likely furnish the music.

-Miss Minnie Cope and Mr. W. E. Harris,

-Two new children have been received at the Thompson Orphanage this week—one a girl, Tuesday; the other, a boy, yesterday. The police commission is after the bur-glars; or rather the commission is after the police and the police are after the burglars. Amendment accepted? -The Cheenver is glad to know that Mr. B. r. Case has been entirely restored to health-mental and physical. He is now in Virginia with relatives.

-The Scotch-Irish Congress meets to day in its seventh annual gathering in Lexing-ton, Va. Dr. G. W. Graham was unable to attend. His paper will be read before it e congress.

PRIENDS WISH HIM "BON VOYAGE."

Rev. C. L. Hoffmann, rector of St The Woman's Christian Temperance Union met in the Y. M. C. A. hall yesterday at 2:30.

The convention was called to order by singing "All ha'l the power of Jesus' name."

Devotional exercises were conducted by Mrs. N. C. Weatherly, of Greens boro.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union met in the Y. M. C. A. hall yesterday at 2:30.

A few minutes after the arrival of the north-bound passenger train yesterday in poor health for several months. Believing that a sea voyage would prove beneficial to him, his congregation of fered him a vacation of three months for the trip. He at once attached him stopping not until the Southern depot was reached. The occupants of the carriage were Marshal Allison, Chief of boro.

Police Ore and James R. Holland, the join them in New York, and with them in parting, the latter said: "Tell your 3d, through the Tressachs, by coach; couple exchanged vows before Dr. Bowfelon's fate-a penitentiary cell. The Lake Como by boat, July 19: Milan, white silk, which fitted her exquisitely. tide of years will roll on. In seven July 19; Venice, July 20 and 21; Florgone. Who can predict what may hap. Naples. 30 and 31; up Vesuvius by car- tractions, and in consequence has a host people, and enters a new life as No. - Paris, August 8-15; coach to Versailles, lotte, and has always commanded the in the Albany penitentiary.

August 15; Dieppe, London and Westrespect and esteem of the community.

Marshal Allison will not chain Hol minster, August 15-22; Kenilworth by From the church the bridal party. land with the other prisoners. Whether coach, Chester, August 23 and Liver-

"TAR HEELS."

Some of These Folks Are-Others Don't Stick-They Go and Come.

The OBSERVER was glad to meet party, their offences and sentences, are terday Mr. Frank O. Elliott, son of Dr. Elliott, the well-known proprietor of the Factory, at Dilworth, is completed. The Catawba Springs. Mr. Elliott is the ac- machinery is all on the floors and is tive manager of the springs. He was now being placed and the factory will

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. E. Wilson and daughter, Miss Annie, and Mr. and Mrs. line of business and stand very high in F. B. McDowell, and Miss Rebekah Montreal, their old home. The OBSER-Dowell, each illicit distilling and 13 Chambers, will leave this morning for VER predicts for them the success to Morehead City. Mrs. James M. Oates and children

Jones and Lon Smith, of Guilford, each leave in a few days for Catawba worth is complete, and is ready for the Springs.
Mr. N. H. McGilvary, of Statesville, tion. were joined at Salisbury last evening the clever draughtsman of Davidson by the prisoners from Asheville and College, whose pen pictures adorn the Pharr's new foundry and Dilworth's males. The order numbers over 80,000 reduction—a tremendous slaughter are occupying and we have sold thou- 3,13 for 1.98; 1.93 for 1.27. Children's the guest of Mr. Hamilton Wilson Miss Carrie Stinson, of Davidson, visiting in the city. Messrs. D. K. Pope and C. H. Little,

Mrs. H. D. Leak and daughter, Winston, will be here to-day to visit Miss Bessie Krider, of Salisbury, who thoughtful remembrance of the stu- his party therefore remained over in was to leave here Tuesday night for dents, which adds this wonderfully Greensboro last night, will spend to- Arkansas, got on the wrong team and clever book to her office effects. The night in Washington and reach Albany did not discover her mistake until she reached Rock Hill, S. C. She took the up train and came back to Charlotte. opping at Col. R. M. Oates'. Yester-

y she took a fresh start. Miss Mary Steele went to Salisbury last night to visit Miss Bessie Henderso Rev. Alex. Sprunt, of Rock Hill, S , spent Tuesday night at the Central Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Gresham, of Monroe, spent vesterday at Mr. P. L. Bonney's

Misses Laura Wadsworth and Mary Harty went to Creswell Springs yesterday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs Egbert Hutchison, o Mt. Holly, were in town yesterday. Mr. T. J. Witherspoon and bride re urned to the city yesterday morning. between Graham and Pine streets which They leave to-day for Asheville, their

Mr. C. W. Tillett goes to Mangum o-morrow. Mrs. Tillett goes to the hountains for a stay of several weeks. College When He Was Run Up On. nountains for a stay of several weeks. Mrs. W. B. Vail returned yesterday from High Point.

THE CHARLOTTE EXHIBIT.

Seaboard's Idea.

The idea of Charlotte making an exhibition at the Atlanta Exposition, as lice, who kept a close watch at the Charlotte hath charms to catch the sprung upon the people in yesterday's depot. About Il o'clock a white man South Carolina negro. The season of Observer, struck the town favorably. excursions is on and a dusky influx may A number of prominent business men, had it checked to Elon College. The be expected almost weekly. The text whose business it is to see that Charlotte date is the 26th. The colored Presby- grows that they may grow financially. Girls, of this city, is just off the press terians of Columbia run an excursion were seen and were heartily in favor of give his name. He says he bought the It is to Charlotte that day. The military it. Charlotte will work hand in hand wheel from a negro and paid him $10 company is coming along, and in the with the Seaboard Air Line, which con for it. afternoon will have a competitive drill, ceived the idea of an exhibit of ail Capt. Taylor, of the Charlotte Light In- things exhibitable along the line of its died in Wilkesboro yesterday, was fantry being the judge. The baseball road. That suggested a separate exhibit brought here last night and was buried for Charlotte. The Seaboard exhibit is to-day. The city fire department, of to be in charge of Mr. John T. Patrick. which Mr. Lewis was a member, at

The section foremen of the road have | tended in a body. been requested to send to Mr. Patrick a gallon of every variety and color of soil, land deal here yesterday. It gravel and sand, decayed rock and brick great deal for Greensboro. clay on each section; specimens of wild and cultivated grasses; samples of every kind of grain growing along the different sections; samples of best varieties of fruit; and anything which would be of value to the exhibit.

The road-masters are to get names of all the cotton and woolen establish- from to-day's primaries are still far ments on the Seaboard within five miles from complete, but results thus far in- you might pay $1,50 for and conof the road, and secure of them one dicate that General Hardin will receive sider them cheap, only 'Se, yard of each variety of cloth that each the nomination from the Democrats for clory makes, also a hankef each size Governor at next week's convention. thread or yarn made by the factory, The votes in the convention number 879, and attach to each lot a list showing lo- and of these about 700 have been heard cality of factory, addresses, etc.; and, if from. Hardin leads Cassius M. Clay, possible, get a photograph of the mill. Jr., by nearly 50 votes. One hundred In fact the whole section of North Car | counties will send uninstructed deleolina through which the Seaboard runs gates The currency question will is to be represented in the big exhibit, figure very prominently, the gold by every variety of articles, manufactur, standard men at present holding the ed or otherwise, peculiar to the sections | whip hand. as a whole, or to certain parts.

Look Out for Her The Dramatic Club has learned by experience that such plays as "Sweet Marjoram" must be left to such capable people as Trahman's excellent stock company, and in the future will deal in rollicking comedies on the order of Suzanne. Their new play, "The Widow," is a prison to his home. seen at their best in its performance. Mrs. F. D. Sampson, whose successes in The Commercial College has thrice been reinforced this week. The new students are Messrs. Harian Wolfe and Chas. Warlice, and Miss Mary Ramsay.

A house on the corner of Sixth and Caluwell streets was entered Thesday night. It was a hungry burgiar. He ate up everything catable in the dining room.

It was a hungry burgiar. He ate up everything catable in the dining room. character work are well remembered.

The Methodists are off this morning at 7 o'clock on the excursion to Rocking-ham. The Seaboard put five new coaches at the disposal of the managers and will add on another at Monroe. The ball team will go along, and the OBSERVER anticipates for the crowd a jolly good time.

A Cultivator to Cultivate Georgia.

Mr. J. S. Thomason, of Lattimore, has recently sold his interest in the Cleveland County Manufacturing Company, and will go to Georgia to operate the Culton cultivator. Mr. Thomason was here yesterday on his way to Georgia.

A BAND OF NOBLE WOMEN. J. R. HOLLAND OFF TO ALBANY. MR. HOFFMAN'S FAREWELL. MARRIAGE AT ST. MARK'S. THE REALM OF SWEET SOUNDS. MISS VOGEL, MR. RIGLER THE PARTIE

A Pretty Bridal Scene at the Luth

Mr. Hoffmann is exceedingly popular in Charlotte, not only in his church but with all with whom he comes in conheard, and the bridal party entered. tact. He will have pleasant evidence First came the ushers—Messrs. T. L. of this fact in the number of friends Powell, T. C. Keesler, E. A. McCausbows by an inclination of the head. He, in high esteem, will be on hand and nounce the young couple "husband and the marshal and Chief Orr, walked rap- will load the "victim" with good wishes wife." Following the ushers came Bonnie Oates, were heard in a lovely duet from Il Trovatore. They sang with fine effect, but the real beauty of Miss Oates' voice did not show itself showed no trace of emotion. Several times he spoke about some contribution of Killarney, June 29: the Lakes of Killarney, June 30: Dublin, Shell after the bride, with her sister and bourne, July 1; Belfast, Glasgow, July after the bride, with her sister and maid of honor, Miss Lou Vogel, appearance train. As he and his father shock hands mand and Loch Katrine by boat, July 1; Belfast, Glasgow, July 2; Loch Loch contribution of the spoke about some contributions. The charmed circumstants and and Loch Katrine by boat, July 2; Loch Loch contributions and Loch Katrine by boat, July 2; Loch Loch contributions are specified by the seven seven until she gave Polacca from II Puritana, Bellini. As Miss Oates rose to go to the stage she was greeted by a storm of applause. Her selection suited her perfectly. Hers is a lovely bird-like voice, with bird-like execution. Her charming simplicity of manner is pormother how I left: that I bore up." Callender, Sterling, Durham, York, That was the only reference to home and leaving. The two grasped hands a hurried good-bye, and the train began pulling out.

Callender, Sterling, Durham, York, man in a service at once solemn and expressive. The scene was one of quiet dignity and beauty. The bride wore a beautiful gown of white silk, her bulling out.

Holland, July 12: Mainz, Heidelburg, Bridal zeil enveloping her person. trayed in her voice, which has a charm Her selection was a happy one, allowing full scope for bravura work and The gaping crowd stood staring at Baden Baden, July 13 and 14; the Falls Her flowers were bride's roses. had scarcely ceased to sing before Lu- She made a fair and attractive picture storm of applause rang through the few there are that can) that on board cerne, the St. Gotthard Pass, July 17; in her handsome bridal array. The house. She was compelled to give an encore. When it is remembered that she is a pupil of one year-a beginner The bride is a daughter of Mr. and as she might be termed-her execution is indeed remarkable. Increased vol-of pretty and useful presents.

which they are entitled.

latest enterprise

Ada, warps.

way.

The Sash Cord Factory at Dil

machinery and will soon be in opera-

Mill News-Ten Hummers

Charlotte is no longer boasting seven but ten cotton mills. Here's Alpha, two-ply yarns and warps.

Charlotte Oil and Fertilizer Company,

President Holt, of the Gingham Mil

cturned to Lexington last evening after

Smith, New York, is in the city. He

At Death's Door.

Mr. John McCall's condition is n

HE STOLE A BICYCLE.

GREENSBORO, June 19 .-- A thie! stol city, last night. Mr. Clary left the wheel standing in front of his store, as home found that his bicycle was gone.

Mr. Clary immediately notified the po-took a wheel to the baggage room and wheel turned out to be Mr. Clary's and

The body of Mr. Chas. Lewis, who

Everybody is delighted over the big

THE KENTUCKY PRIMARIES.

The Gold Standard Men at Present Hold

the Whip Hand-Hardin Leads for Gov-

Louisville, Ky., June 19.-Returns

TELEGRAPHIC BRIEFS.

The Committee of Seventy met yesterday in New York and formally went out of business. The executive-com-

Henry Bier, the New Orleans capitalist convicted of perjury, is about to die, and has been taken from the parish

Eck, manager for Johnson, the class

B bicyclist, failed to find Zimmerman's manager in Philadelphia yesterday, and Ginners contemplating any changes or improvements in their cotton gins this sen-son are requested to let me figure with them on their wants. I am this year represent-ing the Smith Son's Gin & Machine Co., of Birmingham, Ala., who have made

VALUABLE IMPROVEMENTS

mittee made a long written report.

the man was arrested, but refused t bicycle from Mr. W. J. Clary, of this Atherton, two-ply yarns.

Victor, variety yarns.

Gold Crown, hosiery.

Robbins, sash cord.

s at the Central.

better.

ernor.

Highland Park, ginghams.

two days' stay in the city.

lying condition last night.

pecial to the Observer.

Charlotte, sheetings.

Crowley, towels.

ume will come with study. Miss Connie Jones, who made her bow home folks last week. was again eard, and this time in the Jewel Song from Faust. She handled it in a mas erly manner, giving it the interpreta-From the church the bridal party, on of Albani, rather than any other of with a number of outside friends, were he great artists who have mastered it. driven to the residence of Mr. Vogel, Miss Jones' voice is full of dramatic where an elegant reception was held ower and beauty. She was also comuntil 12 o'clock. elled to give an encore.

Mr. and Mrs. Rigler received numbers Mrs. G. W. Bethel, a great favorite in ormer years, was heard with marked leasure last evening. Her voice has ost none of its roundness and volume. The Leslie Cord Clothing and Belting but is rich and full, as in former years. The playing of Prof. Garrett and Miss hnsie Bason on the violin, Prof Mayne on the piano, and Prof. Bebee on the ornet, added greatly to the success of the evening. have had 35 years experience in their

ONGS WITH AND WITHOUT WORDS.

Charlotte's Vocal Talent Second to None-Miss Ronnie Ontes' Beautiful Voice-The Concert Entire.

The poncert in aid of the library is over. It was a brilliant success and will long be remembered as such. All of Charlotte wanted to hear Charlotte's two stars, Miss Bonnie Oates and Miss Connie Jones, besides the other delight-

Prof. Mayne opened the programme with one of his best piano selections. Following him came Miss Jennie Free man, who gave the first vocal number fine quality of her voice showed to an advantage that delighted those who realize that in her is the making of a oratorio singer of remarkable beauty.

This was a number that suffered none

by Miss Torrence, whose lovely voice i the fine programme.

singing itself right into the hearts of

Mrs. G. W. Bethel and sister, Mis freshness and purity all its own.

coloring the most exquisite. Miss Oates in comparison with what was to come. Next came that exquisite aria from Les Huguenots, "Ye Noble Knights," sung New lot received to-day

Collars and cuffs attached

money back if the colors

Try one of our negligee and cuffs. You get two col-

WE HAVE ANTICIPATED YOUR

THINKING AND YOUR NEEDS

TACKS OF THINGS GATHERED

UST TO MAKE COMFORT FOR

YOU AND MONEY FOR. US, AND

LEONARD REFRIGERATORS THE BEST. IF WE KNEW A BET

TER ONE YOU MAY BE SURE WE

WHITE MOUNTAIN AND ARC

TIU FREEZERS ARE STANDARD.

EVERYBODY KNOWS THEIR

OIL STOVES, ONE, TWO AND THREE HOLES, WITH OR WITH-

FRUIT JARS, JELLY TUMBLERS

PRESERVING KETTLES, FLY

COME WITH TWO-THIRDS OF

G. S. READ & CO.

Circumstances"

GAINS will be created by this re-always obtain in our establish-

$5; all wool black worsted men's

TO SAVE MONEY FOR YOU.

VOULD HAVE IT

OUT OVENS.

Rogers

Isn't that sensible?

of the evening. She sang Robiandi's lade. The most perfect dor-"Bright Star of Love," in which the lar negligee shirt we ever ing of its own that stood out well on shirts with detached collars sold:

K. and L. of H. Rev. W. P. Williams, deputy supreme rotector of "The Knights and Ladies "In the Rush and Roll of f Honor," will in a few days be in Charlotte to organize a lodge of the order. This is called "The Queen of Benevolent Orders," and is the only one It becomes necessary to apply the The brick are on the ground for Mr. members, and gives from $500 to $3,000 protection at a very low rate of assess-

H. BARUCH.

Wash silks; 1,000 yards of the prettiest styles: about 20 different patterns.

fair quality. Silk parasols, all white, AT $1.70. with broad satin ribment, the following is appended bon inserting; solid light pink and All wool black cheviot men's suits, light blue with satin ribbon in-

Mr. Geo. A. Bayne, of Carey, Bayne sertion. China silk white para- | nal men's suits, $10; all wool black sols, white handles.

Sailor hats (trimmed), Mrs. J. C. Dowd was considered in a straws; some in this lot were $1 25 | quality and make is guaranteed, He was extremely low last to $1.75.

DUCK.-White, navy and tan on the bargains offered an insult to ust in.

PERCALES. - The prettiest keen edge. Boys' all wool mixed white and navy grounds with cassimers and cheviot suits cut stripes; just the thing for waists. from $3 to $1.98; $2.88 will buy a can fool some of the people all the MOSQUITO canopies and nets. HAMMOCKS-45c, 88c, $1.50, $1.75, $2 25. LADIES' Muslin Underwear: Corset covers, 15c, 19c, 25c. Gowns, 50c, 69c, 75c. Drawers, 25c, 33c, 50c, 75c.

Chemise, 25c, 35c, 50s. Clearing sale of torchon lace fancy laces and embroideries.

BLACK SILKS, -China and Japan, extra qualities, 48c, 60, 73c BLACK SATIN-All silk, 69c, 71c, $1.

Don't miss the bargain counter of notious, combs, elastic, collar buttons, writing paper, envelopes, towels, all linen, 6c.

White quilts, extra size, the kind | city of Charlotte, North Carolina, on

H. BARUCH.

J. H. McADEN, on that day. Trustee. RALEIGH, N. C.

ble pants, sizes 4 to 9, 19c.

in quality, style and make.

and send out goods on approval.

W. KAUFMAN & CO.,

LEADING CLOTHIERS.

NOTICE.

A meeting of the creditors of J. R.

Holland will be held in the office of

Geo. E. Wilson, attorney-at-law, in the before the trustee in order that a full

Advanced, thorough, select. Particular attention to advanced art. Regular Conservatory of Music—directors from Leipsic and Boston.

No superior work done anywhere, North or South. Send for new illustrated alogue to JAS. DINWIDDIE, M. A. (University of Virginia), Principal.

SEIGLE'S. WAIST SALE.

very beautiful.
Waists worth $1,00 at 82c. Waists worth $1.50 at $1.10.

Waists worth $1.75 at $1.24.

Waists worth $2.25 at $1.50. Waists worth $2.50 at $1.65. Waists worth $3.75 at $2.00. This is a bona fide sale. The

With every 50-cent purwith four-in-hand tie to chase we give away One match, $1.00 each. Your Soda Water Ticket, good at fade. The most perfect dol- the three drug stores on the square.

Colored people will be OW served at the Queen City Drug Company.

> JOE BARUCH & CO, Opposite City Hall.

lars, two pair of cuffs and a four-in-hand tie to match. Straw hats are chear now.

> gardless of the true value. The old way says it won't do. Well. while we are doing it right on and selle ing the goods the old timer is looking on, waiting, watching, expecting us to break and no doubt he honestly thinks we will. While we are mastering the trade, pushing our business to the front, knowing no law except that of the very best possible values for the least money, our trade grows and grows. Perhaps they are complaining that we ire selling goods for less than they can buy them, for less than they can be made, and it's the truth, we are. Take he great job of ladies' and misses' shoes ought last week at 50c. on the dollar of the retail price. We guard our own inprofit on them and we guard the interthan he can possibly buy the goods turnable at our expense. elsewhere. Of course all this stock is going rapidly. We expected it would. We made prices on it for that purpose; and it's the same way with hundreds of other Our grand closing out prices have creatthings that we are selling at half price ed the greatest stir in dry goods circles that we say nothing about. It's no new ever witnessed in our city. To-morrow THE MONEY THAT YOU EXPECT TO SPEND AND SEE IF YOU DON'T GET WHAT YOU WANT.

Benevolent Orders," and is the only one that admits females on equal terms with AX to prices. It is not a sweeping the disasters of credit. It's the field we 3.85, at 2.79; 3.30 for 2.27; 2.25 for 1.69; -a great crash—or other such sands of dollars worth of goods to the parasols, costing 2.25, for 1.39; 1.93 for book? that we are institutions for "bosh" that we are instituting, for as we are selling these shoes, and so 71c: 50c. for 25c: 30c. for 15c. our prices from the first were very long as we stay in Charlotte shall conclose. It is only because our stock | tinue to do it.

decided to chop 25 to $8\frac{1}{3} per cent. tail everywhere at from 50c. to $1. going to sell them to you at about 60c. off of our former prices on Spring Another big job in boys' knee pants on cost value and not on regular retail. Suits. What INIMITABLE BAR- just received. Men's and boys' wash value. Do you wonder that we are coats, 25, 35, 50, 75c and up. There seems to be no limit to the Bath towels, fair size, duction many of you will be well growth of our millinery department. aware. For those who are not ac- Sales this season have more than doucheap enough sell themselves. We ap- ratio. ply the same law to millinery as we do suits, $7 50; all wool black diagoclay worsted men's suits, $8 50 These figures represent a cut of 331 per cent., which, considered white, black and mixed in connection with the fact that Successors to W. J. Davis & Co.

dous trade of the Racket.

would make a further insistence your intelligence. All along the line prices have succumbed to the

Do they relish being fooled? You suit that was $8 50; $2 69 will time and all the people some time buy a suit worth $4; $3.69 will buy but not all the people all the time. a suit worth $5. All wool blue Now it's our time to fool the re-flannel blouse suits are $1.98: mainder, but on this wise will children's washable blouse suits we do it: On and after June 17th, reduced to 98c; children's washa- we will begin our annual Summer Clearance Sale, and those who do Replete with bargains as this not come to it will be fooled, as department was even at former they will find out when it is too prices the present reduction brings late for them that our sale is out in bold relief the fact that pa-rents can clothe their children here getting-rid sale, and not a windy, at a minimum cost, and this in gusty, much-blown, do little afaddition to the highest exallence fair. Our latest arrived lawns, Gauffrey crepons, Tauraine silks, crimpalines and whatever else of We pay strict attention to mail orders | constitutes our unexcelled and popular stock of summer washables will be sold lower than you ever heard of. Believe or doubt us as you will, the sale will be a great one, and hundreds will be happy over what they'll get from Tuesday, the second day of July. All our well assorted, new summer parties holding claims against the said goods. for atl are in the sale. R. Holland will make proof of same Black silks, swivel silks, chiffens, list of assets and liabilities may be made laces, embroideries, organdies, must now travel. White quilts; table linen and napkins. 15c

> T. L. Alexander, Son and Co. SOUTH CAROLINA COM-ING TO THE FRONT.

silkaline drapery, 5c.

Last year my daughter was suffering greatly from general debility, caused from a run-down system, indigestion, etc. I tried various remedies that presented themselves, and had the best Last year my daughter was suffering You probably know by this time that we advertise just exactly the facts and we do exactly what we advertise.

We have too many fine shirt waists and we make a sale on them to-day. We propose to slaughter them. They are perfect fitting and well made. The facts and well made. The facts are stubborn and pertination of Mrs. The facts are stubborn and pertination of Mrs. The opportunity is offered you would ponder well and consider Junyou stand at present. The opportunity is offered you was for fewer dollars and utmost convergence was affected with pimples, and the skin was rough, but after taking the Remedy that all disappeared, leaving her complexion good. She had not taken more than three bottles hefore them. They are perfect fitting taken more than three bottles before and well made. This sale is strictly she commenced to improve, and by the cash. No waists charged. The time she had taken the half-dozen bottles is cut to and below cost. The line is large and the assortment very beautiful.

INSURE IN THE OLD RELIABLE TO SOME THE COLD RELIABLE TO SOME THE SOLD RELIABLE TO SOME THE SOLD RELIABLE TO SO

I know Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy is all she claims for it, and cannot be beaten as a tonic and alterative.

Mrs. Lipscome Wood.

Pacolet, S. C., June 24, 1895.

This is a bona fide sale. The waists are all good values at the market prices, and the cut prices should make them hum. Now's your chance to buy. Don't wait until to morrow. To-day is the day.

SOMETHIC FOR YOU.

Rubber hose, with spray nozzies; lawn mowers, the best and cheapest made.

Rubber hose, with spray nozzies; lawn mowers, the best and cheapest made.

Sors. pocket knives, razors, razor-straps and in fact, soything needed in the hardware line.

J. H. WEDDINGTON & Co.

In Clothing,

Especially light-weight outing suits, and not generally expected thus early in the season, yet with us the little figures have already

Let Us To You a Few Well-Known Facts.

Our prices are dwarfs, therefore our sales are giants. All of which reminds us to remind you that we can fit apything from a It is a business revelation to dwarf to a giant with the latest some people to sell goods from the and best, the neatest and choicest standpoint of what they pay re- that the outer man requires and that's saying enough.

We solicit orders from a distance and will send goods terests first by making a reasonable by express on approval to est of buyer by selling them for less any part of the country, re-

Wonderful Sales.

thing to us and we have grown used to we shall offer white parasols, lace and chiffon trimming, cost $7.15, at $4.88; We don't buy goods unless they are white parasols, lace and chiffon trimcheap and we know perfectly well that ming, cost 6.00, at 3.98; white parasols, piles of goods of all kinds pass over our with narrow lace trimming, cost 3.85, at ounters daily that we can't duplicate 2.98; white parasols of moire silk, lace at the prices through the old channels insertion, cost 6.15, at 4.48; white paraf 1 and 6 months dating on a credit. | sols, with light blue stripes, cost 3.58, at

Now listen. The above cost figures are not the retail prices that would or-We are closing a lot of child's wash dinarily be charged you, but they are the is too large and does not move as blouse suits from 3 to 8 years at 25c. per manufacturers wholesale prices. Now fast as we would like, that we have cent. off regular price. These goods re- figure for yourself and see if we are not crowded while our neighbors are asleep? Why shouldn't we be?

Men's all silk umbrellas will be closed out, beginning to-morrow, as follows: bled any previous effort. Just as we Worth 5.00 at 3.05; 5.50 at 3.35; 4.00 at quainted with the low prices that have been telling you all along. Goods 2.75; 3.50 at 2.35; cheaper ones in same Hear this. Rountree's famous trunks, everything else and there never was a worth $16 at 11.50; worth 7.50 at 5.48; worth 6.00 at 4.25; one 40-inch roller better illustration of it than the trementray, linen lined trunk, worth 16.50, at 11.85-just one of these, and the early bird gets the worm, you know. 25c. silk Windsor ties at 16c; 75c. silk gloves at 25c; 1.00 chiffon at 61c; 1.25 storm serges at 89c; 50c. serges at 33tc. and so on through our magnificent stock, and yet some of these merchants will tell you their prices are almost as cheap as ours! 'Tis simple and unadulterated falsehood, and our prices and tremendous trade show it to be the veriest rot.

"THE WORLD IS MINE." A man was heard to drop this remark as he whatever name and make that THE W. E. SHAW HARNESS CO.

TO KEEP ABREAST OF THE TIMES

E. D. LATTA. INSURE IN THE OLD RELIABLE

The ÆTNA is the only insurance company that has invested in your home securities, and to-day holds $67,000 in Mecklenburg county bonds. Represented in Charlotte by

R. E. Cochrane

INSURANCE AND

REAL ESTATE AGENT