WINFION, July 23.—Mrs. Eliza Hoptina, which I believe is the true one. The greater part of the Democratic State press seems to be in line with the Populist party and is preaching daily and weekly the principles as enunciated by Senator Marion Butler. I do not say that Senator Butler. I do not say that Senator Butler. I do not say that Senator Butler is a bad man; in fact, I believe to the contrary; but there was never an individual in all history more terribly abused and villified than he during the last campaign and yet his abusers, many Democratic newspapers and so called Democrats, are now saying, "well, Butler is a good fellow, any way, and thoroughly believes in Democratic doctrine." I despise such cant and inconsistency. The free and unlimited coinge of silver is one of the big planks in the platform of the Populist party and it is funnty to a man who looks on and watches the Democratic trying to steat this plank. I don't know how long this new party' will last, but it is going to be fere in 1896, and there is going to be fere in 1896, and there is going to be fere in 1896, and there is going to be fere in 1896, and there is going to be fere in 1896 and the plants of the Democratic party will ast, but the ranks of the Democratic party will ast, but it is going to be here in 1896, and there is going to be here in 1896, and there is going to be here in 1896, and there is going to be here in 1896, and there is going to be here in 1896, and there is going to be here in 1896, and there is going to be here in in the base party will be given at the operation of the population in the party will be given at the operation of the population of the party will be given a

Charlotte, N. C.: Gentlemen: I received the catalogues two days ago. I am very much pleased with them. You have done me good work—and promptly. I am sure the catalogues will help fill my school at the opening of the fall term.

202 SOUTH TRYON STREET

Yours truly, J. D. MINICK.

The above is from Prof. J. D. Minick, President of Davenport College, Lenoir, N. C. The work on this catalogue was completed within one week. We could publish many other testimonials showing the satisfaction our work has given our patrons.

Reader, we will be glad to serve you, and promise honestly to give you the very best work for the smallest sum of dollars—silver, gold or greenbacks-or your check-provided it will "curl." Send for samples and prices.
