The Rebels Repulsed With Loss-The At tacks Kenewed and Buildings Burned. HAVANA, July 30 .- A dispatch from Santiago de Cuba says that on July 28th the insurgent bands under Jose Macco and Louis Bonet intimated to the detachment of Spanish troops garrisoning the fort at Ti Arriba that they would surrender. Under this subterfuge they approached the fort and attacked it. but were repulsed with a loss of six killed and many wounded. The government troops had two men wounded. In the course of the night the rebels re newed their attack on the fort and during the fight set fire to several houses in the village, which were destroyed. Shortly after daybreak on the following morning a column of troops under Col. Seguras appeared upon the scene when the insurgents dispersed. The troops pursued but with what result is not

Catholic Priests Take Steps to Close Catholic Breweries. PITTSBURG, Pa., July 30.-Bishop helan, of the Pittsburg diocese of the of the Varick building. Catholic Church, will this week receive petition from the priests of his disrict asking that he take some action to close the big breweries of the St. Vincent Brotherhood at Latrobe. The priests have long regarded the smoking stacks of the Loretto breweries with August. An entirely new programme disfavor. During the retreat at Loretto, which came to a close last week, the matter was brought to a crisis by the determination that the priesthood should not be tarnished any longer by the liquor business if their petitions would avail. The brew of St. Vincent has become famous, particularly in the States of Ohio, Pennsylvania and New York.
