AJACCIO, Corsica, Aug. 28.—Mm Beneditti and Alessandri, rival candidates for the Canton of Pedioroce, fought a duel with pistols to-day with the result that Alessandri was killed. The duel grew out of a violent newspaper quarrel.

Alessandri fired his first shot before the word was given whereupon Benedetti fired in the air. A second shot was then fired and Alessandri fell dead.

PARIS, Aug. 28.—The newspaper Echo de Paris to-day announces that the Duke of Orleans, who upon the death last year, of his father, the Count of Paris, became the head of the royalist party in France and claimant of the throne, has become convinced of the futility of further fighting the republic. He has, therefore, decided to abandon the royalist propagands in France, cease the payment of subaldles to royalist newspapers and abandon the offices in Paris occupied by the Royalist committee.
