

THE PIN POINT OF THE PERRY.

Come Up and Stand With Us, But Look Out For Yourselves. The City Editor Found After a Month's Absence and Set to the Music of the Piano.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Miller are back from a short stay in Fort Mill, S. C. They visited relatives.

Mr. J. H. Harris left Sunday night for "Gotham." He will be absent several days.

Miss Nellie Tate has returned to the city. Mr. F. M. Shannonhouse is in the city for a few days.

Mr. H. O. Long, of the Racket, is back from a Northern business trip. Mrs. Maggie C. James and Miss Marie Haughton of Wilmington, are visiting at Mr. T. J. Deane's office.

Mr. J. W. Mullen, of Huntersville, was in the city last night. He goes north in a few days.

Miss Jennie Johnston is summing at Hot Springs. Mrs. Thos. Tate, of Jackson, Tenn., is visiting Mrs. H. Wilkinson on North Brevard street.

Mr. W. M. Finger, who has been at his old home near Lincoln attending a family reunion, returned home last night.

Mr. J. W. Simpson, of Rock Hill, entered the C. M. L. yesterday. Mr. Geo. H. Newcomb returned Sunday from visits combining business and pleasure to Boston, New York and other Northern points.

Miss Hettie Winslow, of Shelby, is the guest of Mrs. Emma Hall. Misses Ernestine Weston, Annie Gross and Kate Northey, left last night for New York to perform themselves as milliners.

Miss Annie Graham Shaw returned Sunday morning from New York where she had been to attend the funeral of Mrs. Cannon.

Mr. Andrew Cowles was left at Keely Institute Sunday in a much better condition and his entire recovery is early hoped for.

HOME, SWEET HOME.

Notes Which the City Editor Found After a Month's Absence and Set to the Music of the Piano.

The Fox Club is trying its horse and dog. There will be a german at the park to-night.

The convent has 26 pupils, probably the largest private school in the city.

Mr. J. H. Thibault has opened a grocery store on Third and York streets.

A large sale of Kentucky stock at Wednesday's morning of 11 o'clock.

Rain-drops yesterday. Were you thankful for the water? Mr. J. C. Herrington is building a new two-story house for Mr. Will Wheeler, on Smith street.

Mr. Frank & Bro. are now neatly fitted up in their new place of business, just opposite the River store.

The star course at the Y. M. C. A. opens October 1st. The prospectus is now under way in the office.

The Congregational church, colored, is enjoying a protracted meeting this week. It is held at the Centenary.

Mr. Geo. Holobough is having his home on North Cedar street overhauled and repaired. Mr. J. A. Slater, the artist, is at the place.

Master Ernest Cathey went to Paw Creek yesterday. He came to court, winter and attend Paw Creek Academy.

Mrs. McKee Jamison and Mr. and Mrs. Dukes will occupy the house vacated by Mr. John W. Todd. They move to-day.

DE WOLF & COMPANY.

Notes Which the City Editor Found After a Month's Absence and Set to the Music of the Piano.

Some people think Adams will not be here, as he is afraid of Schrade. "That is rot," says Mr. Carson.

Some people think Adams will not be here, as he is afraid of Schrade. "That is rot," says Mr. Carson.

Some people think Adams will not be here, as he is afraid of Schrade. "That is rot," says Mr. Carson.

Some people think Adams will not be here, as he is afraid of Schrade. "That is rot," says Mr. Carson.

Some people think Adams will not be here, as he is afraid of Schrade. "That is rot," says Mr. Carson.

Some people think Adams will not be here, as he is afraid of Schrade. "That is rot," says Mr. Carson.

Some people think Adams will not be here, as he is afraid of Schrade. "That is rot," says Mr. Carson.

Some people think Adams will not be here, as he is afraid of Schrade. "That is rot," says Mr. Carson.

Some people think Adams will not be here, as he is afraid of Schrade. "That is rot," says Mr. Carson.

Some people think Adams will not be here, as he is afraid of Schrade. "That is rot," says Mr. Carson.

Some people think Adams will not be here, as he is afraid of Schrade. "That is rot," says Mr. Carson.

W. KAUFMAN'S Great Storm Sale!

70 Dozen 840 TOWELS. Big lot scooped in. Got them cheap. They go on sale September 9th.

A great many came to our rescue, taking advantage of our low prices. Quite a number of the visitors made purchases, others inspected the stock and all were in a smiling humor when they saw the rare values offered.

We have bargains for everybody in everything that pertains to men's, boys' and children's clothing. A falling barometer has caused a drop in prices as the following special offer for to-day will show:

50 Children's Knee Pants Suits sizes 4 to 8 at 50c per suit. 100 Children's Knee Pants Suits sizes 4 to 10 at 75c per suit. Boys' Long Pants Suits $2.50.

These suits are all sterling value. The regular prices would be 33 1/2 per cent. more. Only the figures are low; the quality, make and style are the best. Our time is limited to Jan. 1st, 1896, to close out, therefore we do not hesitate to sacrifice our entire stock as the loss and trouble will be much less than to move it.

Mail orders receive our best attention. Goods sent on approval. SEIGLE'S. THE MAN ABOUT TOWN.

No matter what faults he may have, knows above all others where to buy the "tony" furnishing goods. Men about this town often come to us; all the time, if they can. They know us to be the people to carry every new line the instant it becomes fashionable.

Owing to the fact that the workmen have been unable to finish our store in time for us to open September 2d, we will have to postpone the opening for a few days. Notice will be given in due time.

The Charlotte Dry Goods Emporium. Next to H. Baruch, West Trade Street.

Watch and Wait have for some time past been the words heading this column. The time has now arrived to act.

To the many friends of Mr. H. Baruch, I am able to tell the pleasing news that his affairs are about arranged and that at an early date he will start out anew, to supply the trade with all the novelties to be had—but it will require Forty Thousand Dollars ($40,000) in cash to accomplish this much-desired result, and to aid him to raise this sum of money, I respectfully request:

1st. That those indebted to him will do him more than a favor by paying their accounts, and 2d. I advise the public that from and after Tuesday next, the 3d inst., I will expose for sale (cash only) his entire stock of goods at "Assignee's Prices." (Every body knows what that means.) But I am short of help, and to avoid confusion I will make sales of special goods on special days. I commence for next Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday to close out all of his stock of Millinery, Ribbons, Veilings, Fans, Parasols and White Goods. All these lines must and shall be sold. Come on—come soon—and stay late.

Your truly, S. WITTKOWSKY, Assignee of H. Baruch.

Augusta Brewing Co.'s FINE EXPORT, BOTTLE AND KEG BEER, SODA WATER, KEG AND BOTTLE CIDER.

KAUFMAN'S Great Storm Sale!

70 Dozen 840 TOWELS. Big lot scooped in. Got them cheap. They go on sale September 9th.

A great many came to our rescue, taking advantage of our low prices. Quite a number of the visitors made purchases, others inspected the stock and all were in a smiling humor when they saw the rare values offered.

We have bargains for everybody in everything that pertains to men's, boys' and children's clothing. A falling barometer has caused a drop in prices as the following special offer for to-day will show:

50 Children's Knee Pants Suits sizes 4 to 8 at 50c per suit. 100 Children's Knee Pants Suits sizes 4 to 10 at 75c per suit. Boys' Long Pants Suits $2.50.

These suits are all sterling value. The regular prices would be 33 1/2 per cent. more. Only the figures are low; the quality, make and style are the best. Our time is limited to Jan. 1st, 1896, to close out, therefore we do not hesitate to sacrifice our entire stock as the loss and trouble will be much less than to move it.

Mail orders receive our best attention. Goods sent on approval. SEIGLE'S. THE MAN ABOUT TOWN.

No matter what faults he may have, knows above all others where to buy the "tony" furnishing goods. Men about this town often come to us; all the time, if they can. They know us to be the people to carry every new line the instant it becomes fashionable.

Owing to the fact that the workmen have been unable to finish our store in time for us to open September 2d, we will have to postpone the opening for a few days. Notice will be given in due time.

The Charlotte Dry Goods Emporium. Next to H. Baruch, West Trade Street.

Watch and Wait have for some time past been the words heading this column. The time has now arrived to act.

To the many friends of Mr. H. Baruch, I am able to tell the pleasing news that his affairs are about arranged and that at an early date he will start out anew, to supply the trade with all the novelties to be had—but it will require Forty Thousand Dollars ($40,000) in cash to accomplish this much-desired result, and to aid him to raise this sum of money, I respectfully request:

1st. That those indebted to him will do him more than a favor by paying their accounts, and 2d. I advise the public that from and after Tuesday next, the 3d inst., I will expose for sale (cash only) his entire stock of goods at "Assignee's Prices." (Every body knows what that means.) But I am short of help, and to avoid confusion I will make sales of special goods on special days. I commence for next Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday to close out all of his stock of Millinery, Ribbons, Veilings, Fans, Parasols and White Goods. All these lines must and shall be sold. Come on—come soon—and stay late.

Your truly, S. WITTKOWSKY, Assignee of H. Baruch.

KAUFMAN'S Great Storm Sale!

70 Dozen 840 TOWELS. Big lot scooped in. Got them cheap. They go on sale September 9th.

A great many came to our rescue, taking advantage of our low prices. Quite a number of the visitors made purchases, others inspected the stock and all were in a smiling humor when they saw the rare values offered.

We have bargains for everybody in everything that pertains to men's, boys' and children's clothing. A falling barometer has caused a drop in prices as the following special offer for to-day will show:

50 Children's Knee Pants Suits sizes 4 to 8 at 50c per suit. 100 Children's Knee Pants Suits sizes 4 to 10 at 75c per suit. Boys' Long Pants Suits $2.50.

These suits are all sterling value. The regular prices would be 33 1/2 per cent. more. Only the figures are low; the quality, make and style are the best. Our time is limited to Jan. 1st, 1896, to close out, therefore we do not hesitate to sacrifice our entire stock as the loss and trouble will be much less than to move it.

Mail orders receive our best attention. Goods sent on approval. SEIGLE'S. THE MAN ABOUT TOWN.

No matter what faults he may have, knows above all others where to buy the "tony" furnishing goods. Men about this town often come to us; all the time, if they can. They know us to be the people to carry every new line the instant it becomes fashionable.

Owing to the fact that the workmen have been unable to finish our store in time for us to open September 2d, we will have to postpone the opening for a few days. Notice will be given in due time.

The Charlotte Dry Goods Emporium. Next to H. Baruch, West Trade Street.

Watch and Wait have for some time past been the words heading this column. The time has now arrived to act.

To the many friends of Mr. H. Baruch, I am able to tell the pleasing news that his affairs are about arranged and that at an early date he will start out anew, to supply the trade with all the novelties to be had—but it will require Forty Thousand Dollars ($40,000) in cash to accomplish this much-desired result, and to aid him to raise this sum of money, I respectfully request:

1st. That those indebted to him will do him more than a favor by paying their accounts, and 2d. I advise the public that from and after Tuesday next, the 3d inst., I will expose for sale (cash only) his entire stock of goods at "Assignee's Prices." (Every body knows what that means.) But I am short of help, and to avoid confusion I will make sales of special goods on special days. I commence for next Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday to close out all of his stock of Millinery, Ribbons, Veilings, Fans, Parasols and White Goods. All these lines must and shall be sold. Come on—come soon—and stay late.

Your truly, S. WITTKOWSKY, Assignee of H. Baruch.

Notes Which the City Editor Found After a Month's Absence and Set to the Music of the Piano. The Fox Club is trying its horse and dog. There will be a german at the park to-night.

Some people think Adams will not be here, as he is afraid of Schrade. "That is rot," says Mr. Carson. Some people think Adams will not be here, as he is afraid of Schrade. "That is rot," says Mr. Carson.

Some people think Adams will not be here, as he is afraid of Schrade. "That is rot," says Mr. Carson. Some people think Adams will not be here, as he is afraid of Schrade. "That is rot," says Mr. Carson.

Some people think Adams will not be here, as he is afraid of Schrade. "That is rot," says Mr. Carson. Some people think Adams will not be here, as he is afraid of Schrade. "That is rot," says Mr. Carson.

Some people think Adams will not be here, as he is afraid of Schrade. "That is rot," says Mr. Carson. Some people think Adams will not be here, as he is afraid of Schrade. "That is rot," says Mr. Carson.

Some people think Adams will not be here, as he is afraid of Schrade. "That is rot," says Mr. Carson. Some people think Adams will not be here, as he is afraid of Schrade. "That is rot," says Mr. Carson.

Notes Which the City Editor Found After a Month's Absence and Set to the Music of the Piano. The Fox Club is trying its horse and dog. There will be a german at the park to-night.

Some people think Adams will not be here, as he is afraid of Schrade. "That is rot," says Mr. Carson. Some people think Adams will not be here, as he is afraid of Schrade. "That is rot," says Mr. Carson.

Some people think Adams will not be here, as he is afraid of Schrade. "That is rot," says Mr. Carson. Some people think Adams will not be here, as he is afraid of Schrade. "That is rot," says Mr. Carson.

Some people think Adams will not be here, as he is afraid of Schrade. "That is rot," says Mr. Carson. Some people think Adams will not be here, as he is afraid of Schrade. "That is rot," says Mr. Carson.

Some people think Adams will not be here, as he is afraid of Schrade. "That is rot," says Mr. Carson. Some people think Adams will not be here, as he is afraid of Schrade. "That is rot," says Mr. Carson.

Some people think Adams will not be here, as he is afraid of Schrade. "That is rot," says Mr. Carson. Some people think Adams will not be here, as he is afraid of Schrade. "That is rot," says Mr. Carson.