

ALL HONOR TO GEO. TILLMAN.

THE DEFENSE OF THE NAME BUTLER. A Severe Arrangement of the Proceedings Which Would Defame It—The Name to be Called "Butler County"—Some Important Business at the Constitutional Convention.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Sept. 14.—The constitutional convention's proceedings to-day have been of the greatest interest. The old family feeling for so many years between the Butler and Gary families was brought up in the debate to-day, and George D. Tillman presented a resolution and so impressed that the large audience seemed to hang on his words.

A vigorous effort was made to have the printing go to the lowest responsible bidder, but it is estimated that A. Calvo, State printer, is entitled to it, and it looks as if he will get it.

Many new ordinances and resolutions were introduced, one important one preserving the right of trial by jury for every offense.

The new county is to be named for the famous Butler family of Edgefield, which ex-Senator M. C. Butler is the representative. The old antagonism between Generals Butler and Gary was at the root of to-day's fight.

Among other things, he said: "But some people from miserable prejudice object to the naming of this county 'Butler.' God pity the man who referred to General M. C. Butler, and put with pride in his record on the battle-field, in the United States Senate, and in every war, the name of a man who is a disgrace to his name."

Mr. Garrison introduced an ordinance providing for the appointment of a labor commissioner.

THE WALLACE BROS. ASSIGN.

THE INDEBTEDNESS ABOUT $300,000. The Assets Probably Sufficient to Cover It—The Pressure of Hard Times Causes the Assignments—The Merchants and Farmers Bank, of Charlotte, a Creditor—The Firm Did an Immense Business.

STATESVILLE, Sept. 14.—The well-known and trustworthy firm of Wallace Bros., who have been doing business in this city since 1859, paying dollar for dollar and enjoying the finest business credit of any firm in the State, made an assignment to-day for the benefit of their creditors.

Benj. F. Long is named as trustee and A. Field & Turner and Wm. M. Roberts are the trustees' counsel.

It is understood that the hard times and pressure of certain creditors compelled the firm to adopt this course so as to treat all their creditors fairly.

There is no preference of creditors under the present law there can be no preference, but everybody will see at a glance that with Mr. Long as the assignee, and the aid of his advisers, there can be no doubt but that the property assigned will be disposed of, or at least administered, to the best interest of all parties.

The amount of the indebtedness, as well as the approximate amount of the assets, while not known, will run up over $300,000.

To a man who understands what it is to handle for 30 or 40 years a large business successfully with honor and integrity, it is not surprising that the firm of a destructive business trust following the foot-steps of the firm and each employee of the firm will sound loud and dead, but here they are.

ANOTHER ISSUE OF BONDS.

A NEW YORK BANKER REPORTS IT. President Hutchison, of the Corn Exchange Bank, Authority for the Statement That the Same Syndicate Will Handle Them—Cleveland Wants an Issue of $25,000,000, While the Syndicate Holds Out for $50,000,000.

CHICAGO, Ill., Sept. 14.—Charles L. Hutchison, president of the Corn Exchange Bank, of New York, said to-day: "I have it on the best authority from New York that another issue of bonds has been arranged for between the government and the Morgan-Edwards syndicate. I received the information yesterday and I understand the only delay in issuing the new batch of bonds is in account of the amount. I believe President Cleveland desires to sell only $25,000,000 worth of bonds now, while the syndicate wants the issue to be at least $50,000,000. I know nothing of the proposed terms, but I expect the announcement of the loan will be made in a day or so. I do not think the issue of bonds will have any effect on the general business. It may depress the price of securities temporarily, but that would not make much difference."

Chicago bankers, interviewed to-day, said they saw no cause for alarm in the increasing shipments of gold to Europe. The monetary and commercial condition was good, and there was no danger of a recurrence of the 1893 panic on account of the impairment of the gold gold reserve in the Treasury.
