A Better Feeling Prevails in the Stock Market.

By Southern Associated Press. NEW YORK, Nov, 37.—A better feeling pre-valled in stock circles to-day, due to the im-provement in the financial and political situation abroad, the easier condition of sterling exchange and buying for both the long and short account. London sent a number of buying orders for its old favor-ites and for the first time in over a year took certain grades of plug. Sugar, Leather, preferred, General Electric, La-Ciede Gas, preferred, Distilling and Cattle Feeding and Bubber gained anywhere from 1/4 to 1%25. Shorts were the principal buy-ers of these specialities, Chicago Gas first rose fractionally to 65%26. but in the after-noon suddenly dropped to 61% on the revi-val of the rumors that Attorney General Maloney had decided against the re-organi-ration plan.
