cumberland Presbyterian church the ministerial committee again reported favorably on the Orphans' Home report. After a lengthy discussion the report was rejected The report of the committee on edu cation was then taken up and discussed by sections. The third item occasioned much debate. It recommended that the charge of $5 per term for tuition in the theological school be discontinued at once. An amendment substituting "as soon as possible" for "at once" was carried and the item adopted. The committee on theological seminaries submitted a majority report and a minority report, both being lengthy documents. The majority against the confirmation of Rev. G. B. Mitchell, of Chattanooga, to a seat in the seminary, while the minority report favors such action. There was a hold which lasted through the evening ses sion, and adjournment was taken with the question pending.
