THE GUN WENT OFF.

Excitement in the baggage car of No. 36, a Southern Train. A rather exciting incident occurred several days ago on No. 36, the passenger train which leaves here at 8:30 a. m. There was a gun in the baggage car, and it is loaded, but a young man by the name of Cooper, seems "didn't know it was loaded." He picked the gun up, and was handling it rather carelessly, when it went off or exploded.

Rev. Mr. Hankins and family have rented the Gardner house on South Tryon Street, and will move in as soon as they can get possession. In the meantime they are at Dr. C. G. McManaway's.

Mr. W. M. Wheeler, of Tryon street Methodist church, went to Cleveland Springs yesterday to complete arrangements for the Sunday school picnic to be held there next Tuesday. In the absence at Davidson, of the pastor, Rev. J. W. Stagg, Rev. B. C. Sinclair will occupy the pulpit of the Second Presbyterian church Sunday morning and night. Mr. Stagg goes to Davidson Saturday afternoon.

Rev. S. B. Durfee, of Trinity church, has returned from Statesville, where he had been attending the Epworth League Conference.

Mill Notes. The Observer some weeks ago noted the purchase by the Messrs. Heath, of a mill at Lando, Chester county, S. C., and the naming of same "Manetta." According to the Columbia State, a charter was granted the company Monday. Mr. B. D. Heath is president and treasurer of the mill. Mr. W. C. Heath, of Monroe, vice president and secretary.

Other directors are O. P. Heath, A. W. Heath and J. A. Heath. Mr. V. P. Wilson, of the Charlotte Supply Co., is in Philadelphia. Mr. E. A. Smith, also of the same house, returned yesterday from Baltimore.

Girls of '96. Misses Adele Hutchison, Saide Young, Marie Sadler and Saide Jones left this morning for Chapel Hill. Miss Hutchison will be chaperoned by her aunt, Mrs. James White, of Graham; the other young ladies, Mrs. Dusenberry, of Concord, Miss Sophie Myers will spend to-day with Miss Seales, in Concord, and Mrs. Dusenberry will go to Fayetteville. Miss Carrie May Dockery goes to Chapel Hill this morning.

Hans by the Dozen. Mr. J. W. Brown, who has a store on West Trade street, in produce row, has been missing hams for several weeks but could not discover what became of them until yesterday, when he caught his driver, Chas. Gaffey, making off with one. Investigation convicted Gaffey of stealing 12 hams. He was arrested by Officer Munzier and locked up.

Superior Court. The case of the Custome Driller Company vs. Worth & Carmichael was decided yesterday in the Superior Court in favor of plaintiff, latter being awarded the sum of $300. The judge sustained the findings of Geo. F. Bason, as referee. Court adjourned in the afternoon, and Judge Bryan left for home last night.

Of a Kind. Mr. T. L. Alexander says he had several of Mr. Hart's tomatoes. He had been out of his garden Sunday. Mr. Shaffer, of North Church street, has the finest blackberries seen here this season. He has had them since the 20th of May.

Happy Row. Mr. J. M. Harry is to perpetuate his name in a row of houses which he will build on East First street. There will be ten houses all the corners, one being on First and Alexander streets.

COLLEGE OF MUSIC AND ART.

The Annual Exercises begin to-night. The annual exercises at the Charlotte College of Music and Art will be given to-night, Thursday, June 4th, in the music room of the college, by the students of the primary department.

The two other concerts given by the college will take place next week—Monday, June 8th, and Thursday, June 11th, in the hall of the Young Men's Christian Association.

The Conservatory concerts are well known, and of an excellent and standard and interesting in every particular. The patrons and invited public are cordially invited to attend the musical treat. The program to-night will be as follows:

- Serenade Helene Lidgell. Myster Waltz Rosa Johnston. Liechner. Jersho. Lucie Withers. Lichner. Jersho Air. Fay Ross. Lach. Vale. Mattie Hippe. Lach. German recitation. Rosa Lidgell. Hallerleben. COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

"Gentlemen Who Were in Their Books" Yesterday. The court house had been demolished yesterday by cyclone or earthquake, the board of county commissioners would have been found amidst debris of the old building. There were books to the right of them; books to the left of them; books behind and in front of them. They not only saw books, but heard books as talked by the following:

Mr. H. W. Harris for the University Publishing Company; Messrs. Jones & Tillet for the American Book Company; Mr. W. C. Dowd for Ginn & Company; and Prof. J. G. Baird for Johnston & Company. Messrs. Harris, Jones & Tillet had their books yesterday. Messrs. Dowd and Baird come on deck again to-day. The board will make no decision in regard to the books to be sold in the county until it hears all, and proves all.

Shelby and Danville United in Golden Bonds. Mr. Henry E. Kendall, of Shelby, and bride, Miss Mary Wiseman, of Danville, Va., arrived at the Buford last night, and leave to-day for their future home in Shelby. The wedding was solemnized in Danville yesterday. Mr. Kendall was accompanied on his pleasant mission by his brother, Mr. K. Kendall. The bride was accompanied by Miss Danville's most attractive young women. The groom is a member of the drug firm, Kendrick & Kendall, of Shelby, and is one of the most popular young men of the town.

Report To-Night. During the absence of Physical Director Simmons, Secretary Mahan will conduct the classes in the gymnastic and athletic work at the association. The class will meet as usual during the week. "Work" will be given in doors. All participants in the contest with Davidson are asked to report to-night.

The thirty-minute prayer meeting will, from now till fall, be turned into an informal Bible class. Exercise, is the topic for to-night. The class will meet at the Buford at 7:30. All young men are welcome.

The Presbyterian College. Mr. and Mrs. Junkin will be up Friday night from Columbia, to remain. Mr. Junkin and Miss Lily Long, principals of the Presbyterian College for Women, will begin arranging for the opening of the first session of the college. The faculty, it is learned, will be practically that of the Seminary. The head of the college will be a music school, with Miss Florence Wilson, possibly, as an assistant.

The trustees of the college meet to-night to further arrange for the opening of the college.

Over the Trunk Line. Mr. J. B. Price of the Columbus & Western road, is here. Mr. Price is an old Air Line man, and a friend of Mr. Callie Creswell—the Charlottean.

There seems to have been a gathering of the "old boys" at the Washington Hotel. Suprs. Ryder and Welles returned from there yesterday morning. Col. A. B. Andrews and Mrs. J. M. Culler, both of the Southern, passed through here yesterday morning on their way from Washington to Atlanta.

The Davidson College Medals. The Davidson College medals are to be given at the Buford. There are seven and all are very handsome. Mr. Palamontian furnished the medals last year, and the fraternities were so much pleased that they gave in the order again this year. He says there is no college anywhere that has handsomer medals than Davidson.

German at Rock Hill. The young men of Rock Hill, Mr. O. R. Crowson in the lead, are to give the young ladies of the Industrial School a German on the 15th. The affair will be quite well, and will be attended by a number of society folks from here and elsewhere.

To the Teachers of the County and Others. Round trip tickets to the assembly at Asheville including membership coupon to the Teachers' Assembly, July 2 to 7, can be had from June 18 to 27, inclusive; final limit July 20, 1896, at Asheville. Price, $1.00. Tickets $6.70; Prof. $6.70; Davidsville, $7.00; Huntersville, $6.70; Pineville, $7.00.

Military. Mr. E. L. Koesler is prominently talked of as a successor to Capt. T. R. Robertson of the Hornets' Nest Rifle team. The Observer will wait until Mr. Koesler is elected to say "he's a captain," but, nevertheless, so regards him, and will vote for him as captain of the Hornets or anything else.

Juvenile Society. Miss Flora Bryan gives a party this evening at the Buford. Hours 5 to 7. Quite a host of little folks are invited, and the affair is to be very rocheboeuf. Miss Elizabeth Chambers was at home Tuesday afternoon to a number of her young friends.

Miss Moore Won First Honor. The list furnished the Observer containing names of those winning distinction, &c., at the Seminary last session was a little mixed, it seems. Miss Annie Brandon Moore was first honor graduate—average 99.6—and received the Cooverse College scholarship.

A Pleasure Postponed. The Sorosis Club, which was to have met with Mrs. F. P. Smith this afternoon, will postpone that pleasure until Tuesday next, when a full attendance is desired.

Death Near Kingswood. Mrs. Geo. Jumper died yesterday near Kingswood, aged about 65 years. Deceased had been in feeble health for some time.

HARD LUCE.

South Carolina Colored Excerpts in the Rain. It would take more than a deluge such as that of yesterday to dampen the ardor of a crowd of colored exponents, therefore when the special excursion train from South Carolina, having on board five or six hundred colored people, arrived at the Buford yesterday morning, it emptied in the Southern yard just that many happy darkeys—happy despite the fact that the rain was pouring in torrents, and they had few umbrellas and no wraps. They packed themselves under the depot shed and in the waiting room, "waiting for the clouds to roll by," so they could get up and out.

The backs and street cars had a picnic. They hauled load after load of the colored people to the square and not a few to the park.

At night's festival was held in the Gaither building, on College street, and at 12 the train carried the Southern line, colored and uncolored, back to their homes in Kershaw, Rock Hill, Lancaster and intermediate points.

TEMPLE ASSOCIATION.

The Members Meet at the Buford for Business and Pleasure. The meeting of the Masonic Temple Association, the Buford Hotel last evening was for the purpose of discussing improvements to the present hall, and also to discuss the building of a new temple, as soon as funds are available. The location, of course, has not been selected.

After business, the members were wined and dined by Mine Hot Booles. The association is composed of Dr. J. H. McAden, Messrs. H. C. Eccles, J. Koesler, J. H. Van Ness, Wm. Anderson, M. C. Mayer, H. G. Springs, S. H. Hillon, G. H. King and T. R. Robertson. All are well, and the association is in excellent health. The association has $10,000 in hand and a temple, but will not begin to build until that amount is doubled.

Commencement Rates.

The Southern passenger department is busy at present with commencement rates. Not a few will be interested in the following: Davidson College tickets will be on sale June 5th to 11th, final limit 13th. Rate, 90c. Tickets for the commencement at the A. M. College on sale June 7th to 16th. Fare from Charlotte $5.90. Date of sale 5th to 8th of June. Trinity College: Tickets on sale June 6th to 10th. Limit, 11th. Rate, $5.25 round trip.

What's in a Name? Messrs. Eccles & Bryan are discussing the advisability of changing the name of the Buford to the Southern. They did not change the name at first because they wanted to prove that there was nothing in a name and that they could make a success even of the Buford. As the Buford is the Buford, they will strengthen its hold still further upon Southern tourists.

Dr. Carroll Invited. The Baptists of the city have extended an invitation to Rev. Dr. B. H. Carroll, of Texas, to preach in Tryon Street Church Sunday, the 8th inst. He is expected to arrive here on Monday morning. Dr. Carroll is one of the brainiest men in the Southern Baptist Church. Should he accept the invitation it may mean something to the Baptists of Charlotte.

Steady Boys. Mr. Edwin Gresham went to Mt. Airy, Ga., yesterday, where he will be steward in his father's hotel this summer.

Mr. Louis Ashby, son of Mr. S. J. Ashby, has been assigned to the O'Nevers' office force. He is a bright boy and gives promise of good work.

When to Buy Your Ticket. On account of the sixth annual reunion of the Confederate Veterans in Richmond June 20th to July 2nd the Southern will sell round trip tickets from Danville and all points in North Carolina north of Charlotte, June 20th and 29th, and from stations south and west of Charlotte 25th and 29th. All tickets limited to July 10th.

The Rain Interfered. The rain last night seriously interfered with the Gospel tent services. The meeting so far has progressed very well. Rev. J. Little, who is conducting the services, will preach at Olive Baptist church Sunday morning in place of the pastor, who is on a vacation. The first Presbyterian church.

Colored Events. Prof. C. S. L. A. Taylor goes to Washington, (N. C.) Sunday night to attend the grand lecture of God Samaritans, to which the Rev. Dr. B. H. Carroll will be invited. The colored Baptists—Ebenezer and First church—will run an excursion to Cleveland Springs on the 19th. Prof. Taylor will be in charge.

The Academy of the Sacred Heart. The closing exercises at the Academy of the Sacred Heart at Belmont, took place on the 15th inst. The opera, "The Tyrolene Queen" will be given on the 14th. The commencement at the Academy will be on the 15th. The sisters direct the affair most successfully.

Black and White. Those who visited the studio at the Seminary Tuesday saw some fine work in crayon. The drawings were made from casts, and were well executed. Miss Eleanor Long, the art teacher, not only does beautiful work herself, but she gets good work from her pupils.

Convicts On the Move. A car load of convicts, 65 in all, were shipped yesterday from the Carolina Central Southern Railway. They came from about Wadesboro and were going to Asheville to work on a railroad. Mr. J. C. Lashley and three other guards had them in charge.

It Will Continue to Shine. The Star of Zion has changed hands. J. W. Smith, D. D. is editor, and Prof. G. L. Blackwell business manager. The publication house, etc., will be in the Varich building on South College street.

Baseball. Mr. Cliff Sprinkle goes to Columbia to-day to pitch for Rock Hill against Columbia nine. On the 9th inst. he will get Gastonia a victory with his own right arm, in and against Shelby.

A Card. The faculty of the Seminary is distinguished by the omission by them of Miss Bettie Nash's name from the list of distinctions at the commencement. She is entitled to a high place in most of her classes. We deplore it the more because she is one of our graduates and must have keenly felt our apparent lack of appreciation. No student at the Buford Seminary is more beloved by both teachers and pupils and we all regret the occurrence.

Lily W. Long, Principal. Index to This Morning's Advertisements. Mellon & Shelton have stacks of clothing and other furnishings awaiting your inspection.

A. D. M. Osborne has a desirable brick house for rent. Misses W. H. Paper Co. can furnish you wall papers of all kinds. Seagle & Co. are closing out their entire stock and all bills due the firm must be paid at once.

Damon, of North Carolina; declaimer's medal, R. L. Derrick, of Arkansas. Following this Hon. C. B. Watson of Winston, in fraternal words, introduced Hon. C. M. Kishpaugh, of Harrisburg, Pa., who was here for the purpose of presenting the Harry Kishpaugh drill medal to the cadet most proficient in military tactics. This honor went to Corporal G. W. Face, of Virginia, who, the superintendent of the drill, declared by a fraction in a close contest in a class of fifteen. This medal was presented in memory of Mr. Kishpaugh's son, Harry Kishpaugh, who died in the war and who became so attached to the school that upon his death-bed he requested his father to present such a medal annually to the cadet whose address the father announced that, if living, he would be here again next year upon the same mission.

Diplomas were presented to the graduates of the commercial department by Superintendent Davis as follows: C. T. Woolen, J. A. Pugh, North Carolina; C. T. Smith, Kentucky; W. T. Fleming, C. Neale, Virginia; L. G. Barnard, Illinois.

The steamer Three Friends has landed a filibuster expedition in Cuba. She was chased by a Spanish cruiser and the vessels exchanged shots.

Wives don't have to mend good underwear. It isn't our low prices that we think will do it. It isn't our large stock. It isn't alone our excellent name. It's the actual quality of the goods. That's what makes you want to buy them.

Nothing but quality has any inducements for the lover of handsome furnishings. And every man who cares two cents for his personal appearance does love them. Just now the quality of our Summer Underwear is attracting the attention of every man and every man's wife.
