WHEAT MARKET.

Chicago, May 14.—Wheat market closed quiet and moderate trading.
At the opening the market was weak, and prices declined 3 to 6 points, in consequence of the fact that the spot cotton at Liverpool, with sales of 7,000 bales, and 1 1/2 to 2-1/2, in future, showed a decline of 10 points, and it soon subsided the market developed a moderate recovery, and all settled at about last night's prices. The market was quiet and moderate trading,

and prices declined 3 to 6 points, in
ture, showed a decline of 10 points,
and it soon subsided the market de-
