There can be no better medium of advertisement than through our columns, as our paper goes daily into the hands of its many readers, thus keeping them ever reminded of our advertising agents; and as the chief reason for constant advertising is to have the advertisements read as often as possible, the advantage of advertising in THE DAILY ARGUS is at once evident, as our patrons will have their advertisements read afresh every day. Rates furnished on application.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

CUMBERS are now the shipping commodity of the truckers in these parts.

THE ladies' bazaar, of St. Paul's congregation, is making life comfortable—and really enjoyable for its patrons during these sultry days.

A REAL live rattle snake, with seven rattles and a "button," was on exhibition in a box in front of the Hotel Gregory yesterday, and it drew a crowd. It came from Dover, and it "rattled" for all it was worth and looked mighty "vigorous."

THE Salem Literary Society, will discuss the subject, "Resolved that the World is Growing Better," at 3:30 o'clock, p. m., July 4th. This will be a public debate, to which everybody is invited. Turn out, and hear the boys.

THE "huckleberry" crop in Sampson county is a complete failure this year—and it a political year at that. The good Democrats of Sampson county would need to "hustle." All will be safe, however, if they will stand by Mr. C. B. Aycock in the Clinton nominating convention on the 23rd of July.

NEWS comes to us of the death, at his home in Greene county, of Mr. Mark Taylor, known as Little Mark, to distinguish him from the other Mark Taylor. He was a prosperous, thrifty farmer, a kind husband, father and neighbor and a most excellent man. Our sincerest sympathy is tendered to the bereaved family.

THE chairman of the county commissioners of the various counties through which the N. C. R. R. runs, will meet in Raleigh to-morrow to assess the road for taxation. A similar meeting will be held in Wilmington on the same day to assess the Carolina Central. Mr. W. F. Kornegay, chairman of the Board of County Commissioners of this county, will be in attendance at Raleigh.

TWO trains, one a special, the other the regular mail and passenger train, went down to Morehead yesterday afternoon, loaded with teachers, going to open the annual Assembly at Morehead City to-day. It promises to be the most largely attended session the assembly has had in its history, which speaks well for the interest the teachers of North Carolina are taking in the cause of education. May they have a prosperous and an enjoyable session.

WAYNE Lodge No. 112, A. F. & A. M., will have a public installation of officers of the Lodge and a Masonic address by Captain Swift Galloway, on Tuesday night, June 24, (St. John's day) in the Messenger Opera House in this city. All Masons in the city, their wives and children, their sisters, cousins and aunts, are fraternally invited to attend, and the public also are cordially invited. Those who wish to hear an eloquent and profound address on the sublime principles of masonry should not fail to hear the gifted Capt. Galloway. The hour for opening will be 8 o'clock.

THE genial, courteous and thoroughly progressive "Johnnie W." Nelson, of the Goldsboro Water Company, who superintended the construction of the plant here, from the survey to the finish, is off to Henderson, N. C., to take charge of the construction of a water works plant for that city. If he does as well by Henderson as he has done for Goldsboro, then Henderson will have, together with Goldsboro, what is conceded to be by all investigating experts, and what is in fact, one of the very best water works plants in the whole country. We are all sorry to see "Johnnie W." leave town. During the fifteen months that he has spent in Goldsboro few men have made a more favorable impression and gained more lasting friends. His measurement of men was not by dollars and cents, and his friendships were not of the "interested" kind. Many a kindly act of charity done to the needy, and without ostentation, will be remembered with blessings to his memory in Goldsboro. He takes with him the best wishes of his many friends here, who will always be glad to see him in our city.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mrs. Jno. T. Edmundson and children are visiting relatives in Sampson county.

Gen'l. W. G. Lewis returned yesterday from a trip to the State's lands in the East.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. T. Jones, of Asheville, are visiting the family of Mr. R. E. Jones, near this city.

Miss Alice Jones, who has been teaching the past session in the Mt. Olive High School, is at home for the vacation, much to the pleasure of her friends.

Prof. E. E. Britton, of the Mt. Olive High School, was in the city several hours yesterday between trains, en route for the Teachers' Assembly at Morehead.

Capt. Swift Galloway, who has been professionally engaged in Pitt county, on the criminal docket during the late term of court, returned home yesterday.

Mr. J. F. Perry, of the Wilmington Messenger, arrived in the city yesterday to take charge of that paper's news and collecting bureau at this point. We welcome him to Goldsboro with best wishes.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Craton returned home yesterday from their Northern bridal tour. Their hosts of friends are glad to welcome them home and wish that their days may be long and peaceful and prosperous.

Mr. Aaron Spier, who has been spending several weeks on a pleasure trip to the leading cities of the North, including Boston, has returned to his post of duty at the popular establishment of Messrs. H. Weil & Bros., looking better and happier for his vacation.

Mr. Will P. Campbell, the popular head clerk of the Atlantic Hotel, Morehead, was in the city yesterday to take charge of and room the great delegation of teachers en route, so as to avoid a rush on the office when they "got there." Will was equal to the emergency, as he is "one of the finest."

Listen.

The congregation of the Presbyterian Church are enjoying a season of grace. Rev. Alex Sprunt, of Henderson, is preaching a series of sermons of great force and earnestness, and will continue to do so until further notice. The people are praying and looking for a good blessing. Short synopses of his sermons have been given in several issues of this paper. This has been done as news of a great movement in our midst for the good of the people.

Members of other congregations and of no congregation have been worshipping with these people and all have received benefits.

These people desire the prayers and the presence of all denominations of Christians; and to all those who are out of Christ they promise to do you good if you attend their services, for they have God's promise that He will be with them. They recognize the potency of human agency—they feel that they are co-workers with God, and, therefore, avail themselves of the most potent human agency known for reaching the people, and appeal to you through the PRESS.

If you are in sympathy with the work and are in sympathy with their desires; if you are a Christian, and if you are not a Christian, they think that you cannot do better than to spend an hour or two a day with them in their worship. Services at 4:30 in the afternoon and at 8:15 at night. The public are cordially invited to attend.

Guests at Seven Springs.

The Seven Springs Hotel opened for the reception of visitors June 15. Guests registered that day were as follows:

Mr. H. Farrar and lady, Brooklyn, N. Y.
Messrs. Frank B. Bizzell and Willie Hollingsworth, Goldsboro, N. C.
Sheriff J. D. Sutton, A. Mitchell, W. A. Laroque, and S. S. Qinterly, Kinston, N. C.

Herbert W. Davis, Strabane, N. C.
Col. E. W. Kendall, Mrs. E. W. Kendall and Master Walter I. W. Kendall, Boston, Mass.
H. H. Epting, Philadelphia, Pa.

The Festival.

The music-loving people of North Carolina have every reason to congratulate themselves on the Music Festival which has just been held in the city.

It was a success in every way. The attendance from all parts of the State was large.

The report of the treasurer will show a surplus in the treasury after all expenses are paid.

The music was superb, winning the praise of artists and novices alike.

From the first note on the piano Friday evening to the grand "Hallelujah Chorus" on Saturday night, the Festival was great in every sense.

The success of the North Carolina Choral Union is assured from the start, and the annual North Carolina Music Festival is already a foregone conclusion.—Charlotte Chronicle.

Pikeville Letter.

PIKEVILLE, June 16, 1890.

Dear Argus:—Mrs. Sallie Dunn, of Eureka, is in the village on a visit to relatives.

The Pikeville Literary Society, will give a grand entertainment here on Friday night, July 4th. Instrumental music for the occasion will be furnished by Misses Della and Cora Perkins. Admission 15 cents, children under 12 years old 10 cents. The proceeds will be used to help purchase an organ for the Alliance hall.

At the last meeting of Pikeville Alliance, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, K. B. Smith; Secretary, E. T. Crawford; Treasurer, H. J. Vail; Lecturer, Dr. J. E. Person; Chaplain, Rev. B. E. Perkins; Steward, W. R. Perkins; Door-keeper, G. W. Jones; Assistant Door-keeper, J. E. Hoose; Business Agent, J. B. Howell, J. F. H.

The R. & D. Disaster.

ASHVILLE, N. C., June 15.—Mrs. John H. Scarborough, of Knoxville, Tenn., one of the passengers on the wrecked train on the Richmond & Danville railroad, near Marshall, yesterday, died from her injuries this afternoon at Glen Rock hotel, in this city. There were twenty-four persons on the train, eleven of whom were injured. All of the wounded were brought to this place last night about midnight on a special train, in charge of the Company's surgeons, and everything possible done for their comfort by the Railroad Company. Mr. Scarborough, the husband of the dead woman, was also on the train and received painful injuries in the back and shoulders. Mrs. J. C. VanBehovele, of Hickory, N. C., is the only other person seriously hurt. She suffered a concussion of the spinal column, with paralysis of the lower extremity and is in a very critical condition, with little hope of permanent recovery. The accident occurred immediately south of Hot Springs, and was caused by a defective brace on the rear truck of the tender. The Pullman car and a first-class car were thrown from the track and turned on the side. All of the passengers injured were in these coaches. The trains were delayed only a few hours and are now moving on schedule time.

Destructive Storm.

CINCINNATI, June 16.—The storm which did so much damage in this city yesterday appears to have extended over a wide area. Severe destruction of property is reported from Coveland, Hamilton, Milford and Batavia. Near the latter place the Ohio & Northwestern Railroad track was washed out and the bridge is gone. New Richmond and Ripley lost $10,000 each. At Falmouth, Ky., three boys fishing in a boat are missing and are doubtless drowned. Covington, Bellevue, Dayton and Newport, Ky., had eighteen houses unroofed and two persons hurt. Thousands of acres of wheat, just ready to reap, are laid flat; and the loss will be great. It is safe to say that the loss in Cincinnati and a radius of fifty miles amounts to $200,000.

The Silver Bill.

WASHINGTON, June 16.—It is said that there will be no vote on the silver bill or any of the pending amendments in the Senate to-day. Senator Jones, of Nevada, says that several Senators desire to speak yet, including Senator Allison and Wolcott, and that notwithstanding an agreement to stop the debate at 3 o'clock no one will be prevented from speaking who expresses a desire to do so. He thinks the final vote will not be reached for two or three days. Questioned as to the character of the bill the Senate would pass, Senator Jones answered that it seemed probable now that it would be a bill providing for free coinage. He said the effort to secure pledges of the majority of the Senate to vote against free coinage had been a failure, and the inevitable result he thought, would be the passage of a bill including that feature. A list of Republican Senators favorable to free coinage, as given by one of them, includes Messrs. Wolcott, Teller, Jones, Stewart, Plumb, Ingalls, Mitchell, Power, Saunders and Cameron.

Ward's Tonsorial Palace

Nothing succeeds like success: this has been the experience of A. D. Ward, the Barber, since he opened business in Goldsboro, until he is now able to announce to the public that he has got the best equipped and most satisfactory Tonsorial Palace in the State. All the popular Barbers of the city are now employed in his establishment, prompt and courteous, as follows:
R. N. BURTON,
JIM BATES,
OLIVER BADGER,
JOHN PRACE.

Continuing to thank the public for the generous patronage they have extended to me since I moved with my family to Goldsboro and purchased a home here, and assuring them that I shall continue to exercise my best efforts for their continued comfort and satisfaction in my line I remain Very respectfully,
A. D. WARD,
