THE DAILY ARGUS.

GOLDSBORO, N. C., JUNE, 19 1890

TWO VISIONS AT SEA.

THEODORE WATTS. THE BOY'S VISION—A STARRY NIGHT. If heaven's bright halls are very far from me I dream a pang the angels could not 'scape; The imprisoned sea-bird knows, and only he, How drear, how dark, may be the prospect o'er; Outside the bars he sees a prison still— The self-same wood or meadow or silver stream. That lends the captive lark a joyous thrill Is landscape in the sea-bird's prison dream. So might I pine on yonder starry floor For sea-wind, deaf to all the slugging spheres; Billows like those that never knew a shore Might mock mine eyes and tease my hungry ears— No scent of amaranths o'er you glittering vault Might quell this breath of ocean sharp and salt!

THE MAN'S VISION—A TROPIC CALM. I hear the blackbirds chirping in the grove, And now I see, I smell, the equatorial— The meadow sweet, where rivulets laugh and slip To English clouds that laugh and shine above! I feel a strain of maiden-music move, Pouring through all my body a life divine From this fond throbbing bosom clasp to mine— From this dear harp, her heart, whose chords are love!

FRESH FUN.

The Sharp and Witty Sayings of the Press Men "I beg your pardon," he said, as a woman came to the door in answer to his knock. "I am looking for a man with a hare lip and a wooden leg named Johnson—" "Is it his wooden leg that is named Johnson, or are his hare lip and wooden leg both named Johnson?" she demanded. "I didn't mean, of course, that his wooden leg was named Johnson, I—" "Then what did you say so for?" "Permit me to explain, madam, I was only—" "I haven't asked you for any explanation, have I?" "Certainly not. My object in trying to find out—" "Have I asked you to state why you are trying to find out anything?" "Of course not, madam, but being a stranger in the neighborhood—" "Do you mean that I am a stranger?" "No, certainly not. I—I—good morning, madam."

He paused a moment when safely outside the front gate to mop the perspiration from his face, and then started down the street. "If ever I tackle a red-headed woman for information again," he said to himself, "may I be essentially dog-goned!"—Chicago Tribune.

"There is one solace left me at least," remarked the old farmer. "After all my boys leave and go up to the city, after the pigs and the cattle die, and every thing else forsakes me, there is at least one thing that will stick to the old farm." "And that is—" "The mortgage."—Lawrence American.

Kajones—To-day is my thirtieth wedding anniversary. Keramith—Wife still living? "Yes." "Lived with you all that time?" "Certainly." (Admiringly)—"What nerve that woman must have!"—Chicago Tribune.

Farmer (to new hand)—Hans, you may give the roan critter a jago' feel. Hans—Yot! "I thought you said you could understand English?" "I can English a little understand." (endeavoring to Germanize it)—"Well, throw the horse over the fence some hay."

Polite clerk (showing goods)—Here is something I would like to call your attention to, lady. It's the very latest thing out. Mrs. Rounder (absently)—If there's anything out later than my husband I'll take it, if only for a curiosity.—Life.

Mr. Wabash—You seem to value your butler very highly? Mrs. VanKnickerbocker—Yes; I never saw his equal at handling a tray. Mr. Wabash (sadly)—I saw a man hold four trays once.—New York Sun.

Second nature—"This room is very close," remarked the guest to the head-waiter, "can't I have a little fresh air?" The well drilled automaton raised his voice to a high pitch. "One air!" he yelled, after a pause adding, "Let it be fresh."

Anxious Tailor—By the way, Senator, how about that little bill of mine? Solemn Statesman—In splendid shape, my dear sir; I will pass it to a third reading next week.—Jury.

"I do not like the way you speak of this paper," said the editor. "Why do you persist in calling it a sheet?" "Because so many people sleep over it."—Munsey's Weekly.

CATARH CAN'T BE CURED with LOCAL APPLICATION, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Catarrh is a blood or constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you have to take internal remedies. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, and acts directly on the blood and mucous surface. Hall's Catarrh Cure is no quick medicine. It was prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for years, and is a regular prescription. It is composed of the best tonics known, combined with the best blood purifiers, acting directly on the mucous surface. The perfect combination of the two ingredients is what produces such wonderful results in curing catarrh. Send for testimonials, free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio. Sold by Druggists, 75 cents.

Advice to Mothers. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best new remedy for diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

Lemon Hot Drops. For coughs and colds, take Lemon Hot Drops. For sore throat and bronchitis, take Lemon Hot Drops. For pneumonia and laryngitis, take Lemon Hot Drops. For consumption and catarrh, take Lemon Hot Drops. For all throat and lung diseases, take Lemon Hot Drops. An elegant and reliable preparation. Sold by druggists. 25 cents per bottle. Prepared by H. Mosley, M. D., Atlanta, Ga.
