THE DAILY ARGUS.

GOLDSBORO, N. C., OCT. 30, 1890

NEWS AND COMMENT.

Numerous Events and Happenings Clipped From Various Sources.

There's a cry from Nebraska to Quay: "Call off the butchers until we get the sheep penned." Quay is busy just now, and is using too much manufacturers money to save his man Delamater to afford the luxury of lecturing his tat coutributors. His reply in effect will be: "Attend to your own calling."-Kansas

Poor Mr. Porter, Superintendent of the Census, is having a hard time all Bran.... along the line. He does not find any better treatment or any greater honor in the strongholds of his own party than in the most Democratic cities in the land, and the opinion is universal that he is the champion incompetent of his time. - Detroit Free Press.

The effect of the McKinley Tariff bill is to make things dearer, That was denied at first by Republican papers and speakers, but the fact was indisputable as soon as the bill became a law. Circumstances alter cases, and now it is not only admitted that the new tariff makes things dearer instead of cheaper, but it is claimed as the supreme merit of the bill.-Cleveladd Plain-Desler.

The serious charge has been made against General Dewis, the Republican Postmaster of Atlanta, that he recently cast a ballot in a Democratic caucus. The General has pleaded guilty to the charge, averring that he "simply wished to help a friend," and now it only remains for Brother Wanamaker to determine whether he shall pray for the erring General or turn him out of the office.--Oswego Palladium.

Two years ago every Republican proshouting: "The tariff is a question of ROYSTER'S wages only. The Republic wages only. The Republican party is in favor of a high tariff for high wages. Now that they have their high tariff they assert "wages are merely a ques tion of supply and demand. The tariff wages." The men who were humbugwages." The men who were humbugged once by the Republican party will not be humbugged again .- Albany Ar-

Speaker Reed's compaign speeches fairly bristle with truculent military epithets. He speaks of guns and bayonets in his daily denunciation of a helpless Democratic minority in Congress as if he were familiar with those implements of warfare and eager for their use. One would scarcely think that this is the same Reed who got a navy paymastership through the influence of James G. Blaine in order to escape the dangers of military service and the cost of providing a substitute.-Philadelphia Record.

But if one wishes to measure the gulf which stretches between the Republican st tesmen of to-day-Heaven save the mark! - and the staunch old patriots of a century ago, let him consider the fact that a President of the United States can say to the people, in support of the theory that the rich may plunder the poor, that "a cheap coat means a cheap man." Shad of William Henry Harrison! The homespun clothes of Sam Adams, the old fur cap of John Randolph, the linsey woolsey of what patriot may one name, belie then the record of great thoughts and haroic deeds. If so, let history be rewritten and a new estimate of the past be set down in the light of Harrisonian philosophy.-Chicago Times.
