THE METHODISTS.

Fourth Day's Proceedings of the Fifty-Fourth Conference.

WILSON, N. C., Dec: I3 .- The conference convened at 9:30 o'clock this morning, Bishop Keener in the chair, with religious services conducted by Rev. J. A. Cunninggim. The minutes of yesterday were read.

The Bishop remarked that he hoped we were ready to move out into the deepest water and be as brief as possible. He then called question twenty—Are all the preachers biameless in their official life and character? The Raleigh district was called, and the following made their reports as to membership and the net increase and the amount of money raised during the year, for all church purposes and their character passed. Revs. J. H. Cordon, L. L. Nash, and Dr. J. B. Bobbitt, who passed on notion of Dr. W. S. Black, his Presiding Elder, who said that his health was bad and moved that his case be referred to the committe on Conference Relations for a supernumerary relation. (This relation in the Methodist Church means that a member of the conference taking this relation still holds his membership in the conference, but he has no claim on the Church for support.) Revs. E. L.

Hurley, W. L. Coninggim, J. H. Hall, F. A. Bishop, E. Pope, J. W. Privett, F. L. Ried, W. S. Black. The Bishop permitted Dr. R. O. Dr. Yates said if he were called apon to characterize his death he would say it was a peaceful death, glorious and triumphant. "Let me die the death of the righteous and let my last end be like his."
