THE DAILY ARGUS.
 GOLDSBORO, N. C. DEC. 24, 1890

A MESSAGE.
 BY LOLA MARSHALL DEAN.
 How little the left hand knoweth
 The deeds that are done by the right
 How little the night time knoweth
 His sorrowful shades to the light
 How few of the hearts that are broken Betray to the breaker their grief!
 How many heart words that are spoken
 Are the crushed soul's only relief!

FRESH FUN.
 The Sharp and Witty Sayings of the Press Men.
 Judging from its name the new cruiser Chicago ought to outfoot any vessel in the navy.—Boston Bulletin.
 Fond Mother (proudly). "Yes, Johnnie won the reading prize in school. Come here, Johnnie, and tell Mr. Brown how you won the prize." Johnnie. "Oh, I took it hands down. Billy Waffles got it for readin' good, but I plays marbles for it an' won it."—Harper's Bazar.

Young Man (to office boy).
 "Give that humorous article to the editor, please, and ask him if he can read it right away." Office Boy (returned with humorous article) "De boss returns the article with thanks. He says he's all upset with the mumps and prob'ly won't be able to read anything funny for a week."—Harper's Bazaar.

"I trust, Robert, when you grow up you will show yourself on the side of temperance and morality by voting the Prohibition ticket."
 "Oh, rat! Why, aun', water's killed more folks'n liquor ever thought of doing."
 "I am ashamed of you, Robert.
 Can you think of one instance in which water judiciously applied has caused death?"
 "Well, what's the matter with the flood!"

New York Boodle Alderman (at railroad depot, disguised as a fat woman). "Here, sir, don't keep a lady waiting! I want a first-class ticket for Montreal." Former Constituent (in ticket office). "Hello, Alderman, is there going to be another trial?" Disguised Alderman. "Heavens, Mike, how did you recognize me in Widow Kelly's clothes?" Ticket-seller. "Why, you have your shawl fastened with the diamond pin that the boys gave you for getting them out the pipes last fall. Better leave it with me or you'll be caught, sure."—Jewellers' Weekly.

Husband. "My dear, we will have to begin to economize right off." Wife. "Dear me! What has happened?"
 Husband. "Cigars have gone up."—New York Weekly.

"If you haven't brought home a canary bird! You're the most extravagant person, John Smith—" "But, my dear, I bought this for a song."—Boston Post.

A Philosopher.—Mamma. "If you eat any more of that pudding, Tommy, you'll see the bogie man to-night." Tommy (after a moment's thought). "Well, give me some more. I might as well settle my mind about that story right away."
 —Puck.

Mr. Fellows (of Chicago). "How came the Judge to grant your divorce before the petition was read to him to-day?" Mr. Bellows. "He had once been married to the woman himself."— Eyeooh.

CATARACT CAN'T BE CURED with LOCAL APPLICATION, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Catarrh is a blood or constitutional disease, and in order to cure it, you have to take internal remedies.
 Hall's Starb' Cure is taken internally, and acts directly on the blood and in our surface.
 Hall's Starb' Cure is no quick medicine. It was prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for years, and is a regular prescription. It is composed of the best tonic now known, combined with the best blood purifiers, acting directly on the mucous surface. The perfect combination of the two ingredients is what produces such wonderful results in curing catarrh. Send for testimonials, free.
 F. J. CHERRY & CO., Toledo, O.—Sold by Druggists, 25 cents.

Advice to Mothers.
 Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth.
 It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep, by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, loosens the bowels, and soothes every inconvenience, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

CASTORIA

for Infants and Children.
 "Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me." H. A. ANCKER, M. D., 111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.
 "The use of 'Castoria' is so universal and its merits so well known that it seems a work of supererogation to endorse it. Few are the intelligent families who do not keep Castoria within easy reach."
 CARLOS MARVET, D. D.,
 New York City.
 Late Pastor Bloomingdale Reformed Church.
 "Castoria cures Colic, Constipation, Sour Stomach, Diarrhoea, Eructation, Kills Worms, gives sleep, and promotes digestion,
 Without injurious medication."
 "For several years I have recommended your 'Castoria,' and shall always continue to do so as it has invariably produced beneficial results."
