the lines of raillery and synicism to lessons of life, morality and hope."

The newsiest, brightest, wittiest, wisest, cleverest, most original, and most entertaining paper ever published.

A complete and perfect journal for cultivated men and women, being a topical and outspoken critic and chronicle of the events, doings, interests, and tastes of the fashionable world. It is always up to date, and carries with it the atmosphere of the metropolis.

In purity and power of literary style it has no equal on this continent.

A veritable symposium of well-bred satire;

no equal on this continent.

A veritable symposium of well-bred satire; definess and daintiness of touch; strength, independence and originality of thought; refined humor; caustic comment; piquancy of jest; short stories; musical, dramatic, literary and art criticism, and topical sketches.

The fame of its Financial Department, as the most reliable authority on financial subjects, investments and speculation, is world-wide. Its interest is by no means local; being the recognized journal of American society, it is equally entertaining in all parts of the country. ognized journal of American society, it is equally entertaining in all parts of the country. GOLDSBORO, N. C., JAN. 24, 1891

"FAITHFUL."

"Friendship has failed us, old trust has gone.
Love that was drawning is dead;
Life and its sunshine are clouded o'er,
Aye. for the past has fied.
You will forge', and our story will seem
The dream of a summer day,
Bu' I shall remember its golden light
When years shall have passed away.
I though you loved the cace,
I deemed the story true;
The dream has gone,
The love has flown,
But still I am faithful to you!

'But where the world has sung you of sorrow, Hiding its golden beam.
Then, love. I pray that you may remember Just once again our dream!
And when the angels guide you to heaven.
O'er the dividing sea.
Look on the shore and give me that welcome, 'I know you are faithful to me!"
I thought you loved me once, I deemed the story true;
When shadows fall,
And love is all,
You'll know I was faithful to you!"

FRESH FUN.

The Sharp and Witty Sayings or th

'What was it you wanted ?' asked Officer Button at the Third street depot of a man who happened to be looking for somebody or some-

'I-I came in on the train from the east, half an hour ago.'

'Are the passengers all gone ?'

'I was in hopes not. I wanted to find a young man who rode from

St. Thomas with me.' 'Anything wrong ?'

Oh, no. Something a little singular. I have unintentionally done him an injustice.'

'I see.'

He asked me to give him two fives for a ten, and come to look closer at the bill I see it is a twenty. He has robbed himself of $10.

'Exactly. Let me see the bill.' 'Certainly.'

'Yes, it is singular,' said the officer as he returned it, 'It is singular you did not know the bill ', Lad saw

'Mercy! but is it?'

'Of course. That bill wouldn't fool a newsboy.'

'Dear, dear me! And he talked so plausible, and he was so interested in me, and he so hated to bother me for change ! Is it possible be knew it was bad ?' 'Of course he did.'

'Dear, dear me! And he was on his way to California in hopes to stay his consumption! Why didn't he ask me for two tens for this twenty ?'

Probably thought he had hit your pile at ten.'

'You don't say! Well, I now remember saying I had only $10 left. Is it possible! And he so young, and one lung already gone !'-Detroit Free Press.

Jack. 'There is an article on kissing in this paper. I should like to read it to you.' Amy. 'Is it published with illustrations ?'

Jack. 'No, but if you'll allow me I'll supply the deficiency.' -New York Herald.

* * 'Haven't you any umbrella.'

'No; I loaned one to Jones last week.'

have kept it.'

'He didn't keep it; he returned it to the man I borrowed it from.' -Washington Post.

'Don't you wish we could have an old-fashioned winter again? asked the idiotic young man.

'Really, Mr. Binkus,' answered the malden of uncertain years, why should you presume that I know anything of old-fashioned winters ?'—Indianapolis Journal.

Scientific Note. How wonderfully are the inventions of man anticipated in the animal kingdom! The cuttle-fish has the power of covering itself with a sudden effuson of inky fluid-and what more can man do with the most ingenjous fountain-pen .- Puck.

OATABLE CAN'T BE CURED

with LCCAL APPLICATION, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Catarrh is a blood or constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you have to take it ternal remedies. Hail's "atarrh Cure is taken internally, and acts disectly on the blood and mucus surface. Hail's catarrh Cure is no quick medicine. It was prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for years, and is a regular prociption. It is compost of the best thick nown, combined with the best blood purifiers, eting directly on the mucus surface. The perfect combination of the two ingredients is what produces such won-lerful results in ouring catarrh. Send for testimonials, free.

Advice to Mothers

wilders. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should al-ways be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it pro-duces astural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub swake; as "bright as a button." It is v-ry pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the guma, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best go wn reusedy for diar-rhoss, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle.
