THE JOURNAL OF SOCIETY.
E. D. MANN, Proprietor.
PUBLISHED (NEW YORK) EVERY THURSDAY.

"Between the lines of valiant and cynical to read great lessons of life, morality and hope."

The neatest, brightest, wittiest, wisest, cleverest, most original, and most entertaining paper ever published.

A complete and perfect journal for cultivated men and women, being a topical and outspoken critic and chronicler of the events, doings, interests and tastes of the fashionable world. It is always up to date, and carries with it the atmosphere of the metropolis.

In purity and power of literary style it has no equal on this continent.

A veritable symposium of well-bred satire; deftness and originality of thought; refined humor; caustic comment; pungency of jest; short stories; musical, dramatic, literary and art criticisms, and topical sketches.

The fame of its Financial Department, as the most reliable authority on financial subjects, investments and speculation, is world-wide.

Its interest is by no means local; being the recognized journal of American society, it is equally entertaining in all parts of the country.

HE GIVETH HIS BELOVED SLEEP.

ELIZABETH BARRETT BROWNING.

Of all the thoughts of God 'hat are
Born inward unto souls afar,
Along the Psalmist's music deep,
Now tell me if that any is
For gift or grace surpassing this—
"He giveth His beloved sleep!"

What would we give to our beloved?
The hero's heart, to be unmoved.
The poet's star turned harp to sweep,
The patriot's voice to teach and rouse,
The monarch's crown to light the brow?
He giveth His beloved sleep.

What do we give to our beloved?
A little faith all undisproved,
A little dust to overweep,
And better memories to make
The whole earth blessed for our sake,
He giveth His beloved sleep.

Ay, men may wonder while they scan
A living, thinking, feeling man,
Confirmed in such a rest to keep;
But angels say, and through the word
I think their happy smile is heard—
"He giveth His beloved sleep."

For me, my heart that erst did go
Most like a tired child at a show,
That sees through tears the nummers leap—
Would now its wearied vision close,
Would childlike on His love repose,
Who giveth His beloved sleep.

FRESH FUN.

The Sharp and Witty Sayings of the Press Men.

Daughter—"I believe I was born to marry a nobleman."
Father—"Yes; but, daughter, try to look on the bright side of life—perhaps you'll die."

Patron (looking over bill of fare)—"Well, I don't care for beef, mutton, pork, veal, or any of these things to-day. Haven't you any game?"
"Yes, sah, clams."

Sunday-school Teacher—"Love thy neighbor as thyself." Who is 'thy neighbor?"
Little Girl—"Pleaae, ma'am, the folks as borrows from us."

The following written definition of the word "bachelor" was handed in by a fifth-grade boy:
"A bachelor is a man who has no wife, nor wants no wife, nor can't get no wife."

A wit was asked by Peg Woffington what difference there was between her and her watch, to which he instantly replied: "Your watch, madam, makes us remember the hour, and you makes us forget them."

"I never jump at conclusions," said the parson.
"No," said the elderly member of his congregation, who takes liberties, "I have noticed that from your sermons. You reach a conclusion very slowly."

Mr. Slimpurse (after a refusal)—"I know what the matter is. It's because I am poor. You would marry me if I were rich."
Miss Gailie (thoughtfully)—"Perhaps so, but you would have to be very, very rich."

"I am at a complete loss," remarked the editor, "to account for the fire which recently broke out in this office."
"May it not have been," timidly suggested his youthful assistant, "from some burning thought accidentally dropped into the waste-basket?"

A young lady who prided herself on her geography, seeing a candle aslant, remarked that it reminded her of the "Leaning Tower of Pisa."
"Yes," responded a wag, "with this difference: that is a tower in Italy, while this is a tower in grease."

"Rhymer is a wonderful poet. He seems a brother to the muses."
"Yes; he has wooed them all, and they have apparently agreed to be sisters to him."

The crow does not fly from the cornfield without caws.

CATARH CAN'T BE CURED

with LOCAL APPLICATION, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Catarrh is a blood or constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you have to take internal remedies. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, and acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Cure is no quick medicine. It was prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for years, and is a regular prescription. It is composed of the best tonics known, combined with the best blood purifiers, acting directly on the mucous surface. The perfect combination of the two ingredients is what produces such wonderful results in curing catarrh. Send for testimonials, free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio. Sold by Druggists, 10 cents.

Advice to Mothers.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, loosens the bowels, regulates the stomach, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle.
