There can be no better medium of advertising than through our columns, as our paper goes daily into the hands of its many readers, thus keeping them ever reminded of our advertising merchants; and as the chief reason for constant advertising is to have the advertisements read as often as possible; the advantage of advertising in THE DAILY ARGUS is at once evident, as our patrons will have their advertisements read afresh every day. NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.
Rheumatism cured by Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

PROF. Hugh Miller has returned to his duties at the University.

THERE was only one case before the Mayor's court yesterday morning.

MR. FRANK MILLER is at home from Trinity College taking in the Newbern Fair.

MISS ESTHER JERMAN, of Raleigh, is in the city, visiting the family of Mr. W. H. Borden.

It is said that this will be one of the lightest month's work in police circles of any in a long time.

THE sewer from Pine to John streets has been completed, and is a nice improvement for that part of the city.

YESTERDAY was verily Goldsboro's day at the Newbern Fair, for hundreds of our best citizens went down on the morning fair train.

THE piece of land recently purchased by the city to be annexed to the cemetery will soon be fenced up and will place the cemetery in much better shape.

Mrs. H. P. Dortch, accompanied by Miss Lizzie, left yesterday for Raleigh, in consequence of a summons announcing the illness of Mrs. Sasser, Mrs. Dortch's mother.

REV. J. H. EDWARDS, of South Carolina, now the new pastor of the Baptist Church in this city, arrived with his family yesterday afternoon. We extend him a cordial welcome to our city.

It looks so natural to see the genial countenance of Capt. Albert Powell, who is running the Fair train this week. He is very popular in Goldsboro for he has a kind word for every one.

WE notice that our city authorities are having some of the old, useless wells on the streets filled up. We are glad to see this for it makes the streets look so much better, and saves expense.

THE vacant lot at the right entrance to the cemetery gate and the square around the ornamental fountain is to be sown in blue grass and beautified. We will then have a beautiful cemetery.

MR. WILLE POWELL, who for some time past has acceptably filled the position of assistant freight agent on the A. & N. C. R. R. at Newbern, has resigned his position and taken the position of transfer clerk for the Atlantic Coast Line in this city.

It is said by those that have been there that the Newbern Fair far exceeds their most sanguine expectations. They went to see something grand and saw it. The attendance is simply immense—all the passenger trains, "regular" and "special," that have left here for Newbern this week have been heavily loaded with human freight for the Fair. Coming as it does, in this season of the year, the Fair possesses a novel attraction that others do not, but, aside from the novelty, the exhibits are such as to merit the large patronage given it by the public, and consist of fish, oysters, game, art, and domestic articles. The racing is said to be fine.

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY. SENATE.

RALEIGH, Feb. 24.—The following bills and resolutions were introduced: To incorporate the Parish Warehouse bank at Durham; To pay the expenses of the Supreme and Superior Court judges; For the relief of the Sheriff of Washington county; To permit the Commissioners of New Hanover to exempt certain persons from jury duty; To pay the engineer of the Capitol and Supreme Court building $50 extra; To increase the duties of judges and solicitors; To amend the section of the code relative to jurisdiction of justices of the peace.

The bill to include Brunswick county in the stock law, except Black Mountain township, passed its third reading.

The bill to incorporate the Winston Trust Company passed its third reading.

The bill to amend the Homestead law, etc., was taken up. An amendment that the homestead shall not be waived unless the wife signs, was adopted.

A wide discussion ensued and the bill was recommitted.

The bill to prevent discrimination in pensioning Confederate soldiers was lost.

The bill to encourage residents of North Carolina to search for phosphate, etc., in the navigable streams, passed its third reading.

The bill to authorize Durham to issue school bonds passed its third reading.

The bill to protect deer passed its third reading.

The bill to authorize the city of Wilmington to have sewers, etc., passed its third reading.

The bill relating to public schools in Shelby, and to provide for the same by taxation, passed its third reading.

The bill to incorporate the American Home Mineral Land company passed its third reading.

The bill to incorporate the Belt Railroad Company, in or near Durham, passed its third reading.

The bill to amend the charter of the Statesville Air Line company passed its third reading.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Bills were introduced as follows: Mr. Hall of Orange, To amend the Code in regard to the road law; Mr. Mann, To allow the treasurer of Tyrrell to pay Hyde county certain school funds; Mr. Phillips, To levy a tax in the stock law territory in Nash; Mr. Coffield, To prevent felling trees in Roanoke river; Mr. Pickett, To incorporate Moran Academy; Mr. Alexander, To drain low lands in Tyrrell county; Mr. Stroud, To incorporate the King's Mountain Mining company and the Southern Manganese Mining company; Mr. Davis, To prevent the sale of tobacco, cigars, etc., on Sunday; Mr. Brooke, To amend the charter of Rocky Mount; Mr. Long of Warren, To remove the colored normal school from Franklinton to Warrenton; To improve the stock of horses; For the safety of people traveling in vehicles; Mr. Chears, To give Union county the alternative road law; Mr. Brinson, To amend the charter of Bayboro; Mr. McGill, to amend the school law and in regard to taxation for school purposes; Mr. Morton, To exempt from jury duty foremen in manufacturing plants; Mr. Hileman, To protect cheats from fraudulent practices; Mr. Sutton, To prevent the spread of hog cholera; Mr. Long of Columbus, Asking that Congress order a canal to be built from Brunswick river to Calabash.

The House decided to hold the election of railway commissioners at noon March 5th.

The Revenue bill was taken up as a special order. The House went into committee of the Whole on the Revenue bill, Mr. Sutton in the chair.

Mr. Morton offered a substitute for the section which imposes a tax of 1-10 of 1 per cent. in the total amount of purchases. He proposed a specific tax of $15 on wholesale merchants or manufacturers, and on retail merchants of $2 on over $1,000 and $1 on less than $1,000.

On this there was a long debate, but the substitute was lost, though Mr. Morton spoke very ably in its favor.

The substitute was offered out of order and on Mr. Grosvenor's objection, was ruled out.

Mr. Oats's amendment was lost. Mr. Caswell's amendment was adopted.

The previous question was then ordered on the bill.

Mr. Oats moved to recommit—Lost.

The bill was then passed.

Mr. Boutelle presented the conference report on the Naval Appropriation bill and it was agreed to.

The disagreeing conference report on the District of Columbia Appropriation bill was agreed to and a further conference was ordered.

Remarkable Rescue.

HAZLETON, Pa., Feb. 24.—Four men were rescued alive from the Jeannville mine last night—instead of five as then stated. They are Hungarians. Twenty-three men were in the mine when the water broke in; six escaped and seventeen were caught by the waters. Thirteen bodies have been taken out. They were in the mine nineteen days and nineteen hours, and owe their lives to the fact that the portion of the mine in which they took refuge was "cushioned" by fresh air by the pressure of the water, which rose in the slope 624 feet in five minutes. They supported life on the contents of their dinner pails and oil in lamps and bottles, and when these were gone, upon water in the mine which was horribly foul with sulphur. The terrible tale of their nineteen days suffering will hardly be told for several days, for with the most favorable improvements hoped for none of the men will be strong enough to tell.

Much comment is heard as to the future movements of the rescued men should they be returned to health and strength. Already parties are eager to secure them and exhibit them from place to place and have relate the sufferings of that awful time.

Supt. McFarland was the happiest man of many happy men at Jeannville to-day. To him is due the credit for prosecuting so vigorously the work of employing the mine, reclaiming the bodies and rescuing the four men last night.

Blackburn Opposes Cleveland.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Feb. 23.—The Times to-day publishes a letter from Senator Blackburn to Col. John C. Noble, of Paducah, Ky., under date of Washington, Feb. 14, in which the Senator says:

"In the light of the publication of Mr. Cleveland's letter antagonizing his party upon the silver question I do not believe as to his lack of availability. I have no personal objection to Mr. Cleveland in the world, but I don't believe that any man can be elected president in 1892, who is opposed to free silver coinage. The people have been trifled with long enough on this subject.

The truth is, that for 25 years past New York has never furnished a Democratic leader who has not been in thorough accord with Wall Street, and at variances with the masses of the people. This was as true of Mr. Tilden of former years, as there is no Democratic member in the Senate who would favor his nomination for the Presidency, or who believes that it would be possible to elect him in 1892, if nominated.

No organization is effected or attempted here hostile to him, but there is now but one opinion. It is to-day true to Mr. Cleveland. I have longed to see the day when the Democrats might elect a President of this country without paying tribute that New York always levied. I have no favorable candidate, but only insist that he shall be a fair, and honest representative of Democratic sentiment.

His Leg Amputated.

John Faison, a colored hand at the R. & D. depot, several weeks ago in lifting a heavy weight ruptured the popliteal artery in his leg, and it was found necessary yesterday to amputate his limb just below the knee. Faison said he felt the artery when it popped. An aneurism soon formed, and was the cause of the leg having to be amputated.—Charlotte Chronicle.

The Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company after an unprecedented record of 45 years, is still to the front, with the lowest rate of per cent. expenses of management of any company doing business. Consequently it affords larger dividends to policy holders. Policies absolutely non-forfeitable after two annual premiums. Pays greatest cash surrender for policies, also the largest paid up insurance. Company purely mutual—surplus annually divided among the policy holders, not the stockholders.
