NIGHT ON THE MISSISSIPPI

CHARLES T. DASEY.

A liquid plain the mighty river lies,
Twist shadowy banks uprising sheer and steep,
Another heaven, in whose azure deep
The glassed stars shine as in their native skies.

Nor ripples kiss the sedge; the tall flags rise Unveiled by waves. You white sails scarcely creep.
It is a dream or doth the great flood sleep
In perfect rest, lulled by the wind's low sigh!

Father of waters, roiling to the sea
In such majestic silence, not in vain.
Let me behold thee! Teach, oh, teach to me,
And all who strive in weariness and pain,

To guide our lives that they may follow,
like thee,
Serene and strong to the eternal main.

FRESH FUN.

The Sharp and Witty Sayings of the Press Men.

Will—She's simply beautiful.

Bill—Who is!

Will—My sweetheart.

Bill—And you might add, beautifully simple.—Yankee Blade.

The kind-hearted policeman who returns the lost child is the heir restorer ever known.—New York Herald.

"Why do you call these cigars Flora Debutante?"

"Because they cost like the mischief and are all the time going out," said pater familias.—New York Sun.

He—I don't think you exactly take me' Miss Ethel.

She—I don't think I do, either.

You see, I'm already engaged.—New York Herald.

Mabel—Haven't I told you a hundred times not to kiss me!

Jaques—Yes, I suppose you have.

Mabel—Well, if you know how hard it was for me to say it you wouldn't make me do it.—Boston Courier.

Mr. Guzzleton—You seem to be much moved by the performance.

Mrs. Guzzleton—Not as much as you were. You moved out at the end of every act.—Judge.

He—Will you go with me to the Lyceum to-night?

She—I am awful sorry, but I went there last night with a theatre party.

He—Oh, I want you to go with me to listen to the play.—Munsey's Weekly.

Land sakes! gasped Aunt Smanthy, as she gazed upon the various Venuses in the art museum, "I've heard a good deal about revisin' the statues, an' I reckon here's some that needs it mighty bad!"—[Binghamton Republican.

Bride—I'm so afraid people will find out that we are just married that I've made Willie promise to treat me in public just as though he had no thought for any one but himself.

Matron—I adopted that plan when I was married and my husband never got over it.—New York Weekly.

Tom—I have a contribution here that I am confident the "Cycle Magazine" will not refuse to accept.

Jack (incredulously)—What is it?

Tom—A five dollar bill for a year's subscription to the magazine.—Yankee Blade.

He—I hear you attend the Oratorio Society's performances. Were you present at the "Creation?"

She (indignantly)—I suppose you will next want to know if I sailed in Noah's ark.—Illustrated American.

CATARH CAN'T BE CURED

with LOCAL APPLICATION, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Catarrh is a blood or constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you have to take internal remedies. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, and acts directly on the blood and mucous surface. Hall's Catarrh Cure is no quick medicine. It was prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for years, and is a regular prescription. It is composed of the best ingredients, combined with the best blood purifiers, acting directly on the mucous surface. The perfect combination of the two ingredients is what produces such wonderful results in curing catarrh. Send for testimonials, free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio. Sold by Druggists, 75 cents.

Advice to Mothers.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes bright as a button. It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle.
