THE DAILY ARGUS.

GOLDSBORO, N. C., MARCH 28, 1891

TO MY SWEETHEART.—ETAT '02

BY THOMAS LONGSTREET WOOD.

When wintry weather brings the snows
That all the gentle flowers entomb,
We know they are not chilled to death,
But only warmed for brighter bloom.

And so, old friend, though age may sift
Upon thy head its silvery snows,
It cannot blight within thy breast
The love that there so warmly glows.

There are some hearts no snows can freeze,
No wintry weather chill;
And so thy evening womanhood
But blooms to nobler beauty still.

FRESH FUN.

The Sharp and Witty Sayings of the Press Men

A passenger on the steamer offered one of the sailors a glass of whisky, which the honest tar declined, saying: "No, thank'ee, sir, I never drink whisky, besides it's too early yet; and thirdly, I've had three glasses already."—Humoristisches.

"I say, doctor," said the nervous patient; "could you arrange it to send your bills every two months instead of monthly?" "Why certainly; what for?" "Why, I thought that perhaps I might in that way skip a relapse or two."—Washington Post.

Financier.—Mr. Jason—"I have half a notion to sell that corner house. I can't make it bring more than six per cent to save me." Mrs. Jason—"Why don't you cut the price of it down one-half? Then it would bring in twelve per cent."—Minneapolis Journal.

Every one admires a man of push, but nobody wants to be the person pushed aside by the man.—St. Joseph News.

Teacher—"Freddy, how is the earth divided?" Freddy—"Between them that's got it and them that wants it."—Exchange.

There wouldn't be so many tired people in the world if men would stop climbing hills before they get to them.—Ram's Horn.

When trying to catch the ear of a Chicago girl you should use both hands.—Richmond Recorder.

De Jones—"I say, Van Brown, how is it that you are always out when I call?" Van Brown—"Oh, just, luck."—Boston Gazette.

Man takes with his right hand and gives with his left until he considers it more profitable to take with both.—Dallas News.

Appearances Were Deceitful.—He—"Chapley seems to me to be a man of one idea." She—"He is more fortunate than I thought."—Life.

If we could only see ourselves as others see us the probability is that most of us would look the other way.—Somerville Journal.

Edith Cutting (fiancee at a party)—"I hope you're not shy, Jack?" Jack Pott (absently)—"No. I put in."—New York Telegram.

"Why; good gracious, Cholly, what's the matter?" "I'm the victim of a decline, old boy; she wouldn't have me."—Philadelphia Times.

"Does your wife sit up for you when you come home late from the club?" "No, but she sits down on me after I get in."—Boston Gazette.

Many persons admire the bouquet of fine wines, but almost any kind of liquor will make a nose gay if you use enough of it.—Boston Herald.

CA TARRH CAN'T BE CURD

with LOCAL APPLICATION, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Catarrh is a blood or constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you have to take internal remedies. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, and acts directly on the blood and mucous surface. Hall's Catarrh Cure is no quick medicine. It was prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for years, and is a regular prescription. It is composed of the best tonics now, combined with the best blood purifiers, acting directly on the mucous surface. The perfect combination of the two ingredients is what produces such wonderful results in curing catarrh. Send for testimonials, free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio. Sold by Druggists, 75 cents.

Advice to Mothers.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle.
