HOW IT IS DONE.

HIS VERS'ON. had not the least intention

To do the thing I mention I had shaken bands and started for the door, But our glances seemed to mingle and I felt my pulses tingle, With a bliss ecstatic, which I'd often felt before, and she surely did not chide me,

As she stood quite close beside mr. very low. So, as we stood so rearly, It was just a triffs, merely. To bend and kiss her, while the lights were dim and low.

knew, of course, I shouldn't-But then, you see, I couldn't Resist him when he put it to me so, knew he really shoutdn't, But then, you know, I couldn't Turn from him with a stern-"Sir, you must go!" And so, although I shouldn't,

Just because he really wouldn't Desist when first I said him - 'No!" Why, so-all in a minute-There wasn't much sin in it-He-well, he kissed me, while the lights were dim and low. -Smith, Gray & Co.'s Weekly.

FRESH FUN.

'You are not so strong as you used to be, John,' said a fond wife to her husband. 'I think it is about time you were getting some insurance on your life.'

'Insurance on my life! What are you talking aboutf I am as healthy as ever I was, Insurance, indeed?

'Well, dear, I only mentioned it, you know, out of respect for yourself. I thought you were failing.' 'And what in the world put it into your head that I am failing? Me failing? Why, I am as a horse, and can run up three flights of stairs without taking a breath.' 'Well, that may be so; but I am afraid you are deceiving yourself." 'Deceiving myself! Goodness gracious, woman, what do you mean? 'Don't be so impatient. What makes me think you are failing is this; When you were courting me you could hold me on your knee three hours; now you cannot hold the baby on your lap three minutes.' -New York Mercury,

Colonel Yerger got Sam Johnsing to hold his horse while he, the colonel, went into a saloon,

'I expect you are pretty thirsty. sin't you, Sam?' asked the colonel when he came out wiping his mouth.

'Dat all depends on you, boss. Hit's for yer ter say. I nebber am much thirsty at my own expense.' -Texas Siftings.

Fair Patron-They never open. Seedman-Those seed, mum, was imported direct from China, mum, and it being day over there when its night here I suppose they do their blooming after you get to sleep at night.- New York Weekly.
