THE DAILY ARGUS.
 GOLDSBORO, N. C., AUG. 4, 1892.

BROKEN MEASURES.
 Life is full of broken measures,
 Objects unattained,
 Sorrows interlined with pleasures,
 Losses of our costliest treasures,
 Ere the heights be gained.

Every soul has aspiration
 Still unattained;
 Memories that wake vibration
 Of the heart in quick pulsation,
 At the gifts denied.

We are better for the longing,
 Stronger for the pain;
 Souls at ease are nature wronging—
 Through its narrow soil come thronging
 Seed, in sun and rain.

Broken measures, find completeness
 In the perfect whole:
 Life is but a day's affliction—
 Richer in all strength and sweetness,
 Grow—the striving soul.
 —New England Magazine.

FRESH FUN.
 The sharp and witty sayings of the Press-Men.

'Well,' broke out the exchange editor, all at once, 'perhaps you can tell the difference, sir, between a tunnel and a leave of absence that has expired!'
 'The one is a bore,' retorted the financial editor, in a tone of loud defiance, 'and the other gives feeling. The band will now play 'Annie Laurie!'
 'Sheek! You're not within a thousand miles of it. I knew you couldn't guess it. The difference is—'
 'Hold on!' snorted the financial editor. 'A man that can't guess a cheap little conundrum like that—'
 'How do you know it's a cheap conundrum?' asked the exchange editor excitedly.
 'Didn't you try to give it away just now, I'd like to know!'
 'Mph! You gave yourself away trying to—'
 'The difference,' mused the financial editor, 'between a tunnel and—a what?'
 'A leave of absence that has expired.'
 'Well, now, I put it to you, if that isn't about the stupidest—hold on! I've got it—One is out at the endings and the other is the end of the outings—'
 'Naw!' ejaculated the exchange editor, supremely disgusted. The one is an excavation and the other is an ex-vacation!'
 It was a warm day and the financial editor fainted dead away.

Uncle Mose met Mrs. Lindley Murray.
 'How am your son coming on?' asked the African.
 'He is doing very well. He is a student in the medical department of the University of Texas.'
 'You don't tote me so?'
 'Yes, and he will graduate next year.'
 'And don he will be a doctor?'
 'Yes, Uncle Mose.'
 'Why, de Lor', your son am too young to be a doctor.'
 'Look on the is only a doctor for childrens.'—Texas Sittings.

'What is the lightest summer station you know of?'
 'The summer girl's 'I love you!'
 —Chicago News.

'First dinner—You say you can't take forty dollars for that cow?'
 'Second dinner—Can't do it.'
 'But yesterday you told me you'd sell her for forty dollars.'
 'I know I did, but I'll have to back out.'
 'What's the matter?'
 'You see that now belongs to my wife, and she says she will sell herself into hysteresis if I sell her. It would break her heart.'
 'All right—its no trade.'
 'I say.'
 'Well, what is it?'
 'Make it forty five dollars and we'll let her sob.'—Texas Sittings.
