THE MOST RELIABLE WORM
DESTROYER IN USE.

Recipe furnished to any regular physician
when requested.

Read the following from one of the most prominent and best known physicians and farmers in South Carolina. He writes 'that a negro girl ten years old, near him took three doses of the Worm-Killer and passed 366 worms.'

Dated, Ridgeway, S. C., May 26, 1884.
R. H. EDMUNDS, M. D.

Mr. H. M. McDonald, of LaGrange, N. C., says: "Dr. Boykin's Worm-Killer brought over 100 worms from one child in this neighborhood, and it gives universal satisfaction." He sells more of it than all other worm medicines.

LaGrange, N. C., July 27

Mr. J. P. Joyner: "I gave my child one dose of Boykin's Worm-Killer, purchased of you. It brought 366 worms. I consider

CASTORIA

for Infants and Children.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me." H. A. LAMAR, M. D., 111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

Castoria cures Colic, Constipation,
Sour Stomach, Diarrhoea, Eructation, Kills Worms, gives sleep, and promotes digestion,
without injurious medication.

"The use of 'Castoria' is so universal and its merits so well known that it seems a work of supererogation to endorse it. Few are the intelligent families who do not keep Castoria within easy reach."

"For several years I have recommended your 'Castoria,' and shall always continue to do so as it has invariably produced beneficial results."

ASPIRATION.

BY LOUISE C. MOULTON.

Break, ties that bind me to this world
of sense,
Break now and loose me on the upper air.
Those skies are blue, and that fair dome is fair
With prophecy of some unknown, intense,
Undreamed of rapture, Ah! from hence
I catch a music that my soul would snare
With its strange sweetness, and I soon aware
Of life that waits to crown this life's suspense.

I see—I hear—yet to this world I cling
This fatal world of passion and unrest—
Where loss and pain pierce at each human bliss,
As autumn mocks the fleetness of the spring,
And each morn sees its sunset in the west—
Break, ties that bind me to a world like this!

Youth's Companion.

FRESH FUN.

The Sharp and Witty Sayings of the Prose Man

Once there was a cross, fussy, squawking old Hen.

She took a Contract to hatch
some Eggs.

She sat on the Eggs for two Weeks, and then, becoming Dissatisfied, she left her Nest and Walked Out.

Then some of the other hens said: 'What is the matter with you?
Why don't you go ahead with your Hatching?'

And the Old Hen said: 'I have been sitting on those Eggs two whole Weeks and I haven't got a Chicken yet. There is no Sense in my Spending another Week on that Nest just because it is Custom,
I am going to quit.'

And they said: 'Then some other Hen that is ready to set must take those Eggs and hatch them out.'

'If any other Hen tries to hatch out those Eggs,' replied the Old Hen, furiously, 'I will pick her Eyes out! The Eggs are Mine!'

'Have you not left your nest?'

'Of course I have.'

'Are you going back to it?'

'Not unless I can have the Assurance that the Eggs will hatch right away.'

'Then why can't some Hen that is out of a job go and take the Nest?'

'Because it would be infamous to step in and deprive me of the Benefit of my two weeks' Work.
Let any Hen try it if she Dares!'

And several Hens that had just taken Contracts to Hatch out Eggs in other Nests got up and Walked Out because they sympathized with the Dissatisfied Old Hen.

And while they ran about the Barnyard cackling and making a great Noise and driving out the Irregular Hens that were willing to take the Nests off their Hands and carry out the Contracts, lo, the Eggs all Spoiled!—Chicago Tribune.

GRIZZARD: Your argument is like a Chicago girl's foot.

Banding: Big, eh?

GRIZZARD: Well, it covers the ground.—Munsey's Weekly.

The Discarded Lover—Farewell,
then; we shall meet in heaven.

The Heartless One—Not if I reach the gate first and have any influence over St. Peter.

Tired Stranger (registering his name at a hotel at Ballarat, Australia)—I want a room.

Clark (looking at the register)—
Ah! From Chicago, are you. Mr.
Jones! How are the World's Fair buildings getting along?

Tired Stranger (taking his valise again)—My friend, I have travelled 16,000 miles trying to get away from that question. When does the next steamer leave the An-tartic continent!—Chicago Tribune.
