LOCAL BRIEFS.

"I want a situation" is the national air for the time being.

UNLIKE the other office hunters, Gray is no longer blue. He has it.

At St. Stephen's Church to-day: Holy Communion 8 a. m.; funeral service 11 a. m.; evening prayer and sermon 5 o'clock in the afternoon.

ALL men are cordially invited to the meeting in the Young Men's Christian Association Hall to-day at 4 o'clock, in charge of Rev. M. D. Hill.

At St. Paul Church to-day preaching at 11 a. m., Sunday school 3 p. m., preaching at 7:30 p. m. Seats free. The public are cordially invited.

SERVICES at St. John M. E. Church to-day as follows: Preaching at 11 a. m. Sunday School 3:00 p. m. Preaching at 7:30 p. m. The public are cordially invited to attend.

ONE of the amusing features of the present political situation is the apparent astonishment of the politicians who fought Cleveland at their failure to boss him. What did they expect pray?

SERVICES at the Second Baptist church to-day, both morning and night. Conducted by the pastor. The subject of the morning sermon will be "The unsearchable riches of Christ," and at night "Close communion."

At the First Baptist Church the pastor will preach this morning at 11 o'clock. Sunday school at 3 p. m.; night service at 7:30 o'clock. Sunbeam Society will conduct a service consisting of mission recitations and songs. All are most cordially invited.

It is a coincidence of interest—and purely a coincidence, we believe—that not only is President Cleveland a Presbyterian, but also all the members of his Cabinet, except one, belong to that Church. And it is well known that THE ARGUS believes Cleveland the best President the country has ever had—and his present Cabinet, too.

THE death of Mrs. Annie Barber Whitfield, the estimable young wife of Dr. Wm. Cobb Whitfield, superintendent of the Odd Fellows' Orphanage, occurred at that institution, near this city, yesterday morning, in the 23d year of her age. Our entire community are deeply sympathetic for the bereaved husband in his irreparable loss. The orphans of the home, too, had learned to love her as a mother—and all of them spoke of her and to her by this endearing name; they miss her and weep for her bitterly. Her own little children, two in number, are too young yet to realize the aching void that has come into their lives, and that none other can fill, but they will grow to it and miss her as the years come and go. It is sad—it is very sad! But God doeth all things well, and in Him she had placed her trust. She was an exemplary member of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, from which her funeral will be held this morning at 11 o'clock. The appointed pall bearers are requested to meet at the office of Mr. W. T. Dorch this morning at 10 o'clock. The interment will be made in Willow Dale Cemetery.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mr. W. S. O'B. Robinson is in the city.

Hon. C. B. Aycock has returned to the city.

Mr. Richard Norris, of New York, representing the popular Ink house of Berger & Worth, is in the city, at the Hotel Kennon.

Mr. W. G. Barkhead, who has many friends here, spent several hours in this city yesterday, where we were all glad to see him.

His many friends here are glad to see in the city again Dr. D. S. Harmon, the noted and reliable Russian Ophthalmic Optician, who has taken rooms at the Hotel Kennon and will remain here for some weeks.

Mr. Jos. Rosenthal, of the widely known and everywhere popular firm of H. Weil & Bros., has returned from an extended business trip north, where he made the purchases of Spring goods for their triple store in this city.

FOR PROTECTION'S SAKE ONLY.

The Philadelphia Telegraph, one of the best and fairest Republican papers of the country, finds fault with President Cleveland's assertion in his inaugural address, that "the injustice of maintaining protection for protection's sake was condemned by the American people." It insists that Mr. Cleveland made no such declaration before the late presidential election, and that if he had made it he would have been defeated.

If Mr. Cleveland made no declaration before the election, in this precise language or equivalent terms, it was because no such declaration by him was necessary. His position on the tariff question was well understood by the people. In his message to congress during his first term, he insisted on the injustice of bestowing government bounties upon "favored industries" by protective duties. He accepted the Democratic nomination last year upon a platform which explicitly condemned "protection for protection's sake." The political contest which resulted in such a signal Democratic triumph was fought squarely upon this issue—the issue of opposition to a tariff scheme whose main object, as its author announced, was protection for the sake of protection.

The Democratic party has ever insisted that there was no warrant in the constitution for duties levied, not to yield revenue to the government, but to cut off or diminish it, as was the admitted object of the McKinley act. Such duties give protection for the sake of protection only. They destroy revenue and tax the great body of the people for the benefit of "favored industries."

The Republican Senate and President Harrison appear to have at least recognized the truth of President Cleveland's declaration which the Telegraph condemns. They cooperated at the last session of Congress with the Democratic House in the passage of bills repealing protective duties levied by the McKinley act for the sake of protection only. The McKinley act took tin from the free list and imposed a heavy duty upon it, confessedly with an eye to protection solely, and largely increased the duty on linen with avowedly the same object. Both these duties which were to have taken effect on the first of July next, were repealed at the late session of Congress. Republicans who passed the McKinley act assisting in their repeal because the "injustice of maintaining protection for protection's sake was condemned by the American people" in the late Presidential and Congressional election.

With a treasury on the verge of depletion, the folly of maintaining, for the sake of protection, duties which cut off revenue is as manifest as it is unjust.

Office-Seekers.

WASHINGTON, March 10.—The Cabinet meeting to-day curtailed the time usually given to callers, and their number, consequently, was not so great as it has been on other days this week. Hereafter the Cabinet will meet at 11 o'clock Tuesday and Fridays. Under Harrison and the former Cleveland administration, meetings were held on the days named, but the hour was half past 4 o'clock. For an hour and a half prior to the assembling of the Cabinet, Mr. Cleveland saw a large number of visitors, the greater number composed of office-seekers and their advocates with a sprinkling of Republicans and others who came merely to pay their respects.

R. P. Cole, of Paris, Tenn., an applicant for the marshaling of the Western District of Tennessee, was presented and endorse by Representative Enloe. Gus Richardson, of Mead county, Ky., was with Senator Lindsay, who spoke a good word for his candidacy for the marshaling of the Blue Grass State. Senator Lindsay was also accompanied by Judge Severs, who has applied for the position of collector of internal revenue for the Second District of Kentucky. Other callers who wanted offices were Richard McCart, of Texas, and Thomas Wentzler, of Lancaster, Ohio. Congressman Outhwaite presented Wentzler, who is one of the numerous candidates for the position of Public Printer. McCart, introduced by Mr. Kilgore, wants the mission to Belgium. Congressman Pendleton, of West Virginia, presented the name of Frank P. Jefferson, of Wheeling, for United States Treasurer.

A candidate for the post-marshalship of New York City appeared this morning in the person of Judge Maurice J. Power. He was accompanied by Col. Robt. Motron and Judge Paul Halpin.

Mr. Garron, of Omaha, called on the President this afternoon, in company with Senator Allen and Representative Bryan, of Nebraska, and Representative Hayes, of Iowa. Garron is President of the Irish National League, and is a candidate for the Obilian Mission, now held by Patrick Egan. His case was presented to the President by Allen, Bryan and Hayes. Cleveland was non-committal and gave no indication of his choice in the matter.

During the afternoon the President shook hands with several hundred people in the East Room.

The Business Outlook.

NEW YORK, March 10.—R. G. Dun & Co's weekly review of trade says business during the past week has been affected by severe weather but even more by the stringency and uncertainty in the money market. Rates for money have mounted from 5 1/2 on call to 6 1/2 per cent., and for two days ruled above 10 per cent., but the extreme pressure has abated without any measure of relief, and announcement that the Treasury department would not issue bonds, but would use the bullion reserve in maintaining gold payments. Withdrawals of money for the West and South has nearly ceased. Gold to the amount of a million was offered to the Treasury in exchange for legal tenders by the banks of Denver, and as much by one bank at Chicago, and rates here fell to six per cent. There was some liquidation in stocks, but none of importance in products, and it is evident that the restraint of exports by speculation in the chief staples is an important cause of the monetary stringency and of loss of gold by the Treasury.

Fair increase is seen in wholesale trade at St. Louis, with bright promise for the Spring. Trade is satisfactory at Little Rock, improving at Memphis and quiet at other points in Tennessee. Shrinking with tight money at Columbus but fairly good at Atlanta. Better with increased shipments of lumber at Mobile, and fair at New Orleans with sugar firm; but rice is lower.

Iron is at the lowest point and rates dull, while structural works are still running full times, but with new orders. Business failures during the last week number for the United States 193, Canada 32, Total 225.

NEW YORK, March 10.—Bradstreet's to-morrow will say: Orders for cotton goods at eastern and other centres of production are larger. More cotton is being consumed, and prices are steady. Jobbers are taking larger quantities of goods and country dealers are placing heavy orders. Increased capacity at Fall river results in a surplus of five thousand pieces; but prints are active. At the South, Charleston reports trade dull, as interior dealers are permitting stocks to run down. Business is not particularly active at Nashville, Memphis, Richmond, Atlanta, Birmingham, or New Orleans, and collections while fair at a few points are generally slow.

Farmers are actively engaged in field work in Georgia. They have raised so much larger food crops that grocery sales have been affected at Atlanta and elsewhere although at Birmingham trade in this line has improved. The slow movement of cotton makes trade dull in Louisiana, where the sugar acreage is to be increased.

A Boston Blaze

BOSTON, March 10.—Fire broke out about 4 p. m. in the building owned by A. L. Ames, corner of Essex and Lincoln street, and involved the entire block. The fire was under control shortly before 8 o'clock. The area burned over comprises practically one whole square, bounded on the north by Essex street on the east by Lincoln on the south by Tufts street, on the west by Kington street. In addition to this square, one building on the north of Essex street extending along Columbia street was burned; also, three buildings on the east side of Lincoln street; also, one on the south side by Tufts street, with the Emergency hospital, which was a part of the United States hotel, and the rear corner of the hotel. The loss will probably reach $3,000,000. Three unidentified dead bodies have been taken from the ruins, and there are supposed to be many others yet undiscovered. The injured number about thirty.

Tenders of Gold.

WASHINGTON, March 10.—Several other offers of gold for small Treasury notes were made to the Secretary of the Treasury this afternoon. Cincinnati banks offered one million, of which six thousand dollars was accepted. Other offers in small quantities came in from banks in Kentucky, Illinois and Missouri. Treasurer Reber was much pleased with the turn of affairs taken and declared that sufficient offers of gold had been received to absorb all the small legal tender notes on hand.

Senator Hill begins to suspect that there may be some politics in this administration after all and that it is not going to be of his kind. The selection of an experienced politician like Maxwell, who knows the State of New York thoroughly, to look after the country post offices, means that when the rural workers want appointments it will not be to Senator Hill or Senator Murphy that they will have to apply. No wonder the senior Senator thought it prudent to call on the President Thursday.

"I've used Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup in my family for a long while, and wouldn't be without it I know it's a good medicine. John Harrison, Post-master, Guyton, Kilmington Co., Ga."

OPINION OF THE WILMINGTON MESSENGER.

"Dr. Harmon has made a good citizen in all respects since his sojourn in Wilmington, and he leaves behind him many friends who are sorry to see him take his departure. Professionally he has given very general satisfaction and he carries away with him testimonials from many of our very best citizens who have been his patients. A member of the Messenger staff can add his testimony to others as to the great benefit his eyes have received under treatment from Dr. Harmon. His treatment in this instance has given great satisfaction and we can cheerfully and sincerely recommend him to persons who desire the services of an experienced and successful optician." Dr. Harmon has taken rooms at the Hotel Kennon, in this city, where he can be found for consultation.
