News Items Gathered Here and There for Passing Perusal

It shows what men will do to hold office when at present thousands are holding them by the skin of their teeth.

Margaret Fox, the spiritualistic widow of Dr. Kaese, whose melancholy decay was recently described in a letter from New York, died in Brooklyn on Wednesday.

The first edition of tickets for the Chicago Exposition will be confined to 1,000,000. This will about cover the requirement of officials and political deadheads.

Dr. Furness, the Shakespearean scholar, declares that a Harvard classmate hit upon a much better motto for the Union when he proposed "Inseparabiles Insuperabiles," instead of "E Pluribus Unum."

This is the thirtieth anniversary of the marriage of the Prince and Princess of Wales, and a reminder to "Albert Edward" that good wife may do much toward upholding the self-respect and dignity of a too lively husband.

The two daughters of Sir Alfred Stephen, the ex-Chief Justice of New South Wales, have no sinecure in life. They have to keep at work six hours daily in taking down from dictation reminiscences of their father's judicial experiences.

Roswell Beardley, of North Lansing, is the oldest postmaster in the service. He has been in office since 1828 and is now 83 years old. It is hardly likely that anyone will try to rob the old man of his position, seeing that, after sixty-five years' service, he only gets $170 a year.

General Mahone lives at Chamberlin's in Washington, and is as crotchety, port and swear-wordish as ever. He is rich enough to be able to wear old clothes without arousing sympathy, and his self-assertive face is ornamented with a long beard and surmounted by a costly white slouched hat.

That there is a chance of "love's young dream" being too young and callow for safety was proved by that Ohio girl of 15, who, because she had quarreled with her almost equally unripe lover, took "a cup of cold poison" and became a late lamented little dear.

It knocks out all thought of the Dowager Duchess of Marlborough (formerly Mrs. Hamerly) being a lone and poor widow, when we read that she is negotiating for the purchase of that glorious old estate, Aldermaston Park, which contains some 2,500 acres of the most picturesque and best-wooded land in England.

Gov. Flower still maintains his reputation for putting things pungently. His latest observation, apropos of Judge Gresham's appointment, that a new recruit who does good fighting is just as much entitled to his shoulder-strap as a veteran, is as good as his supplementary remark that a good many people who are wearing shoulder-strap new-days have done mighty little to deserve them. We trust that the battle-scarred veterans in both the great political armies will take note of these expressions from one of their own crowd.

Gentlemen would not use "Blush of Roses" if it was a paint or powder, of course not. It is clear as water, no sediment to bill the pores of the skin. Its mission is to heal, cleanse and purify the complexion of every lady and gentleman a clear smooth complexion. Sold at Miller's Pharmacy, price 75 cents.

Notice.

Pursuant to an order of the superior Court of Wayne county in the proceeding of J. W. Talbot et al vs. W. L. Garris executor et al, I shall sell for cash by public auction at the court house door in the city of Goldsboro, N. C., on Monday, April 17, 1893, a lot or parcel of land in Duplin county, N. C., in or near the town of Magnolia, containing 2 acres, more or less, being the lands conveyed by J. M. McGee and others to G. C. Garris by deed dated Nov. 11, 1877, and recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds of said county in Book No. 38, page 108 and 109. Also the remainder or reversion after the life estate of Smithy Garris in the tract of land in Wayne county, N. C., supposed to contain 110 acres, more or less, which was devised by the will of G. C. Garris to the said Smithy Garris for life and after her death to W. L. Garris in fee.

ORANGE GROVE.

Located in Lake County, Fla. within a few miles of the far-famed and beautiful St. John's River, on the St. John's & Lake Eustace R. R., containing 6 acres of trees of the finest variety, ten years old, of splendid growth, and good for many years to come. Lake county is in South Florida, near Sandford, where the climate is tropical and the best profits are made in orange growing. I will sell this fine young grove cheap for cash, or trade it for land in this State, or city property. My inability to live in Florida by reason of business requirements here, render it impossible for me to give this grove the attention it requires. The grove is in a healthy country; good schools, good neighbors, good water and several churches. The property is at eight hundred dollar dwelling, out houses and stables. Apply to W. E. LEWIS, Goldsboro, N. C. d-w 2 mos.

Under Opera House,

Following telegram from Messrs Chase & Sanborn speaks for itself and shows that they do get there: We have to day been awarded the big World's Fair contract for supplying Tea and Coffee: This, in connection with contracts secured previously, guarantees our Tea and Coffee will be served exclusively inside the World's Fair grounds. (Signed) CHASE & SANBORN.

Now this shows that where the highest grade is wanted that Chase & Sanborn's products stand ahead of all others. I am agent for the above goods in this city, so if you want the best you will have to come to Fonville for it. The Obelisk Flour is growing in favor and when once used and understood can not be put aside for anything else.

PLAYED THE FOOL.

A gentleman came in yesterday and remarked that he had played the fool and tried another brand, and had not had a biscuit fit to eat for some time. He ordered a barrel of Obelisk sent up and remarked that in the future he would stick to the Obelisk, and then he would have no trouble. If you have not tried this Flour and would like to do so, I would be glad to supply you; I am agent for it here. I can also supply you with Obelisk Baking Powder. This Powder has been put on the market by The Ballard & Ballard Co., after being thoroughly tested by them. It has given entire satisfaction, and they guarantee it to be absolutely pure, and it is cheaper than any Powder of like grade now being offered. I shall be pleased to have your order for a trial can. I am also agent in this city for the Boss Lunch Milk Biscuit.

So if you wish them fresh and direct from the factory, send me your orders.

It is a well-known fact that I carry the largest and best selected stock of Groceries to be found in this city. For the same grade of goods my prices are as low as those made by any one.

Bastine's Extracts.

These extracts have given more universal satisfaction than any I have ever handled, and the price is no higher than you sometimes pay for inferior goods.

I have a nice line of Pickles, Catsups, Sauces, Relishes, etc., also Fruits and Canned Goods of all description.

Ward's Tonsorial Palace

Nothing succeeds like success: this has been the experience of A. B. Ward, the Barber since he opened business in Goldsboro, and he is now able to announce to the public that he has got the best equipped and most satisfactory Tonsorial Palace in the State. All the popular Barbers of the city are now employed in his establishment, prompt and courteous, as follows:

JIM BATES, CHARLIE H. DENT, OLIVER BADGER, JOHN D. WILLIAMS.

On naming to thank to public generous patronage they have extended to me since I moved with my family Goldsboro and purchased a home here, and assuring them that I shall continue to exercise my best efforts for their continued comfort and satisfaction in my line I remain, Very respectfully, A. B. WARD. At Fordham's old stand, East Centre street Goldsboro N. C.
