REV. E. A. Wright will preach at Elm Street M. E. Chapel, in Webb-town, this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

THE regular monthly meeting of the Board of County Commissioners will be held in this city to-morrow.

AT the First Baptist church services as usual to-day at 11 a. m., and 8:15 p. m. Sunday School at 5 p. m. All are most cordially invited.

AT St. Paul church to-day preaching 11 a. m. and at 8.15 p. m. Sunday School 9.30 a. m. Public cordially invited to all these services.

MR. D. H. Wallace, of Wallace, N. C., who has hosts of friends throughout Eastern North Carolina, was in the city yesterday on a business visit.

THE Board of Justices of the county will meet in annual session in this city to-morrow to fix the tax levy, and also to elect a Board of County Education.

THE shipments of fish from Morehead through this city daily by express continues to increase in volume, and is greater than has ever been known before at this season of the year.

THE bicycle fever that struck this community with such force some weeks ago seems to have well-nigh spent itself; and the votaries of the "wheel" are neither so numerous nor so active as they used to be.

THE WEEKLY ARGUS has not only a large circulation within the county, but throughout the several counties that are contiguous to and make Goldsboro their market and trading town. Advertisers who would receive the best returns for their money, will oblige themselves by making a note of this "friendly trip."

SECRETARY Hoke Smith promises to prove a terror to fraudulent pensioners. And he has not appeared upon the scene a day too soon. Justice demands that the honest, humble labor of the country be given relief from the burden piled upon it through the gross abuse of the pension system.

THE first entertainment of the "Sigma Phi" society of the Goldsboro Graded School came off Friday night at the hospitable home of Capt. and Mrs. R. P. Howell, and was one of the most enjoyable events the young people of that age have ever experienced. It is needless to say that they will have others before the vacation is over.

THE death of the little son and only child of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Miller occurred yesterday morning at their home in this city on William street, after a brief illness. In their sad bereavement they have the deepest sympathy of this community. They have, too, the strength of religion to comfort and sustain them—the only sure and unfailing staff in the hour of such sorrow. The funeral will be held from the home this morning at 9.30 o'clock. Rev. B. R. Hall officiating.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Miss Mamie Gully, who has been attending school at Greensboro, is at home for vacation.

Miss Lucy Brown, of Raleigh, is visiting the family of Mr. J. W. Stanley, in this city.

Mr. Frank Hyman, who has been attending school at Rock Hill, S. C., is at home for vacation.

Mrs. Laura Moore, nee Peterson, of Morehead, is on a visit to her parents Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Peterson in this city.

Miss Laura Brown, of Weldon, who has been attending school here for the past session, left for home yesterday for vacation.

Mr. F. G. Middleton, proprietor of the renowned "Rock Spring Nurseries," near Warsaw, N. C., was in the city yesterday; and he reports the finest fruit crop in prospect that our people have known for years.

A WORD IN TIME.

A death from cholera occurred a few days ago in Hamburg, where disease raged so fearful last year. It was believed to have been stamped out, and for more than two months not a case had been shown.

The reappearance of the cholera has caused considerable alarm, though it has attacked only one person. It is said that there is much more of the disease in Russia than has been reported to the outside world, but the rest of Europe seems to be free from it. Although there is no imminent danger of the importation of cholera, the sanitary authorities of New York and our other leading ports have wisely taken special precautions. They are endeavoring to have a thorough spring cleaning, and will keep a sharp watch on all arriving vessels.

A good way to avoid epidemics is to keep up this policy of cleanliness and care.

A word in time is always proper, and a timely word when needed is always a duty. See?

HEWING TO THE LINE.

Last Sunday the Rev. Mr. Dannel, a Canadian evangelist, said to a large Boston congregation:

"I want to ask the churches of Boston, why they do not get excited and arise in their strength and withdraw their patronage from the street car companies and the railroads, who cause thousands of men to work on the Sabbath who are hungering for the bread of life and cannot get time to attend a church, for the pressing daily needs of little ones."

Answering his own question he went on:

"It is a popular thing to attack the World's Fair, but it would be unfair to stop the street cars that on a Sunday carry Christians to their churches and to the beaches; and he continued:

"I tell you there is enough work for you right here in your own city and to let Chicago alone. In the name of God, my friends, as you hope to stand before the great tribunal of God, quit this sham! It is a farce. The world sees it and laughs at you."

The Rev. Mr. Dannel seems to have a pretty level head and a profound admiration for a jewel called consistency.

Y. M. C. A. Notes.

Twenty-one men attended the prayer meeting yesterday morning.

The regular reading room is always supplied with plenty of ice water and fans.

The Junior department cordially invites all the boys in town to a meeting at 2.30 o'clock to-day, led by Mr. C. J. Rivenbark. Subject, "Chums."

To-day at 4 o'clock the regular men's meeting will be held. A fifteen minute song service will open the program and the address will be made by Rev. J. H. Edwards. All men invited.

FROM WASHINGTON.

Secretary Carlisle on the Financial Civil Service Examination—Applications Numerous from North Carolina and Virginia

Correspondence Richmond Dispatch.

WASHINGTON, June 1.—The continued absence of President and the backward state of business in the departments makes it slow business for the applicants for positions.

Senator Ransom and Representative Henderson are the most constant members of the North Carolina delegation in attendance, though many of their colleagues come and go as occasion requires.

COULDN'T STAND IT HIMSELF.

A North Carolinian who was given a position recently in the Treasury Department, was at first required to stand a very technical civil-service examination. He is a man of fine practical sense, and has had considerable experience in the affairs of life in addition to having held responsible positions in his State. His first assignment is said to have been a mistake, and it is related that Secretary Carlisle remedied the matter himself and in doing so said: "I want you to have a position that will not subject you to the civil-service examination. You could not stand it. I could not stand it myself."

This gossip is floating around Washington and is not only relished by North Carolinians, but by every one who knows anything of the character of the examinations to which Democrats are subjected.

BY REPUBLICANS.

The examinations, as a rule, are prepared by black Republicans, who take infinite delight in keeping out as many Democrats as possible. The rules were made by the former Republican administration, but so far as Mr. Carlisle and his brilliant young son, the chief clerk, have the power, they are ripping the odious system up the back. They are good Kentucky Democrats and are desirous of getting Democrats in the Treasury. For this attitude they are abused by the Republicans and pesky Mugwumps, but they are becoming more and more solid with their own party.

A FULL LIST ALREADY.

No applications from either Virginia or North Carolina were filed at the Treasury to-day. The applications from each State in this department alone are about 200, and as not more than one in ten has any chance of appointment there will be disappointments. Fully as many more from these States are trying for positions in the Treasury, but they have not put their papers on file.

While I believe there is no real change in the Western district slate, there are certain inklings, which are not to be wholly disregarded. As the matter will probably be settled in a few days or weeks, the public are warned not to jump to the conclusion from the subjoined that either Elias or Grudger is weakening. A prominent Democrat says that he thinks there is more in the rumor denied a few days ago than even the denier knows of. In the judgment of this Democrat, Mr. Elias is perfectly sincere in waiting collector honors and standing by his first and only love, the first and only love, the district attorneyship. But the President may say: "Here is an office, friend Kope, that will give you, through its extensive patronage and ramifications, more political and personal power than the one you want. By giving it to you I can honor two active Democrats whom I desire to honor." The man I am quoting believes Elias will take the collectorship if offered in this way. He says his belief in a readjustment of the slate is based on some reported utterances of the President which he declines to permit me to give to the public, and which he states he will not give out for publication any where, I will add that if these utterances were really made they bear out this Democrat's judgment as far as they go.

World's Fair.

CHICAGO, June 2.—The powers that be at Jackson Park are not greatly exercised over the court proceeding which sought to close the Fair on Sundays. Director of works Barnham yesterday issued an order to department chiefs instructing them to have their buildings ready for visitors next Sunday. While the Director of Works had no official information to give regarding his reasons, he is understood to take it for granted that the decision of the court will go in favor of the Exposition side of the case.

Argument in the case of the Government against the Exposition authorities for an injunction against the opening of the gates on Sunday was concluded to-day. This morning Attorney High, on behalf of the Government made the closing address, reviewing the argument already advanced and insisting upon the absolute character of Governmental control. The court will take the matter under advisement. It is doubtful whether a decision will be reached this week; meanwhile Exposition authorities have issued the usual notice to its employees concerning the opening of the gates Sunday. The impression prevails that the court will rule that the Government has no authority over the Fair to the extent of regulating the hours and days of closing the gates. Eager to obtain prompt ruling, U. S. attorney Milchrist asked that in the absence of a permanent decision, the restraining order be given effect on next Sunday. He was refused.

Bank Failure.

PAULDING, Ohio, June 2.—Potter's bank, the oldest bank in Paulding county, and heretofore considered one of the safest, closed its doors this morning. The bank was established in 1874, and has always done a large banking business. The bank has also done a large business loaning money on land in this county. Information as to the cause of the assignment is hard to get. President Ayers and Vice-President Potter had nothing to say and Cashier Sponsler was not to be found. The only thing learned was that it had assigned to J. B. Broadnax and that a large number of business men here were depositors. Several county treasurers were caught for many thousands of dollars and the whole town will suffer from the failure. Complaint is made that the officials received money up to 4 o'clock, the closing hour last evening, when they must have known that the bank was insolvent.
