WHY SHOULD WE WEEP FOR THOSE WHO DIE!"

Why should we weep for those who diet

They fall, their dust returns to dust Their souls shall live eternally Within the mansions of the just

They die to live, they sink to rise, They leave this wretched mortal shore:

But brighter suns and bluer skies Shall smile on them for evermore.

Why should we sorrow for the dead? Our life on earth is but a span, They tread the path that all must tread. They die the common death of man

The noblest songsters of the dale. Must cease when 'Vinter's frowns ap

The reddest rose must wan and pale When autumn tints the changing year

The fairest flower on earth must fade, The brightest hopes on earth must die; Why should we mourn that man was made To droop on earrh, but dwell on high?

The soul, th' eternal soul, must reign In a world devote of pain and strife Then why should man complain

Of death, which leads to happier life! -Tennyson.
