TARIFF ROBBERY VS. CONSTITUTION.

The tariff beneficiaries are up against the constitution, and they are so emboldened by republican success and the demonstrated influence of their pockets in 1896, that they do not hesitate to strike boldly and unblushingly at that venerable instrument.

And it does this in the most calculating and selfish manner. It does it in order to maintain at its maximum and worst that compound of villainies, the Dingley tariff. It desires to maintain every exaction of this scheme of robbery because thereby its quadrennial campaign list can be carried to a sum that will carry the doubtful States. At the bottom of it is therefore the robbery of the many on the one hand, and the corruption of the ballot on the other.

It is the duty of the democratic senators to make the issue plain. Give the republicans all the rope they ask for. Secure above all else votes upon every proposition involved, so that in the grand appeal to the people next November there can be no dodging, no quibbling, no evasion. The votes that will be taken down to the final vote on Tuesday next would mark the sacrifice of the republic to greed and corruption were it not for the fact that an appeal lies from the congress—not to the supreme court which is strongly republican—but to the people. The people in the approaching campaign will decide. Either this is an empire or a republic. I cannot be half one and half the other, for two such governments cannot be intermingled. It must be one or the other, and the people will decide.

"A Cheerful Look Makes a Dish a Feast."

"Cheerful looks" depend just as much upon physical well-being as upon natural disposition and temperament. If the blood is disordered, the brain is starved, and no "dish is a feast," for the reason that the vitalizing elements do not reach the proper spot.

A Thousand Tongues Could not express the rapture of Annie E. Springer, of 1125 Howard st., Philadelphia, Pa., when she found that King's New Discovery for consumption had completely cured her of a hacking cough that for many years had made life a burden.

The Porto Rico tariff muddle would be ridiculous if it were not villainous.

Robbed the Grave. A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying 'Electric Bitters,' and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50c's, guaranteed, at J. H. Hill & Son's Drug Store.
