POST SCANDAL IN CUBA

Primarily the embezzlement on the part of two carpetbaggers in the Cuban postal service lies at President McKinley's doors beticians he refused to select subordinates for service in the new possessions under the civil service system. He permitted politicians to send out carpetbaggers after their own kind. The embezzlement recently ferretted out by the army officers in Havana is not therefore surprising, have their way. What did they do in the case under review? As-Heath's fine Italian hand appears at once.
