RAMBLES OF THE RAMBLER

BREEZY NEWS, VIEWS AND COMMENTS.

What He Sees and Hears While Roaming the Streets.

It were better to wear your heart upon your sleeve for jackdaws to peck at, if jackdaws there be, than to keep it concealed by the fool's armor of false pride and arrogant ignorance for canker-worms to feed upon. Men, denied their desires and balked of their purposes, give strongest proof of unworthiness by sour-visaged discontent, as if awakened from a night of evil pursuits. The white flower of a loving life does not wither at noonday nor waste in darkness: it is fresh blossoming through good and evil report, a banner that is for ever unsullied. And every one who will may wear it and make the world brighter and better. Al the devils are affrighted by a baby's laugh, and all the demons of unrest are exercised by smiles that spring from hearts that love. In the record of the angels the name that led all the rest was the name of him who loved his fellow-men. That was the last and the best confirmation of a virtue lauded through all ages, and commended of God Himself!

There may be gems of purest ray in the black bed of the ocean; but the world knows them not. An hundred cubits below the imprint of the maiden's dainty tread may rest a diamond that an emperor's ransom might be, but its imprisoned light is valueless. One little seed may hold within its little compass the lily's loveliness, but it needs to burst and grow, burgeon and bloom. The gem may be saved from the ocean's deep and brought to bison the throbbing of beauty's breast. The diamond may be claimed of its hundred cubits of earth and wrought to crown the maiden and challenge the light of her eyes of love; and the lily may grow to deck the altar of her beautiful bridal. But to bring these things to pass in their fullness there must be toilsome endeavor, patient perseverance, confident hopefulness, persistent seeking of cherished purposes. The rust must be worn away, and with the wearing comes the fulfillment of anticipation that promises brightness and beauty and joy!

So let us weary not of well-doing for Goldsboro; let us, rather, take a look before and after the past decade and a half and take courage of what we have accomplished and from those things which we have let us look for greater things to come—Greater Goldsboro.

We go forward.

THEY SAY.

Perfumed butter is now in the market as a competitor of high grade oleomargarine.

Half the men you meet are suckers and the other half are fishing for them.

Every man that weighs more than 200 ought to be made to wear corsets as a horrible example.

Every girl some time or other has powdered her face so as to make some man think she is suffering silently.

No matter how much a woman may scold her children she will never let anyone else say a word against them.

A woman who strokes her eyebrows always acts like it was such a foolish thing for a man to dye his mustache.

Why is it that when you go to shop everything else seems so much cheaper than the things you have got to buy?

If Eve had tried to work off a chafing dish supper on Adam probably Cain wouldn't have been the first murderer.

Mexican Liver Pills cure all liver troubles. Price, 50c.
