LEMONS AS MEDICINE

They regulate the Liver, Stomach, Bowels, Kidneys and Blood as prepared by Dr. H. Mozley, in his Lemon Elixir, a pleasant lemon drink. It cures biliousness, constipation, indigestion, headache, appendicitis, malaria, kidney diseases, fevers, chills, heart failure, nervous prostration, and all other diseases caused by a torpid or diseased liver and kidneys. It is an established fact that lemons, when combined properly with other liver tonics, produce the most desirable results upon the stomach, liver, bowels, kidney and blood. Sold by druggists, 50c. and $1 bottles.

Rev. John P. Sanders Writes:

Dr. H. Mozley, Atlanta, Ga.: I have been relieved of a trouble which greatly endangered my life, by using Mozley's Lemon Elixir. My doctor declared my only relief to be the knife, my trouble being appendicitis. I have been permanently cured and am now a well man. I am a preacher of the M. E. Church South, located in the town of Verbena, Ala. My brother, Rev. E. E. Cowen, recommended the Lemon Elixir to me. Ship me a half dozen large bottles C. O. D.

Mozley's Lemon Elixir

Cured me of a long-standing case of chills and fever by using two bottles. J. C. STANLEY, Engineer E. T. Va & Ga. R. V.

Mozley's Lemon Elixir

Cured me of a case of heart disease and indigestion of four years' standing. I tried a dozen different medicines. None but Lemon Elixir done me any good. TULES DEKHL, Cor. Habersham and St. Thomas Sts. Savannah, Ga.

Mozley's Lemon Elixir

I fully endorse it for nervous prostration, headache, indigestion and constipation, having used it with most satisfactory results, after all other remedies had failed. J. W. ROLLO, West End, Atlant., Ga.

RAMBLES OF THE RAMBLER

BREEZY NEWS, VIEWS AND COMMENTS.

What He Sees and Hears While Roaming the Streets.

When a man gives a woman his honest love he pays her the best tribute then within his power to give. When he follows his loving-giving with that unwavering loyalty which is consecration, and gives her gentle courtesy, tender consideration, watchful concern, ever-present helpfulness, hopefulness, unselfishness, deep and earnest and unquestioning trust and respect, he has done for her all that within himself rests to do. "Angels could no more."

Love "is woman's whole existence." "It is of man's life a thing apart." A woman never forgets and never quite forgives a man for loving her. Whilst she really desires the deep soul-love of but one man and to but one gives herself, she joys in the loving vows of all for whom she really cares. Women love to be sought, prized, cherished, loved by men. That is as life to them. The more man at their beck and call, the brighter and happier and sweeter their world. They attach a real value to lovemaking, for it is of real value, since it brightens and thrills, and gratifies a perfectly natural longing. The absence of lovers is as wormwood and gall to a proud, sensitive woman, who has dreams of a fireside of her own, somewhere, somewhen, in the afterwhile. And that dream is the dearest in the soul of every womanly woman. For the young woman, looking eagerly for the first bar of light upon the golden-glowing peaks of her own undiscovered country, the gods are best when they send her troops of lovers, languishing or masterful as they be, pleading or demanding.

Woman is the profoundest reality of life in the world. She is all of life's romance. She is all that is absolutely and gloriously beautiful. She is—everything noble and good.

The world rings with nonsense about woman's sphere, woman's work, woman's rights, woman's what not. Woman's sphere is the great, green, round, rolling, woman-ruled old world; her work is all the work she finds proper for her faithful hands to do, guided by her pure and faithful heart; her rights are the rights of all that is best and truest and noblest in humanity; her usefulness begins when her chubby little infant hands tie closer and stronger the strings that bind two souls together, and it ends not at all until the shriveled old grandina's hands are crossed upon the loving old breast resting at last of its glad burden of love lived and duty done. It is to love and to be loved, all in all—to love and to be loved so long as there be stout hearts and brave; so long as there be virtue and faith; so long as there be truth and mercy, gentleness and charity; so long as love finds resting place in human hearts! That is God's significance of woman.

A Woman's Face

Tells its own story. A laugh is often a lie on a woman's lips. It betrays the pain which is tearing at the nerves. But the eyes have no part in the laugh. Their purple rings speak of suffering. There are lines too about the mouth which only pain can give. Many women look forward to a week of such misery each month. Three months of each year are given up to suffering. It weakens them, it ages them. It robs them of social pleasures and family joys. Can there be any excuse for such women who fail to try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription? It has cured thousands of such sufferers. Cured them perfectly and permanently. It cures ninety-eight out of every hundred who give it a fair and faithful trial. It's sure to help. It's almost sure to cure.

"I had falling of internal organs and had to go to bed every month. Had irregular monthly periods which would sometimes last ten or twelve days" writes Mrs. Alice L. Holmes of Quaker, Ore. "I could not eat anything but bread and butter. I could not get on my feet. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and 'Golden Medical Discovery' cured me."

Free. Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Advice is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing. Send 21-cent stamps for paper-bound book or 31 stamps for cloth binding to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.
