PRODIGAL REPUBLICANS

President McKinley considers it necessary to assure the people at every opportunity that there is no danger of our country becoming an empire.

find it necessary to repeat this assurance oftener than ever af- & Son s, Droggists. ter the next session of congress From a Republican paper comes the announcement that the Rapublican congress will be called on at the session beginning nex week to appropriate no less than

One of the large items contributing to this nest total will be the army appropriation. The lowest Republican estimate of the army is 100,000 men One shrewd plan to obviate the appearance of a big army is to have congress author 29 an army of say 50,000 men, giving the president power to enlarge it "a his discretion," But the fact that in trick or verbal device can cover up that at least 125,000 men are necessary to carry out the policy inaugurated by our government in "our colonies."

The chances are that in addition to the enormous sums for our army and navy congressions and image for could be developed and i in the saddle and they are going to deal out the public funds with prodigal hand.
