WAR AGAINST TRUSTS

In an Ohio town the Standard Oil Trust is practicing its accustomed methods upon a rival. By gathering extortionate profits from the many it is able to crush a rival by underselling it. Says a recent dispatch from Cleveland:

"The Pennsylvania Oil Company has been selling oil for a few months at the same prices as the Standard. Now the Standard has started a fight and dropped from 10 and 12 cents to 7 cents a gallon. It is said that the dealers have orders to sell the Standard oil at 2 cents a gallon lower than the Pennsylvania is offered for, no matter what that price may be."

This is better than blowing up an opposition plant with dynamite, although it does not differ in principle. It simply shows what trusts are, and what they were organized to accomplish, namely, to crush competition.

The plow trust, recently organized with a capital of $67,000,000, will pursue similar methods. All trusts do, the Standard Oil being a pattern for all the rest of the vile blood. The crushing out of all competition, so that the home market can be exploited at will, paying in many cases losses on export trade—there being one price for the home consumer, and another and lower price for the foreign consumer—is the programme for all trusts.

Representative Pettus proposes to protect the people of Alabama from such robbery and extortion. His bill is carefully drawn. He has given much time and study to it. It will be fought on all imaginable grounds. Calamities untold will be predicted of it, but not a calamity has followed the Texas bill or the Arkansas bill or the Mississippi bill, and none would follow the passage of the Pettus bill. The calamities exist in the fertile imaginations of well-paid lobbyists and purchased papers only.

If the people want protection from the organized robber trusts they will see that their representatives support the Pettus bill. If they prefer to pay two prices for articles of daily use and necessity, they will let the lobbyists control legislation on this subject, thereby defeating the Pettus bill. The fight is on, and if the people of the country will wake up the trusts can be curbed and controlled in any State.

A Deep Mystery.

It is a mystery why women endure Backache, Headache, Nervousness, Sleeplessness, Melancholy, Fainting and Dizzy Spells when thousands have proved that Electric Bitters will quickly cure such troubles. "I suffered for years with kidney trouble," writes Mrs. Phoebe Charley, of Peterson, Ia., "and a lame back pained me so I could not dress myself, but Electric Bitters wholly cured me, and, although 73 years old, I now am able to do all my household work." It overcomes Constipation, improves Appetite, gives perfect health. Only 50c at J. H. Hill & Son's drug store.

"Little Bobs" though an earl, has lost none of his old time popularity in London.

Blown to Atoms.
The old idea that the body sometimes needs a powerful, drastic, purgative pill has been exploded; for Dr. King's New Life Pills, which are perfectly harmless, gently stimulate liver and bowels to expel poisonous matter, cleanse the system and absolutely cure Constipation and Sick Headache. Only 25c at J. Hill & Son's drug store.

Mr. Burton, the Senator expectant of Kansas, is an orator and a dude.

The more blunders a man makes the more expert he becomes in framing apologies.

Senator Pettigrew is still sitting astride of that ship subsidy bill.

Affection springs from the desire of mankind to appear better than it really is.

Pepsin preparations often fail to relieve indigestion because they can digest only albuminous foods. There is one preparation that digests all classes of food, and that is Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It cures the worst cases of indigestion and gives instant relief, for it digests what you eat.—J. H. Hill & Son.

Adam was probably created in the afternoon—at least it was a little before Eve.

Such little pills as DeWitt's Little Early Risers are very easily taken, and they are wonderfully effective in cleaning the liver and bowels.—J. H. Hill & Son.

When a poor man wants assistance the world is always ready to oblige him—to keep on wanting.

Chills, fevers and malaria yield to Roberts' Chill Tonic, if you get the genuine with a red cross on label. 25c. No cure, no pay.

A lot of different tools come under the head of sin, but a lie is the handle that fits them all.

When threatened by pneumonia or any other lung trouble, prompt relief is necessary, as it is dangerous to delay. We would suggest that One Minute Cough Cure be taken as soon as indications of having taken cold are noticed. It cures quickly and its early use prevents consumption.—J. H. Hill & Son.

Omaha should hire a real genuine detective.
