THE WEATHER.

For North Carolina.
No report received.

CITY CONVENTION.

There will be a convention of the Democratic voters of the city of Goldsboro in the Court House THIS FRIDAY NIGHT at 8 p. m. for the purpose of nominating three candidates for the Board of Public Works, as provided for in the new charter.

OUR LOCAL OPTIC.

Goldsboro and Vicinity History in Brief! Epitome of Sayings and Deeds, Wise and Otherwise, Run Down and Run In by Omnipresent Ubiquitous, Local "Grand Rounds."

Mr. R. O. Collier, a prosperous business man of Smithfield, was in the city to-day.

Mrs. C. C. Shine, of Mt. Olive, is in the city, visiting the family of Mr. L. D. Giddens.

Mr. J. J. Laughinghouse, of Grimesland, Pitt county, spent yesterday in the city, the guest of Mr. B. R. King.

Elder Wm. Woodard will occupy the pulpit of the Primitive Baptist church in this city to-morrow and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Dobson arrived in the city this morning from Augusta, on a visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jno. F. Dobson.

Mr. N. H. Carter, one of the most energetic, prosperous and popular young business men of Duplin county, was in the city to-day.

Rev. D. A. Tuttle was in the city to-day returning to his home in Kinston from Wilmington, where he has been conducting revival services.

Do not forget the convention in the court house to-night to nominate a board of public works for the city of Goldsboro to be voted for next Monday.

At the meeting of the Junior Order of U. A. M. on Wednesday night it was decided to attend the Presbyterian church in a body on the second Sunday in this month.

Little Miss Helen Creech, the amiable daughter of Mr. and Mrs. K. A. Creech, has been confined to her home with fever the past week, but is somewhat better to-day, her many young friends will be glad to know.

Mr. D. H. Cameron, of the internal revenue service, who formerly had on office in this city, but who is now located at headquarters in Raleigh, was in the city to-day on his way to spend some days at his home in Kinston.

Rev. C. A. Jenkins, who has been conducting a protracted meeting in the First Baptist church in Newbern, with very satisfactory results, has returned to the city and will occupy his pulpit at the usual hours on Sunday.

It is expected that the minstrel show of the K. of P. Band will draw the largest audience to the Opera House that has gathered within those walls for some time. Next Thursday night is the time. After the show the banquet and german will take place in the Armory.

The dust took a sneak from East and West Centre streets between 9 and 10 o'clock this morning, much to the relief of the citizens. Between 9 and 10 o'clock the street sprinkler was started out, and by 11 o'clock the business section of the city had been sprinkled. The sprinkler is not run by the city but those who wish the streets sprinkled in front of their places of business can have it done by "chipping in" their part.

The last Legislature imposed a tax of $5 per year on cigarette dealers, and a great many of the corner grocers have gone out of the business, claiming that there was not $5 profit in selling cigarettes. This will curtail the sale of the poisonous things somewhat, but it is a great pity that the Legislature did not make it $50 instead of $5.

The first "berry" train of the season passed through the city to-day. It was loaded with strawberries picked up along the line between here and Wilmington. All the berries will be shipped by express for the next few days while the price is high, but soon refrigerator cars will be in demand and train load after train load can be seen passing through Goldsboro.
