THE WEATHER.

For North Carolina.

Fair and cool to-night; fair, warmer Sunday.

OUR LOCAL OPTIC.

Goldsboro and Vicinity History in Brief Epitome of Sayings and Doings, Wise and Otherwise, Run Down and Run in by Unimpaired Ubiquitous, Local "Grand Rounds."

Miss Maggie Exum was in the city to-day the guest of Mrs. Frank Boyette.

Mr. C. Dewey left last night for Baltimore to join Mrs. Dewey, who is at a private sanitarium.

At the First Baptist church the pastor will preach, by request, Sunday night on "The Unpardonable Sin."

His many friends are glad to see Mr. Sol Einstein, in the city, where he was once one of our leading business men.

Mr. K. E. Bizzell, of the popular shoe and hat store of Bizzell Brothers of this city, is spending some days at Seven Springs.

Rev. M. Bradshaw has returned from New Orleans, where he went to attend the Methodist Missionary Conference. He will occupy his pulpit at the usual hours tomorrow.

A photograph of St. Stephen's vested choir in their processions and the interior of the church, has been presented to the Hotel Kenon for the direction. It is a pretty piece of work.

Mr. E. B. Borden, president of the Bank of Wayne, and Mr. W. H. Borden, president of the Goldsboro Furniture Factory, left to-day for old Point, where they will spend some days in recreation at the Chamberlain Hotel.

The convention to nominate a board of public works for the city of Goldsboro, to be voted for Monday next last night, and without making any nomination adjourned until to-night at 8:30 o'clock, when a meeting will be held in the court house.

Goldsboro is getting to be pretty thick with thieves. Last night the night watchman at the A. & N. C. R. K., Mr. John E. Stanley, caught a thief trying to break into a carload of sugar. The thief was held up and given into custody of Chief of Police A. E. Freeman.

The election for Mayor and board of Aldermen, for a board of public works, and to decide whether their term shall be one or two years will be held Monday. There will be four voting places, one in each of the four wards of the city, where those who are registered can deposit their ballots.

The closing performance of the colored Graded School last night in the Messenger Opera House was indeed a creditable affair. The children were well drilled and neatly dressed. The immense audience was more orderly than usual. Quite a number of prominent white citizens were out and all enjoyed themselves. Mr. Geo. E. Hood, the next mayor of the city, made an appropriate and encouraging speech. This school is one of the best in the State. Much credit is due the management for the success of the affair last night.

To-morrow afternoon at 4:30 p. m. the Second Choral Vesper service will be given at St. Stephens Episcopal church. The choir will sing Berr's "Jubilate Deo," and Warren's "Rise Crowned with Light," Sherwin's "Exalt Him all ye people." And as an offertory Carl Simper's "Make a joyful noise to the Lord." A male quartet will sing also Warren's "Come Holy Spirit Heavenly Dove." Those who were present at the first of these services a month ago, will recall with pleasure the sacred song and doubtless take advantage of the opportunity to hear the choir again. It is given at an hour not conflicting with the church services. All are invited; seats free.

REBUKED BY A NEGRO.

Dr. Parkhurst in his sermon last Sunday declared that the negro was liked by the whites no better in the north than in the south.

This was a candid statement of a fact which has additional demonstration every day.

One of the latest evidences of prejudice in the north against the negro is furnished in the strong and growing opposition to the employment of negro waiters in the Union League Club.

That club is not only a Republican association, but is composed of the element which is most rampant against the South and which is constantly engaged in assailing the South, for its alleged wrongs to the negro.

But these men who would have the negro placed on full social equality in the South object to his employment in the north even for menial service.

The negroes, South as well as North, are beginning to understand the hypocrisy of much of the love for them and solicitude for their welfare which many northern men and newspapers so loudly proclaim. A negro preacher in New York in a recent sermon expressed his regret that antagonism to the employment of negroes should be found to exist where the negro should least expect to find it, if he can believe the profession of the Union League club members. He is disappointed and pained that his white Republican brother should treat as he does the brother in black, whom he declares that he loves so tenderly, and he concludes by saying:

"Having lived in the South all my life, except nearly two years spent in the pastorate in this city, from my personal observation I must confess that prejudice against my race in some sections of the North is as strong as in the South, only it is met and dealt with in a different way. The South gives every man an opportunity to earn a living; the northern negro is given an opportunity to spend his living without the opportunity to earn it."

Such is the testimony of thousands of negroes who have lived both in the North and South.
