HENRY TIMROD.

Boston Herald.

Lovers of genuine poetry, lovers of sweetness and light, learn with gratification that, on May 1, a bronze bust of Henry Timrod was unveiled in Washington Square, Charleston, S. C., with appropriate ceremonies of appreciation. One thin volume contains all that Timrod published, but it is precious, and will not soon die. His work for the most part was done during the terrible days of the civil war, when his countrymen of the South were too much absorbed in the desperate fortunes of their section to give much heed to the singer, even when their cause was the inspiration of his songs. The passion of the South, in its highest phase of devotion and sacrifice, had no more inspired voice than his. He died in 1867 in dire poverty, the victim of consumption. He died almost unknown beyond a small circle of admirers.

One of the earliest admirers of his verse was Governor Andrews, who committed to memory and often recited aloud in his office as a relief from the strains of toil one of his poems, which he had found in a newspaper. He was really introduced to the northern public through a small volume, collected and published with a sympathetic sketch of his life by his friend, Paul H. Hayne. Since that time he has steadily grown in favor. This is the season when his noble poem, "Spring," appeals to all hearts. It is impossible for one who knows it to look upon the woods in May and not recall the lines: "In the deep heart of every forest tree
The blood is all aglee,
And there's a look about the leafless bowers
As if they dreamed of flowers."

Fought For His Life.

"My father and sister both died of Consumption," writes J. T. Weatherwax, of Wyandotte, Mich., "and I was saved from the same frightful fate only by Dr. King's New Discovery. An attack of Pneumonia left an obstinate cough and very severe lung trouble, which an excellent doctor could not help, but a few months' use of this wonderful medicine made me as well as ever and I gained much in weight." Infalible for Coughs, Colds and all Throat and Lung trouble. Trial bottles free. Guaranteed bottles 50c and $1.00 at J. H. Hill & Son.

Bottles cast on the waters drift at the rate of ten miles a day.

Shudders at His Past

"I recall now with horror," says Mail Carrier Burnett Mann, of LeVana, O., "my three years of suffering from kidney trouble. I was hardly ever free from dull aches or acute pains in my back. To stoop or lift mail sacks made me groan. I felt tired, worn out, about ready to give up, when I began to use Electric Bitters, about six bottles completely cured me, and made me feel like a new man." They're unrivaled to regulate Stomach, Liver, Kidneys and Bowels. Perfect satisfaction guaranteed by J. H. Hill & Son. Only 50 cents.

Dr. E. Detchen's Anti-Diuretic
May be worth to you more than $100 if you have a child who soils bedding from incontinence of water during sleep. Cures old and young alike. It arrests the trouble at once. $1. Sold by M. E. Robinson & Bro., Druggists.

Spring Humors

It doesn't make any difference whether you believe in the modern theory and speak of the cause of diseases as referable to germs, microbes or bacilli, or whether you use the older and better understood terms of "humors" and "blood diseases"—Hood's Sarsaparilla cures them all JUST THE SAME. It cures those eruptions, boils and pimples which are so likely to appear in the Spring; cures scrofula diseases in their most tenacious forms; cures salt rheum or eczema and relieves the itching and burning; adapts itself equally well to, and also cures, dyspepsia and all stomach troubles due to generally weak condition and thin, anemic blood; cures nervous troubles, which, in nine cases out of ten, exist because the impure blood cannot supply proper nerve food; cures debility and that tired feeling, which just as surely indicates that the blood is lacking in vitality and the elements of health. This is not merely modern theory but it is solid, up-to-date fact. Hood's Sarsaparilla has had such remarkable success along these lines that it is not too much to say it is the best Spring Medicine, blood purifier, stomach and nerve tonic that money can buy.

Old Soldier's Experience.

M. M. Austin, a civil war veteran, of Winchester, Ind., writes: "My wife was sick a long time in spite of good doctors' treatment, but was wholly cured by Dr. King's New Life Pills, which worked wonders for her health." They always do. Try them. Only 25 cents at J. H. Hill & Son's drug store.

In Professor Crook's denial there is a strong inference.

It Saved His Leg.

P. A. Danforth, of LaGrange, Ga., suffered for six months with a frightful running sore on his leg; but writes that Bucklen's Arnica Salve wholly cured it in five days. For Ulcers, Wounds, Piles, it's the best salve in the world. Cures guaranteed. Only 25c. Sold by J. H. Hill & Son.

If people only knew what we know about Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, it would be used in nearly every household, as there are few people who do not suffer from a feeling of fullness after eating, belching, flatulence, sour stomach or waterbrash, caused by indigestion or dyspepsia. A preparation such as Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, which, with no aid from the stomach, will digest your food, certainly can't help but do you good. J. H. Hill & Son.

About the Price

Did it ever occur to you that a price in itself is absolutely meaningless, and very often deceptive? A price may seem to be very low and still be an outrageous overcharge if the expected quality is absent. It's the relation that price bears to Quality that determines whether the price is high or low one. Price and quality to gether produce VALUE. Shrewd buyers want GOOD VALUES not simply low prices. Long years of experience enable us to combine all the above features in the JONES BUGGY.
