

ANOTHER WAR!

Terrible Slaughter—Everything in Sight is Mowed Down, Regardless of Consequences.

Be not alarmed, kind friend, this is not a war that makes sad hearts and desolate homes; but, rather, one which will gladden and cheer and bring comfort to the rich and poor alike. I must clear my store of a good deal of its present stock, in order to make room for new spring goods, and to accomplish this I am waging a slaughtering war on prices. Everything in the Dry Goods and Clothing line is being attacked. Come in and let us show you the great bargains we are offering. You cannot afford to miss this opportunity.

We are going to close these goods out, regardless of cost. If you are looking real bargains, come quick. Don't forget that we are in the Grocery business, too, and can and will save you money.

RICHARD WATSON GILDER'S INSCRIPTIONS.

The Pen of the Gifted Editor Gives a Finishing Touch to the Exposition. He Proclaims a Prophecy and Pronounces a Benediction.

When the people of the two Americas visit the Exposition city just erected "by the great waters of the North," many will recognize the style of Richard Watson Gilder in the classic and poetic inscriptions which adorn its Propylaea, Stadium, bridges, palaces and temples. The Exposition was peculiarly fortunate in persuading the scholarly editor of The Century to put the finishing touch on the artistic masterpiece. Those who read the legends will feel that their author is a man who "has upheld the ideals of Liberty and Justice" and who throughout a laborious life now in its prime has been "faithful to the things that are eternal," one who "has never shunned the dust and sweat of the contest and on whose brow" already "falls the cool shade of the olive" and rests the wreath of the victor's laurel.

INSCRIPTIONS FOR THE PROPYLEA.

PANEL I.
Here, by the great waters of the north, are brought together the peoples of the two Americas, in exposition of their resources, industries, products, inventions, arts and ideas.

PANEL II.
That the century now begun may unite in the bonds of peace, knowledge, good will, friendship and noble emulation all the dwellers on the continents and islands of the new world.

INSCRIPTIONS FOR THE STADIUM.

PANEL I.
Not ignoble are the days of peace, not without courage and laureled victories.

PANEL II.
He who falls bravely has not truly failed, but is himself also a conqueror.

PANEL III.
Who shuns the dust and sweat of the contest, on his brow falls not the cool shade of the olive.

INSCRIPTIONS FOR THE GREAT PYLONS OF THE BRIDGE.

On the pylons are statues of Courage, Liberty, Tolerance, Truth, Benevolence, Patriotism, Hospitality and Justice.

PANEL I.
The spirit of adventure is the maker of commonwealths.

PANEL II.
Freedom is but the first lesson in self government.

PANEL III.
Religious tolerance a safeguard of civil liberty.

PANEL IV.
A free state exists only in the virtue of the citizen.

PANEL V.
Who gives wisely builds manhood and the state—who gives himself gives best.

PANEL VI.
To love one's country above all others is not to despise all others.

PANEL VII.
The brotherhood of man—the federation of nations—the peace of the world.

PANEL VIII.
Between nation and nation as between man and man lives the one law of right.

DEDICATORY INSCRIPTIONS UPON PRINCIPAL BUILDINGS.

PANEL I.
To the ancient races of America, for whom the new world was the old, their love of freedom and of nature, their hardy courage, their monuments, arts, legends and strange songs, may not perish from the earth.

PANEL II.
To the explorers and pioneers who blazed the western path of civilization, to the soldiers and sailors who fought for freedom and for peace and to the civic heroes who save a priceless heritage.

PANEL III.
To the great inventors and farseeing projectors, to the engineers, manufacturers, agriculturists and merchants who have developed the resources of the new world and multiplied the homes of freemen.

PANEL IV.
To those who in the deadly mine, on stormy seas, in the fierce breath of the furnace and in all perilous places working ceaselessly bring to their fellow men comfort, sustenance and the grace of life.

PANEL V.
To the scholars and laborious investigators who in the old world and the new guard the lamp of knowledge and century by century increase the safety of life, enlighten the mind and enlarge the spirit of man.

PANEL VI.
To those painters, sculptors and architects, to those actors and musicians who in the new world have cherished and increased the love of beauty.

PANEL VII.
To the prophets and heroes, to the mighty poets and divine artists and to all the light bearers of the ancient world who inspired our forefathers and shall lead and enlighten our children's children.

PANEL VIII.
To the statesmen, philosophers, teachers and preachers and to all those who in the new world have upheld the ideals of liberty and justice and have been faithful to the things that are eternal.
