THE WEATHER.

For North Carolina.
Fair to-night; possibly thunder storms Saturday afternoon.

OUR LOCAL OPTIC.

Mr. Ernest B. Dewey is at home for a day or two.

Baseball at the Park at 4:30—Goldsboro vs. Wilson.

Rev. A. B. Morgan, of Fremont, was in the city yesterday.

The Board of Aldermen was in session last night—the regular monthly meeting. A large amount of routine work was transacted.

Usually home grown water-mellons are for sale on our streets on the fourth of July. The season this year was too backward for the melons.

The glorious Fourth of July has passed. Many people took holiday. We would like to see the day observed. Next to Christmas day the fourth of July is the day of days.

Mr. T. A. Uzzell, cashier of the Bank of Beaufort, spent yesterday in Goldoro and returned to Beaufort last night. Albert has lots of friends here and they were glad to see him.

Col. A. C. Davis has just returned from New York, where he has been for some days on legal business. While in New York Col. Davis delivered the address at one of the largest graded schools in that city. Mrs. Davis accompanied him.

Goldsboro has made rapid progress within the last two years. Let the good work go on. There is no time to lose. We have the location. We have the soil. We have the climate. Naturally Goldsboro is the eye of Eastern North Carolina.

Mrs. Flora Kendall left on the noon train to-day for Detroit Mich., where she goes to take a course in musical kindergarten. She will probably be absent several weeks, and on her return will be ready to begin her class and also resume her piano lessons.

A gentleman who has been travelling over North Carolina for fourteen years says that he has never seen such poor crops in the State. In some sections of the State, where much wheat is raised, the crops is almost a failure. The corn and cotton are very small, and the tobacco was almost ruined by the hail.

The steambat Goldsboro which left here yesterday morning with an excursion for Seven Springs, got stranded on a sand bar before a mile had been covered and did not reach the Springs in time to make the return trip last night, but got back at 1 o'clock to-day with all on board in good condition.

Two much attention cannot be given to cleanliness about premises these hot days. The city has the best sanitary ordinance ever in force here, and the Sanitary Committee of which Alderman Dr. W. H. H. Cobb is chairman, is doing the people of the city a great service in carrying out the sanitary ordinances which will add so much to the health of the community. Let every person in the city aid the committee in every way possible. A clean city means a healthy city.

These are vacation days. Thousands of boys are absolutely idle and at a most critical period in their lives. Vacation days and prolonged idleness ruin many boys. Loafing about the streets lounging around hotels and other public places are dangerous practices for any boy, no matter how correct his habits, or sound his principles. The ARGUS means not to wound or criticize any boy, for the ARGUS loves the boys, and for fourteen years with pleasure and pride it has chronicled the success of many Goldsboro boys, and has rejoiced with them over the victories they have won. It is our love for the boys that causes us to write these words, and to warn them of the dangers of vacation days. One of the saddest sights known to man is the wreck and ruin of a noble boy.

NAILED ON THE SPOT.

Black Brute Captured in a Young Lady's Sleeping Room.

Goldsboro Cer. Morning Post.

Near Eureka, a small place in the northeastern section of this county, resides E. M. Sauls with his family. In their employment was Ed. Applewhite, a negro farm laborer, about sixteen years old. Early Wednesday evening Ed. left the house, ostensibly to be gone all night.

About two o'clock Thursday morning one of Mr. Sauls' daughters heard some one in her room and felt a hand touch the bed clothes. She arose and struck a match, which went out. Another match was struck, and Ed. Applewhite was seen attempting to conceal himself in the room. Mr. Sauls sprang from his bed and grappled with the negro, who made a desperate effort to get away. There is no doubt that he would have succeeded but for the fact that Mr. Sauls was quickly joined by his son, and the two overpowered Applewhite and bound him.

Having secured the lustful wretch, Mr. Sauls quietly notified Deputy Sheriff Rom Chase, who took the prisoner in charge and brought him to this city without exciting any alarm in the neighborhood. Applewhite was turned over to Sheriff Scott and lodged in jail.

Knife Attracts Lightning.

Salisbury, Md., July 4.—Electrical storms have caused death and destruction in sections of the Eastern Shore of Maryland the last twenty-four hours. Several barns were struck by lightning and burned.

A bolt shot through the open window of Ross Phillips' house, near here, during a storm last evening. Mrs. Phillips, her two daughters and a son were in the dining room at supper. The mother was instantly killed. Her daughter, Bertha, received a shock from which she cannot survive, and other members of the family were stunned. A part of the dining room and the kitchen was torn out. Mrs. Phillips had a steel knife in her hand when she was struck, and it is believed that this attracted the fluid.

Kissing Not a Crime.

Columbia, S. C., July 4.—For the first time in the history of South Carolina Criminal Courts a man has been prosecuted for kissing a pretty maid.

The offender was C. C. Hopper, an official of the Clifton Manufacturing Company, of Spartanburg. The victim is Miss Maggie Cudd, 16, buxom and pretty.

Hopper is a married man and there was great interest in the trial. There was no doubt of the kissing. Miss Cudd convinced the jury. The indictment read: "Assault and battery of a high and aggravated nature."

The jury did not think the kissing a penitentiary offense, and after hanging four hours found Mr. Hopper not guilty.
